

Give Satan an Inch and he will take a mile.

During prayer time last night God impressed a message on my heart thru His Holy Spirit.

God showed me that Satan is very real and his goal is to move all of us away from the light of Christ. Satan tries to move us one inch every day away from being centered in Christ. He does this by subtly making suggestions into our minds that allow us to justify doing things in the flesh. One inch a day doesn't seem like much but over a course of a year one inch every day amounts to 30 feet. The further we are moved away from the light of Christ then it becomes more difficult to hear what God might be trying to tell us. The only way that a person can stay unmovable in Christ is by constantly being in prayer and in God's Word. We also must put on the armor of God every day. Someone who is a marginal Christian and goes off to college can be moved 120 feet from God in a 4 year period based on Satan moving them an inch a day from God's light. It is understandable to see how so many college kids are radicalized away from The Cross by the time they leave college. Satan is constantly in people's ear who are not anchored in prayer, in The Word, and in the Armor of God. He wants people to believe that it is ok to drink because commercials tell us that it is, and it is ok to have sex before marriage because everyone does it, and it is ok to live together so that you can get to know someone better.. He tells us that country music is fine because they mention God a lot (not to mention sex, and drinking and drugs) but even most people on street corners use God's name on cardboard signs to profit from His name. Satan was in the garden with Adam and Eve and he was constantly in their ears telling them how great they could be. Everyday he was working on moving them another inch away from God's eternal light. Eventually they were so far away from God's light that they took the bait and all mankind fell because of their sin.

Time is very short and Satan will continue to come after the low hanging fruit. Don't make yourself a target for him

Honor God by the way that you live your life. Stay centered in Him and remain in His light. Fight off the schemes of Satan and never give him a foot hold into your life. God's Word is very powerful. Stay in prayer and always surround yourself with God's armor. God loves you very much! Live for Him.
