A. “Woe To Me, Because I Have Remained Silent!”

I was afraid, I kept my mouth shut and saved my hide. At least, I'm honest...
Its really not my business! I don't know them well enough to speak of God!
Who am I to tell the lost they need to repent Now! Before its too late!
Live and let live! Ease-Up! Just don't pay any attention to their sinful ways!
They can do what they want, I don't care. Anyway people refuse to listen...
I was going to say something but the opportunity passed.
I didn't know what to say? Its OK, I'll witness to them later!
It doesn't matter what I say to them, their reaction is always negative.
Why should I stick out my neck for strangers? Pause, I'll think about it later?
They are not my friends or family? I smelled aggression, God understands!
Come on, I can't save the whole world! I have to think of my family, etc. etc.
I was considering my options, others were listening to what was said.
There is still lots of time, I am waiting for a better chance to speak to them!
WRONG WRONG WRONG Woe To Me, Because I Have Remained Silent!

Note: I have stuggled with the first message and stalled delivering it. The same with Abortion I have done little over the course of my life although I have always known it is murder. I am not immune to the knowledge of my own guilt in my stubborn silence. I repent Lord, have mercy on me a sinner!
