

YOUR SALVATION?

“Are you sure of your salvation? How can you be sure of your salvation? What does salvation mean? What is it and where is it? Does salvation just apply to humans? When will salvation be? Is New Covenant salvation different from Old Covenant salvation? How can you tell how salvation applies to you?”

Start your search for these answers in My Word, the Bible, but realize that there are many more sources to discover than this. Always be careful however when searching My Word because the devil is very crafty and will confuse.

Salvation is the preservation of the soul and spirit in God. To be saved one must be righteous, pure, and holy and be forgiven for all sins, and the price paid for all sins. When one accepts Jesus the Christ as their Savior, they are secure, and if one stays in Christ, they maintain their salvation.

God’s kingdoms have many realms and to be in the presence of God is to be saved. Heaven is also a place of salvation and many of the righteous are there, and are saved.

All who are in the mercy of God will be saved if repentance is full and payment is full. Christians must know this, for sin after salvation, through Christ is not covered by Christ’s blood and must be repented and expiated. The promise of Christ is true, but God is just and righteous and must judge fairly and hold all accountable for their indiscretions as well as all the good that one has done.

There are many forms of life in heaven and in the realm of God. Many are like the current forms of life on the Earth, but there is much more. All that is good is there and love permeates all.

Salvation is now, for you are eternal beings, so always strive to seek God’s face in all that you do and be not overcome by the world and the evil therein.

All of the Old and New Covenant will be judged by the same standards, and for their knowledge will be held accountable. Righteousness, holiness, and purity have never changed.

Seek God and listen to His voice, and the voice of the Holy Spirit, and of Jesus, to know if you are secure in your salvation. Beseech Him and He will answer.

Learn to live and live to learn.

The Holy Spirit.”
