Shelves Empty Again.

(Vision of July 20, 2020 ~3:00AM)

Last night I had a very short vision. In the morning, I remembered what I saw, searched for more detail but that is all, a very short but realistic vision.

In this vision I am at the shelf, near the wall, of a grocery store. I didn't walk in, I found myself standing by the shelf. I found a single bag of bread, all gone. The shelves are empty, left and right. It looks that single bag of bread is left for me. I was hesitating to take it in the hope there is more, looked around but that was all I found.

In one previous dream, I have been there, the same place and setting when the shelves were full of bags of bread and other grocery supplies.

The evidence. Before or after the above vision, I don't remember. In the same manner, I had a flash vision of a mail coming in my mailbox with a document I was expecting. I was expecting this mail at least six months or more later, not now. I went in the morning to check for some other mails, there it was. The two visions I saw are the same, short and precise. telling us what the Lord is showing us is true. For sure it is coming

How many times do we have to be warned to be ready? It has become one year since I posted a vision the Lord gave me last year:- Famine Next Year—McKana, AUG 15, 2019, 8:08 PM
