

Word Received August 4, 2020

Possible titles:

I want to see you enter my kingdom with peace in your soul

Where will you turn when you are pushed to your limit?

You are not all able to battle dinosaurs

Note about this message: Sometimes the Lord uses a play on words or multiple meanings of one word. If you see a word used twice or more, it is quite possible that the 2nd or 3rd definition of a word is being used, the word has a deeper meaning, is being used figuratively, or perhaps is part of an idiom of some kind. Please remember that the Lord knows how to play with language in poetic ways (and I believe he enjoys it!). Once you have read the message, please take it to the Lord for clarity or confirmation.

Another note: I believe the Lord used the word "dinosaurs" figuratively to represent the creatures in Revelation that John describes. Bible verses are listed below the message.

Me: What do you want to say Lord?

Message:

Say to them, daughter, that they are a stench in my nostrils. Their sin rises to the rooftops and beyond, up to my dwelling in Heaven. How many (babies) would you kill if I don't put a stop to it? Thousands more? Millions more. Yes, the answer is millions. Small, beautiful little babes meant to walk the earth. Their laugh will never be heard this side of eternity. They dwell with me in peace. They are well taken care of, do not worry. Some of you, dear ones, will meet them soon. Some of you will take charge of their upbringing. Yes, they must still be raised with godly parenting.

Where will you turn when the time comes? When you are pushed to your limit? The limit is different for each of you. You are not all able to battle dinosaurs, but some of you have those skills! They are impressive to be sure. Still, even you, young man, will be tested to the limit. And then what, son? Will you ask me for help? I will be here waiting for you.

Til then, my precious dears, I know some of you are AT THAT LIMIT as I speak. I wait for you to calm down, come to Me, give me the burden or yoke, and relax. Yes I said relax. How can I relax? Some of you ask. Well, I suppose the answer isn't easy, or trite, but I WILL say, try to relax and give the burdens to me dear one. You are precious to me, and I want to see you enter my kingdom with peace in your soul, my perfect peace.

Are you weary and heavy laden? Bring it to my feet and lay it down, lay the burden down. My lovely sheep, I long for you to be safe in my pasture. There are wolves lurking near you, and for a time, they will be allowed to prevail against some of you. Only for a short time, and then I will establish my kingdom on earth. It will be a beautiful time of fellowship! Your banquet awaits. The Son of God waits to return to his rightful kingdom. Stay faithful, my doves. Your loving Father and Yeshua

Definition:

Trite - (of a remark or idea) lacking originality or freshness; dull on account of overuse (google dictionary)

Bible verses:

The beast was allowed to say proud words and words against God, and it was allowed to use its power for forty-two months. ⁶It used its mouth to speak against God, against God's name, against the place where God lives, and against all those who live in heaven. ⁷It was given power to make war against God's holy people and to defeat them. -Revelation 13:5-7

The appearance of the locusts was like horses equipped for battle. Something like gold crowns was on their heads; their faces were like men's faces; ⁸they had hair like women's hair; their teeth were like lions' teeth; ⁹they had chests like iron breastplates; the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses rushing into battle; ¹⁰and they had tails with stingers like scorpions, so that with their tails they had the power to harm people for five months. -Revelation 9:7-10

I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. -Matthew 26:29
