Title: Choose Jesus, Any Other Choice is Death

In a Nazi Death Camp Dream

I was an older Jewish man dressed in a nice shirt and a green and gold baroque vest. I remember having a chain coming out of a pocket on the vest. I was with two young women who had on dresses of that time period. It was nighttime. We were standing in the doorway of a barn. There was light in the barn but outside it was a really dark, only faint light from the moon shone in the darkness. Nazi soldiers wanted me to do something extremely horrible. In three bins outside there were chopped up pieces of human bodies sitting on a table. It was extremely graphic and lucid I could see everything clearly. I remember thinking before they demanded me to do me anything: "No Lord, no Lord I'd rather die!" The Nazi soldiers ordered me to tie the bins to ropes to allow the body pieces to be lowered into a pig pen to feed the chopped-up people to pigs. I tied the ropes to the bins holding in tears and keeping a straight face before the soldiers to prevent myself from getting into trouble all while thinking in my mind: "Forgive me Lord! Forgive me Lord!" I went back to stand with the women and Nazi commander shouted as if to justify feeding humans to pigs: "They are different from us!" Then I woke up.

I prayed to the Lord about the interpretation to the dream as it was very upsetting and really the worst, most graphic dream I had ever experienced.

Here is what the Father said:

The time is coming where if you do the take the mark/vaccine, you will be genetically different from others. You are made in my image. Those who are made in the image of satan will hate you. You are different, set apart. The enemy seeks to kill and devour. Did I not say it was so?

Come out from among them. Do not stay to partake in their sins. They will offer you up to be killed and murdered. It is better to leave this world to be with me. I am not saying to take your own life but do not hold on to this life so tightly that you are willing to sacrifice your humanity to save your life. Lo, who ever will lose his life from my name sake will gain life and whoever holds on to his life will lose it. Do not be afraid of death, trust in Me. In me is eternal life. A time is coming where choosing death will be the far better option. Are you willing to lay down your life for me or will you justify evil in your mind to hold on to this life which is a vanishing vapor? Here you choose your eternity. Here you choose heaven or hell. If you side with evil, do you think you will be protected? NO. Satan hates you all the same and will kill you all if it was not me holding him back. Everything is in my hands. Listen my sons and daughters, the time is now. Choose life. Choose Jesus. Any other choice is death.
