Introduction

Why my long silence?

It has been seven weeks since my last newsletter and studies. I have recently been putting one out evert three to four weeks. As I was approaching the time for me to go to work on the next one, I heard the Holy Spirit tell me that it was not the time.

I had been using my time since my last newsletter to finishing prepping my ranch. It is not much of a ranch but we have gardens, fruit trees and a lot of chickens. I had been hearing the Holy Spirit telling me to get my house in order, time is running out. I had been letting things fall into disrepair and the Lord was telling me to make needed repairs and organize. I have intermittent fatigue and this could have shut me down but it was like I was given a reprieve and I was able to get many projects accomplished.

When a month had passed, I had a check in my spirit that it was not the time to do my next study. I study and pray for wisdom every day and I collect material for my next studies but God was telling me that my readers are not ready to receive what God wants me to say.

Then my computer was attacked with a trojan that took a week to repair. My infrastructure came under attack and I had fresh breakdowns. Then my body came under a severe physical attack. I kept asking God for healing so I could work for Him But I believe God wanted me to just trust Him and wait for His go ahead.

Last Saturday and Sunday were my worst days ever, spending half my day in bed. I knew the direction I needed to go with my newsletter and I was just waiting for the energy to do it. Then Yesterday I had a great day and put half my newsletter together. Today I am having a second good day and I am making great progress on what may be the most important newsletter you will have ever read from me.

Please do not let distractions keep you from reading every page, it is that important.

Who is Pastor Dana Coverstone?

Pastor Dana Coverstone is the Pastor of a small Assembly of God Church in Tennessee. From listening to some of his sermons I see him as an uncompromising man of God. In the beginning of this year before the Corona Virus was a threat in America, God started giving him a series of dreams. His first dream showed him the coming pandemic

In Pastors first dream he was shown the calendar months of January through June. He saw a pandemic with people on ventilators. He saw riots in our cities and fear hitting the people. God told him in the dream to brace yourself, saying this more than once.

He was quite taken aback by this dream as he says he had not many previous dreams and he is not a prophet. He shared this dream with key men in his church and they saw every detail of this first dream come to pass. Then Pastor Dana started have new similar dreams with other events shown to him that would come later. He felt compelled to share these dreams online as YouTube videos.

His Dreams went viral and his first posted dreams had like two million hits. Everyone was talking about his dreams and the part that made many nervous was, he was given a time line for coming events and this is very unusual for even real prophets to be given time lines.

Why Did God Chose Him?

I believe God chose Pastor Dana for a few reasons and probably for some reasons I done see. I believe the big reason is because Pastor Dana believes in a Pre-Tribulation Rapture.

Why would this be a reason for God choosing him? Because most of the church think we will be taken to heaven before bad stuff happens. Because Pastor Dana also believes this, the millions of Christians who are following him, want to know what God is saying to the church. If Pastor Dana professed that he believed in a mid-trib. rapture he would have been lucky if even a couple thousand people would have tuned in to hear what God was showing him in his dreams. When you watch him on his videos you can tell he is a sincere consecrated Man of God, and this is getting to be even lacking among ministers today.

Are his Dreams coming to pass?

It is uncanny how his dreams are coming to pass. These dreams have really stirred up the false prophets and the pillow prophets. They are saying many things against Pastor Dana and his dreams because many are worried that he may be right. If he is right then America is on borrowed time in a few months America as we know it will be history.

You cannot call his dreams pizza dreams because pizza dreams would be come to pass with such accuracy. One so called prophet said he was having these dreams because he was reading to many global newspapers. Another so called prophet said his dreams were only a warning of what would happen if we did not pray. In his second dream he saw the riots increasing in intensity. He saw and went public with coins disappearing before it happened. There were other details that came to pass with great accuracy. If these dreams were only a warning and would be stopped with our prayers, then why did his dream still come to pass?

His 4th dream was about solemn September. God was calling the church to start praying through the month of September. It was a call to pray for revival and a time of personal consecration to God. At the end of this dream he saw a figure in white, (Jesus) saying "Arise my Bride, arise my bride prepare to pray, prepare for battle, prepare to see my face". When he did an interview on the Jim Bakker Show he said that Jesus did not tell him the rapture would happen, but then pastor Dana said that this was rapture verbiage.

When you read later in my study about the three resurrections, you will see my explanation for what Dana's September dream was all about. Many are calling Pastor Dana a false prophet because they say nothing happened. They Don't understand that September was about people drawing close to God and reconsecrating their lives to being obedient and walking close to God so they could be ready to be part of the First Fruits of the Resurrection. You will understand this better when you read my study on the three resurrections.

I believe it is a grave mistake to think what God showed Pastor Dana can be prayed away. This thought that is being promoted by the false pillow prophets is only putting the church back to sleep. God is judging America and it is to late to stop it now, wake up church or you will see these events coming down like hammer and it will devastate a sleeping church.

What I see coming soon.

There is no doubt in my mind that we will be seeing some events from the list of coming events I am sharing that will happen by the November 3rd Election Day.

The list of what I see coming in the days and weeks, even months ahead will probably not be listed in the order that they will actually happen.

I believe we will see a mega earthquake hit America.

Possible Volcanic event, there are many large volcanos in America besides Yellowstone.

Civil unrest in our cities, and some are predicting civil war from the outcome of the election.

An Economic collapse is locked and loaded; many events could trigger this.

I believe a mega earthquake will trigger the beginning of the 6th seal. The events of the 6th seal could unfold over a period of months. These events will include a huge meteor hitting the ocean. The tidal wave from this will destroy New York City and huge destruction on the eastern sea board. Millions will die from this event. The Bible says the sun and moon will go dark. I believe this will be from volcanic ash.

We are currently seeing a surge in the Covid 19 virus infections. They are estimating that in a few weeks the surge in daily deaths will rise to over 2000 a day.

Pastor Dana Coverstone saw the UN, Russia and Chinese military on our shores. David Wilkerson gave three warning signs to watch for. One was an Economic Collapse, another was destruction and death, the third was "When we are weak, our enemies will invade us.

I believe our electrical grid will come under attack before America is invaded

I have been hearing reports of thousands of Chinese soldiers massing in Canada close to our boarders. Last week I heard from two personal friends who live in the Vancouver BC area and they confirmed this. My Web host is one and he told me that Canada is allowing this so they can protect their interests in Canada. Canada has been selling off their National Parks to the Chinese. At least two years ago I heard the United States was doing the same. I hate to say this but I believe Canada is selling us out and Pastor Dana saw politicians cutting deals behind closed doors. I believe when we are weak and our enemies are about to invade, our leaders will sell us out to save their own hides.

Yesterday as I was working on this newsletter, Alaska was hit with the largest earthquakes since the big one in 1964. In less then 24 hours there have been over 50 earthquakes and aftershocks from 4 to 7.8 on the richter scale. Dutchsince, the leading authority on predicting earthquakes is warning that the pressure on the plates will be working down to the west coast in the next few day. He says the window for the next one downstream could take up to a week.

I am not trying to scare you with this information, I am trying to prepare you.

Update on my health

For some months now I have had some severe health challenges, I don't want to go into detail, I am not looking for sympathy, I know this is an area that I am to trust God in and I recently had a personal God Word sent to me that confirmed that God has His hand on my health and He is not going to let me go home to heaven early. The Lord told me that I am needed. and have work to finish. I continue to covet your prayers as I strongly believe in a prayer answering God.

Update on Finances

My Ministry is faith based. If I bless those who I minister too, I believe my needs will be met. I continue to trust God as I always have and God has never let me down.

These are challenging times for many financially, I understand that some previous supporters to my ministry are no longer able. Don't feel under pressure to give. I know God will lay my needs on the hearts of those who are able to give.

Because of health issues I have not communicated my thanks to all those who have given me support. Please be understanding. I have no staff; it is just me and God.

For those who are able to give to the support of my ministry, I thank you in advance. The needs of my ministry at my ranch in Arizona will continue even during the Great Tribulation. How this will happen is in God's hands but He will take care of us as we trust in Him.

At the end of this newsletter, I share how you can give to this ministry.

What is the Difference?

The reason for this title is because to explain the topic would be to long to make into the title. This topic is very exciting to me as I just fell onto this revelation a week ago and as I pondered this has brought great clarity to the topic I will be sharing.

What I am going to be answering from God's Word is, "What is the difference between the First Fruits of the Resurrection," and what is called, "The First Resurrection."

When I happened on to this topic, I had previously thought that they were one and the same. As I studied the Bible on this topic I discovered that these are two distinct events and I can show from scripture when each of these two events occur.

First, I will show where in Scripture the First Fruits is mentioned and then I will show when this event happens.

After I cover the where the first fruits of the resurrection is mentioned, I will show where in the Bible it show when this event will happen. Then once I have covered the First Fruits of the Resurrection, I will cover the where and when of the First Resurrection.

Revelation 14:1,4 "Then I looked, and behold, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Fathers name written on their foreheads."

"These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they were virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and the Lamb."

For clarification, As I have studied the sealing of the 144,000 Jews from the twelve tribes of Israel, I have concluded that the description of them being virgins is symbolic for holiness. I further concluded that the description of the number of them is also symbolic for the number of completion, of those being chosen from the nations of the world. I have gone into greater detail in earlier newsletters showing why it makes since that this group includes both Jews and Gentiles.

How do we know that these first fruits have resurrected bodies? I you read the fifth trumpet of God's wrath you will see that the 144,000 cannot be hurt by the scorpion creatures. Also, at the end of the 7 years Jesus meets with the same 144,000, (symbolic number) on Mount Zion and it infers that all survived to meet Jesus at this time and then Jesus leads this group to the Throne in Heaven.

A further point is, we read that the anti-christ makes war against the saints and the two mortal witnesses are killed toward the end of the seven years but no mention of harm coming to the 144,000 because you cannot harm those who have their resurrected bodies.

Now to cover the when will these 144,000 servants of God be sealed? The answer to this question was revealed to me just a few months ago. When I saw this it really blew my mind. I will be showing you from Revelation chapter 7 that the 144,000 servants of God will be sealed before the opening of the 6th seal.

The opening of the 6th seal starts with a great earthquake. I believe the mega earthquake that David Wilkerson was shown in the 1974, "The Vision" is the opening volley of the 6th seal to be followed by a great meteor event, volcanic eruptions, more earthquakes and a period of darkness on the earth.

In the verses I will be sharing below from Revelation 7, you will see it is four angels of destruction that will be delivering the destruction of the 6th seal. They are interrupted by an angel of greater Authority who tells then to not harm the earth, (earthquakes), the sea, (tidal waves) or the trees, (vegetation) until after we have sealed the servants of our God.

Revelation 7: 1-4, "After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, "Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." And I heard the number of those who were sealed. One hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed."

As I said earlier, I believe the description of the sealing of the 144,000 is symbolic, just as much of the Book of Revelation is symbolic. If we did not look at the Book of Revelation as symbolic, we would not be able to understand that the description of the beast coming out of the sea with ten horns and ten crowns is talking about a coming Global One World Government coming from all the nations of the World. Just as I believe the 12 tribes is symbolic for the 144,000 coming from all the nations of the World.

Recently in my newsletters I have shown that I believe the seals are all lining up at the starting gate waiting for the gun to go off.

If you will read Matthew 24 you will see that when Jesus completed the list of the seals, He finished the list with Great Earthquakes, He said, these are the beginning of Sorrows. I believe all the seals except earthquakes are already in play waiting for the gun to go off and it is the earthquakes of the opening of the 6th seal that will start the Days of Sorrows which I see as the beginning of the Great Tribulation.

Many prophets who I trust have been warning for weeks now that a great shaking is about to take place. If you study how earthquakes move around the Pacific Ring of Fire, you may know that earthquakes bump from one tectonic plate to the next in a clockwise direction. Today at last count there have been 18 quakes from 4.0 to 7.5 or the richter scale. 7.5 quakes are really big. I don't know when will be the out come or the timing but these quakes will be putting huge pressure down to the west coast tectonic plates in the coming days.

Before going into my study on the first resurrection I want to share what I see as the distinction between the First Fruits of the resurrection and the First Resurrection.

What does first fruits mean? If you raise a garden or you farm for a living, you realize the harvest does not come at the same time. Often you will see some of your crops coming in early from the main harvest. Often at the ends of the rows where the plants get more sun, a small portion of your crop will be ready for harvest a few days early. This small portion is the first fruits of your harvest. When Jesus referred to the 144,000 as first fruits it was because this number is a small portion of the greater harvest to come that is called the, "First Resurrection" The First resurrection happens at the time of the rapture and this is the larger harvest that shows up at the throne on Revelation 7:9. It says in Revelation 7:9-13 that so many in white robes showed up at the throne that they could not be counted.

Now I want to look at what the Bible calls the First Resurrection. This portion from the Book of Revelation chapter 20:4-6 describes what is happening at the time of the First Resurrection. Now realize after studying the different resurrections you will see there are three different Resurrections yet to come.

- 1. The first is the first fruits of the Resurrection, (The 144,000) A small portion of the harvest)
- 2. The second is called the "The First Resurrection" This you will see is the main harvest that is described in Rev. 20:4-6
- 3. The third resurrection is called, "The Second Death" This is the resurrection where all who have died without Christ are raised to stand before God to be judged after the 1000 years, according to their works. Rev. 20:12-15.

The First Resurrection, (the main harvest) Revelation 20:4-6, "And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the Word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who has a part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ and shall reign with Him a thousand years."

If you read the above verses, it is plain speak that those who are a part of the First Resurrection, (The Main harvest of saints), have gone through the Great Tribulation. The third resurrection that is called the second death is described as the "rest of the dead, (The unrepentant) did not live again until after the 1000 years.

The third resurrection also called the second death is clearly explained in Rev. 20:12-15.,

Revelation 20:12-15, "And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God. And the books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life, And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and the Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged each one according to his works. Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire."

In conclusion, I need to point out that there are three resurrections, some believe there are multiple raptures. The reason people believe in multiple raptures is because they don't understand that the Book of Revelation was not written in chronological order. In my second book, "Unlocking the Mystery of the Book of Revelation" I show where John when writing the Book of Revelation was interrupted two times by an angel who gave John 6.5 extra chapters of material for his book and because he could not go back like we can today when using a Word Processor on our computer, he had to add these chapters of angelic interruptions into his parchments out of chronologic order.

What this study shows, is there are only three resurrection opportunities to go into eternity. The small number of First Fruits. The main harvest in the First Resurrection following the Great Tribulation and the last resurrection called the Second Death.

It is your choice, which will you choose? The first fruits will be chosen from those who are walking in holiness, totally sold out to God. Jesus said I am coming for a bride without spot or wrinkle. The first fruits will not include the lukewarm church.

The second choice is to be included in the First Resurrection. This choice will include the lukewarm church recommitting their lives to prepare for Christs Second Coming at the time of the rapture following a time of Great Tribulation, The saints will see war from the anti-christ but will not have a part of the wrath of God. The Bible clearly states we are not accounted to wrath and it also says we will see tribulation.

The third resurrection or second death is reserved for the unrepentant, those who did not choose to repent of their sins and fully commit their lives to Jesus.

It breaks my heart that I have seen so many who will not read my studies if they see I am teaching a Mid-week rapture. My advice to you is quit listening to the opinions of others and study God's Word for yourself. Where you spend eternity is at stake.

Who Should We Listen To?

When I talk about prophets, I place prophets in two camps. One camp I call the true prophets of God and the other camp I call the false prophets who I frequently call the pillow prophets, because they preach a message of peace and safety, they preach that America will be great again and we will prosper. This message from the pillow prophets makes the church feel comfortable and put the church to sleep.

If I was to give you a list of those, I call false prophets, many of you would be offended and get even mad at me.

Whether you have realized it yet, America is steeped in sin and the church has grown lukewarm and God is getting ready to take what ever steps needed to wake us up. It will be a painful wakeup call and God is not happy that He has to take such drastic measures. But because God loves us so much, He has no choice but to drop the hammer of judgment.

If you will study Old Testament history for the nation of Israel, you will see God was warning the nation of Israel to repent and told them judgment would come on their nation unless they did truly repent.

Jerimiah was a true prophet during this time of coming judgment to Israel and he kept delivering the God given messages of coming judgment. He delivered these warnings all the way to the top leadership of Israel and the King did not like the Words of God Jerimiah was delivering. Jerimiah was told that he better start giving us some good words or he will be in trouble. Jerimiah would not comply with man because he was not a man pleaser but a God pleaser.

At times there is a negative price to pay for being obedient to God. In the end the rewards for obedience will be more then worth it. The king reached out and found some false pillow prophets to give him a good word, a word of peace and safety. Much like the words coming from the pillow prophets today. Jerimiah was thrown into a sewer pit. Later Jerimiah was vindicated. When we take a stand for God, accept it that you will be rejected by the crowd. If you are not vindicated in this life, that is OK as your vindication will be great in heaven.

So back to which prophets should we be listening to. There are more sincere watchman and want-a-be prophets then I can count. When trying to put together the prophetic puzzle, to give you clarity on what is about to happen, I limit myself to only a few prophets and prophetic sources that I trust implicitly. I only follow five prophetic voices and The Word of God. God's Word trumps the words of any prophet. If a prophet delivers a Word that is contrary to God's Word then don't listen to this source.

If you try to follow all the hundreds of prophetic voices out there it would be like trying to put together a puzzle with over a thousand pieces. If you limit your puzzle to only a small number of prophetic pieces coming from a small number of trusted prophetic voices, then it will be so much easier to decern what is happening prophetically. On the other hand, if you chase after every prophetic voice then you will be turning in every direction from week to week because you have been confused by looking at too many pieces in your puzzle.

Is God Judging America?

The answer to this question will depend on who you are listening to. If you believe as I do that Dana Coverstone has been hearing from God then the answer to this question is yes. If you believe David Wilkerson was a true prophet then the answer is not only yes but long overdue. Some question the prophetic warnings given by David Wilkerson in the 70's and 80's. I am reminded that the prophetic warnings of Jesus, John the Revelator and many Old Testament prophets have been unfulfilled for two thousand years or more.

About 20 years ago when 911 took down the twin towers, it was such a shock to America that it created a spiritual awakening. The churches filled up for two weeks. Around this time, I remember Pat Robinson saying on his show that one of the big storms hitting America was the hand of God's judgment. He took a lot of heat for saying that God was judging America.

A lot has happened to the church in 20 years. Pastors have lost their backbone. Most pastors don't preach sermons that will convict those in the pews of their sins. We have become a seeker friendly church. What is seeker friendly? Don't offend anyone in your pews because they will leave and you will lose members and income. Shame on you spinless preachers. We have not been called to entertain the sinners in our pews, we have been called to preach the powerful Word of God that will convict sinners and fill your alters with repenting sinners.

What has happened, the source of your income does not come from the sinners in your pews. No! it comes from obedient Christians listening to the voice of God and responding to the needs of the church.

Do I believe God is bringing judgment down on the church? You bet I do. God has to wake up the church, no matter what collateral damage that may occur. If God did not severely judge America and the world, millions more would go to hell.

Back to 911, with only just over 3000 people dying in the twin towers there was a small period of spiritual awakening. Look at what is happening in America just this year.

- 1. The biggest plague in 100 years with over 200,000 dead and climbing.
- 2. The greatest number of unemployed since the great depression of 1929
- 3. The greatest year of destruction by forest fires in American history.
- 4. The greatest year of storms and extreme weather in our history
- 5. The greatest year of riots and civil unrest in American history.

With all this, are we seeing a national revival and repentance? Are we even seeing regional revival and repentance? A real revival is not just a great church service, No! it is churches filling up with sinners and tissue paper being passed out at the alters from sinners crying and repenting before God at the alters.

So, what am I hearing from my prophetic sources? God is about to turn up the heat. The complacent and sleeping church needs to be shaken up from their sleep and if the preachers are not going to do it, Then God is about to step up to the plate.

The list of judgments I have listed above, has not stirred the church to repent and obey God like their eternity depended on it. This list is about to get added to. Below I will list things I see coming that will either wake up those in the pews or kill them.

- 1. The plague will get worse, more contagious and dangerous.
- 2. The riots and the burning of our cities will get worse.
- 3. The record extreme weather events will become more extreme.
- 4. Mega earthquakes will shake America and finally start shaking those sleeping in the pews.
- 5. We will either see the sun send a huge Coronal Mass Ejection that will take down the grid or terrorists will do it.
- 6. The Bible says we will see a meteor event that will send tidal waves into our coasts that will cause men's hearts to fail from fear from what is coming on the earth.
- 7. As David Wilkerson saw, "When we are weak our enemies will invade us"

8. It has been prophesied from tested prophets like Dumitru Duduman that a number of cities in America will be nuked.

I say, let's not wait for God to full judge of America. Let do our repenting now and fully commit our lives to obeying God and finding out our purpose from Him and go to work being all we can be for God.

Prepper Advise

I have taught prepping for years and I have said that most Christians have not adequately Prepared. From what I am hearing and seeing we have less then two weeks before we see empty store shelves. As you read the articles I have included below you will read that from a survey, half of America see Civil War coming and most of these are not Christians and they are preparing.

Why do I believe we must prepare for the long haul? Because there are two dynamics in play.

- 1. Covid 19 is now spiking in parts of our country and in some areas seeing more infections then we saw during the earlier peak last spring. Remember the food shortages. When the daily deaths start approaching 2000, panic buying and food rationing will kick in.
- 2. The fear of civil war in going to come from either party when the outcome of the election is determined. The left is threatening to burn out our cities. I have a news article below reporting that many will be leaving NY City by election day as they see this coming.

What should you be stocking up on? Rice, beans, Flour and items needed for cooking from scratch. You need backup power for when the grid goes down. You need fuel for heating and cooking and general power. Extra flashlights and lanterns and some solar rechargeable lights. Enough blankets and sleeping bags for when there is no heat. You need the means to protect your family from harm. If you can afford it you need a solar oven to cook and boil water. These work even in the winter and they save your precious fuel supplies.

Survival 101: Stock up on essential supplies and fortify your home before TEOTWAWKI

10/17/2020 / By Arsenio Toledo

Taking shelter in your own home will only be possible if your property is ready for TEOTWAWKI. This can be done by fortifying your home to make it easier to peacefully live there and by stocking up on the supplies you will need to possibly outlast the disaster.

Fortifying your home

In a TEOTWAWKI situation, you and your family need to stay put as long as possible. As such, you need to make sure that your home is well prepared to deal with not just invaders, but against nature itself.

Depending on where you live, winters are either going to be cold or extremely freezing. Your home needs to be ready for this. If you have a fireplace or a woodburning stove, then you need to think about is stocking up on enough firewood. If you don't have either of these, you need non-electric alternatives like insulating yourself with layers upon layers of clothing.

For defending against home invaders, the first thing you need to do is fortify the perimeter of your property. You can do this by erecting fences and other defensive fortifications like defensive landscaping. Afterward, look to fortifying your home's points of entry, which means installing doors and windows that can withstand strong attacks.

Lastly, fortify one room in your house which you can turn into a safe room. This is not a place where you will wait for your defeat, but a place where you and your family can regroup and live to fight another day. It must offer, at the very least, the same level of security as your exterior doors and it needs to be filled with the necessary supplies to allow you to withstand an extended siege. (Related: How to protect yourself from 3 waves of food and shelter seekers after TEOTWAWKI.)

Stocking up on supplies

Now that your home's defenses are up, you need to think about all of the supplies you need to fill your home with. Your goal is to avoid having to leave your home for as long as possible, or at least until you can figure out how to grow your own food and raise your own livestock.

The two supplies that you will need the most are food and water. Your goal is to make sure you and your family can eat at least 2,000 calories every day. Stock up on foods that have shelf lives of more than a year, and don't forget to think about obtaining food for your pets as well.

For water, you need to fill up a lot of containers of clean and drinkable water, with the goal of providing at least one gallon per person per day. You will also need to think about how to replenish your supplies. You should also start stocking up on water filtration supplies such as purification tablets and iodine solution.

Don't forget to also stock up on firearms and ammunition. Having a variety of guns and ammo will not only help you defend your home, but also help you provide for your family through hunting game.

Other supplies you need to stock up on include hygiene items such as body soap, laundry supplies, textbooks to help you learn new skills, communications equipment to help you reach out to the wider world after SHTF, tools and general medical and first aid supplies.

When the world falls apart, you and your family will need a place you can feel safe and secure in. This is why your home needs to be as ready, and that can only happen if you treat it as a central part of your preps. When the world does end, you will be thankful that you didn't ignore the importance of your own home.

Poll results show majority of Americans are getting ready for civil war

10/19/2020 / By Zoey Sky

There's no end in sight to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, with President Donald Trump even testing positive for the disease early in October. As COVID-19 continues to spread across the country, more citizens are stocking up on essentials.

According to a poll, some Americans are even preparing for a possible "civil war."

"The most frightening poll result"

The poll, which included results from the "Back-to-Normal Barometer" survey, was conducted by three firms: Engagious, Sports and Leisure Research Group and ROKK Solutions. The poll results showed that over 61 percent of survey takers believe America is nearing a second civil war, with 41 percent who "strongly agree" with that assessment.

Results also showed that 52 percent of the responders are convinced that the civil war is imminent and that they're already stocking up on food and other supplies. Fueling these fears is the frequent and recent COVID-19-induced supply shortages experienced by shoppers throughout the country.

Rich Thau, president of Engagious, shared that this "is the single most frightening poll result" he has ever been associated with. While other surveys looked at America's political and economic state since the coronavirus crisis hit, this was the first one to raise "majority concerns about a potential war."

Aside from the pandemic, the 2020 presidential race is heating up. At the same time, Black Lives Matter (BLM) supporters and rioters are heading increasingly violent protests in various cities. In some cities like the Washington suburbs, major stores including Sam's Club and Costco, are reintroducing limits on popular products like bottled water, canned foods and paper goods.

Ron Bonjean, a partner at ROKK Solutions, explained that the firm has been conducting surveys of consumers and employees since the beginning of April "to help industries make strategic decisions in the month ahead."

Bonjean added that current data indicate an alarming trend that the extreme political polarization of the U.S. has a majority of Americans worried that the country is "ready to explode into a Civil War." (Related: The seeds have been planted for the next American Civil War. I don't think anything stops it now.)

Americans are also worried about the election results

People are also worried about the legitimacy of the upcoming presidential election. They have also expressed their worries about how "an outcome that appears tainted" could aggravate America's already frayed psyche and trigger more violence in the streets.

Another YouGov poll 1,999 registered voters showed that 47 percent of the participants disagree with the idea that the election "is likely to be fair and honest." A little more than half or 51 percent won't "generally agree on who is the legitimately elected president of the United States."

The YouGov poll was conducted on Oct. 1-2, with a margin of error of +/- 2.56 percentage points. A YouGov poll of 1,505 voters revealed that 56 percent of participants are worried about "an increase in violence as a result of the election." The question had a margin of error of 4.2 percentage points.

A lot of Trump supporters have also voiced their concern over the election's legitimacy, which is linked to the largely unproven claims Trump has raised about potential fraud involving millions of mail-in ballots that have started arriving at offices across the nation.

Braver Angels, which commissioned the YouGov poll, also released a "Letter from America," a national campaign that encouraged citizens, civic groups and religious organizations to pledge that they will refrain from violent tactics and respect those who voted differently.

"If in the near future we face a constitutional crisis in which our institutions cannot produce consensus on who is the legitimately elected president, we resolve to work together across this chasm for solutions grounded in the Constitution and guided by our democratic and non-violent traditions and our sense of shared destiny," read the letter.

Words from the Prophets

2020 will not end well, the worst is yet to come

OCTOBER 18, 2020 1:12 AM NOEL CASTILLO

On August, 2020, the Holy Spirit said "Prepare yourself to be with no electric power for a season". He then reminded me of the word given "SIGNS IN HEAVEN" (already posted on this website) https://444prophecynews.com/signs-in-heaven-noel-castillo/ and told me this will be due to the massive amount of coronal mass ejected by the sun. There will be an EMP (electromagnetic pulse) effect that will damage power plants, electronic devices and all sort of technology (I advice to look for more information about EMPs and how they work).

Also, I heard a prophecy of drastic climate change (where it was told that Central America would go from tropical weather to polar/cold) and asked confirmation in prayer. The same night the Holy Spirit provided me a dream where I saw myself on a local market, buying warm clothes and bed clothes that are thick and warm (confirmation that the prophecy is true).

On August 24, 2020

The Holy Spirit spoke to my understanding saying:

"Every man's heart will fail and even the bravest men will tremble as all that is to come comes to pass"

While returning from a trip, He also told me:

"Fasten your seat belts for 2020 will not end well, the worst is yet to come"

He further added:

The word of "Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast" He stated that this word is not yet fulfilled, for indignation of the Lord has not yet been poured out.

As He told me all this, I felt an inexplicable peace because I know that He will take care of His own, His people, His remnant, His chosen ones.

Isaiah 13: 6-7

6 Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

Zephaniah 1:14

14 The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

Isaiah 26:20

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

On early September 2020 (I'm sorry I cannot provide the exact date) I had two visions:

In the first vision, I saw a little baby drinking his bottle and then the bottom part of Jesus' face with tears coming down (I wasn't shown the whole face, only the cheeks and the chin). The Holy Spirit provided understanding that it was Jesus' face I was observing and I could feel how grieved is the Lord's heart for the little children. The Holy Spirit has placed in my heart to increase the intercession for the innocent ones. Please, add children in your prayers' list and intercede for them. Ask God to hinder, stop, destroy, and confused any plans against them. Ask for the divine purpose to be fulfilled in children's life and for protection.

Second vision, I was shown a woman type body, it was extremely chunky, it had excessive make up on, it whole body was color blue, it was wearing huge earrings, and its outfit was gross (nothing was matching). I asked Holy Spirit for clarity on this vision and He said it was a spirit of gluttony (that's why I used [it] when describing). I also saw a massive snake and the Holy Spirit gave me understanding that it was a spirit of lust, fornication, adultery, and sexual depravation that comes to attack God's children (actually, both spirits. Spirit of gluttony and sexual depravation). The main target are God's children and servants. The Holy Spirit advices to pray for husbands/wives for even people that has never dare to cheat on their partners will fall on this.

On October 10, 2020

I had a flash vision, I could observe my bed and the ceiling of my bedroom. Suddenly, everything started shaking violently, so much that I could see how the walls and my bed curved like waves in the sea. Then, the Holy Spirit said "The Earth will tremble like a drunk and it will swing like a hammock".

Isaiah 24:20

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

All glory and honor are for God alone, I am only a messenger. Please, take these revelations to the Most High God in prayer. Please, consult with the Holy Spirit and ask Him to confirm every revelation you read.

God bless you all, brothers and sisters in Christ. May the peace of the Lord be upon you all the time!

CAUGHT UNAWARE, Byron Searle, 10/15/2020

Luke 21:34-36

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

My son, I say -- MANY OF MY CHILDREN WILL BE CAUGHT UNAWARE as they focus more on the cares of this world than on Me. My children are caught in the WEB OF THE WORLD, looking on this life as the end.

I say -- THIS LIFE IS BUT A VAPOR, AND THE GLORIOUS KINGDOM THAT AWAITS THOSE WHO ARE MINE WILL LAST FOREVER.

I say -- DO NOT GET CAUGHT UP in the worldly affairs of life, but pray and seek Me for guidance.

My son, MANY THINGS ARE ABOUT TO COME TO PASS that My prophets and watchmen have been warning about.

Some say that I HAVE WITHHELD MY JUDGMENTS and that LIFE in America and the world will CONTINUE to be blessed, and America will be GREAT again.

THUS SAITH THE LORD --- AMERICA WAS ONLY GREAT WHEN I WAS FIRST IN THE HEARTS AND LAWS OF MAN. Now, that has been corrupted, and the hearts and laws have been polluted by sin.

My son, AMERICA HAS NOT REPENTED FROM THE KING DOWN. Instead, a handful of misguided people hold prayer rallies and call on Me to forgive this Nation.

I WILL NOT HEAR THEM, for their hearts are not pure, but FULL OF PRIDE AND LUST. It has become a SNARE to them as they pray and CONVINCE OTHERS that I have changed My mind.

I SAY --- JUDGMENT IS HERE AND WILL GROW EXPONENTIALLY GREATER AS TIME MOVES AHEAD.

My son, I have said many times to these stiff-necked people to get your hearts and houses in order. Many have heard and heeded; however, MANY MORE have laughed and mocked My words. They will pay the price very soon.

A GREAT SHAKING IS COMING TO AMERICA -- SO GREAT WILL IT SHAKE THAT NO ONE WILL BE ABLE TO STAND.

Mockers and scoffers say -- "We heard that before!! When will this be???"

I SAY --- WHEN YOU LEAST EXPECT IT. DID KORAH EXPECT THE GROUND TO OPEN UP AND SWALLOW HIM UP??

My son, THERE WILL BE GREAT SIGNS IN THE SUN, MOON, AND STARS THAT WILL CAUSE MEN'S HEARTS TO FAIL.

I say unto My children --- DON'T BE CAUGHT UNAWARE!!

REPENT NOW! those who doubt.

REPENT NOW! those who mock and scoff.

REPENT NOW! those who care more for this world than Me.

I SAY --- PRAY AND PUT ON YOUR ARMOR! DO NOT GO INTO BATTLE NAKED! READ MY WORD, FOR IT IS ALL TRUTH! DO NOT BELIEVE THE FALSE PROPHETS THAT SAY AMERICA WILL BE GREAT AGAIN.

I SAY --- CAPTIVITY IS COMING, AND YOU MUST BE STRONG IN SPIRIT AND IN MY WORD!

My son, PREPARE TO FEEL THE GREAT SHAKING! AMERICA -- YOUR TIME IS UP.

I say again --- REPENT AND TURN TO ME. Turn from your evil ways and allow Me to guide your life.

IT IS COMING -- AND WILL SOON SHAKE YOUR WORLD! I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH, OR I WOULD NOT HAVE TOLD YOU.

BRACE YOURSELF TO THE ROCK!!

Amen. Given by the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

There is not much time left, the gate is about to close

OCTOBER 4, 2020 11:54 PM REPENTBEHOLY.COM CHINA

RUTH SMITH, Translated from original Chinese

While I was praying in tongues this morning, I became very grief-stricken, and started to cry, then I received these following words.

This is a crooked and perverse generation, I have raised up so many prophets, servants, watchmen, and messengers to cry and warn, that I even raised up little children to cry and warn, but how many has listened, how many has repented?

My daughter, this world is going to pass away very soon, the day of My return is at hand, but how many has already prepared? This world is about to change upside and down so soon, everything that you see with your own eyes right now will be no more. My daughter, do not stop praying for the lost souls, I love you, I love them too. I want all to be saved, none will perish. I wish everyone, everyone who I created to come to Me, to enjoy all I have prepared for them.

My heart is grieving for these souls, how I wish they would come back to Me! I Am warning, warning, but no one listen!

Warning will be ceased very soon, the judgements has begun, I do not want to see man I created to suffer all these, but in order to wake them up, in order to pull them back from the road leads to the pit of Hell, I must do this.

I Am a Righteous God, I Am a Holy God, no man can see Me without holiness; but I Am also a Loving God, return, My children, I Am waiting with open arms for you to come back into My arms.

There is no much time left, the gate is about to close, come to Me while there still has time, come, My children, come quickly, do not delay, tomorrow may not belong to you. I love you, My children, with an everlasting love,

Your Abba, Heavenly Father

What is in the News?

Many Americans are now planning to "bug out" ahead of Election Day as authorities brace for chaos in the streets

October 18, 2020 by Michael Snyder

Will you be safe where you currently are if the election results cause chaos to erupt in the streets of our major cities? A lot of Americans are becoming deeply concerned about their personal safety as we approach November 3rd, because they can see what is coming. It is going to take a lot of extra time to count all of the votes because tens of millions of Americans are voting by mail this time around, and both sides have recruited armies of lawyers and are prepared to contest the results of the election to the bitter end. No matter who ends up being declared the winner when it is all over, there will be millions upon millions of very angry voters out there that are likely to feel as though the election was stolen from them, and that is a recipe for widespread societal unrest. I truly wish that we could go back and do things differently so that we would not be facing this sort of scenario, but it is too late for that now. More than 27 million Americans have already voted, and more are voting every day. Any attempts to fix the process will have to wait for future elections, and without a doubt it definitely needs to be fixed.

It is still difficult for me to believe that I am actually writing about the possibility of violence after a U.S. presidential election, but this is where we are at as a society.

In fact, there is violence in the streets right now.

This should break all of our hearts, because violence is not going to solve anything.

Unfortunately, an increasing number of people are not listening to voices of reason, and we are seeing anger and frustration rise to levels that we have never seen before.

At this point, most Americans are expecting the worst. To be more specific, one recent survey found that 55 percent of all registered voters expect a rise in violence following the election...

In the YouGov survey, about 55 percent of registered voters said they thought violence would increase in the U.S. following the Nov. 3 presidential election.

Just under 11 percent of respondents said they didn't expect a rise in violence to occur after the election, while 33 percent of voters were unsure.

Even more alarming, a different survey found that more than 40 percent of Republicans and more than 40 percent of Democrats believe that violence would be at least "a little" justified if their party ends up losing...

In September, 44 percent of Republicans and 41 percent of Democrats said there would be at least "a little" justification for violence if the other party's nominee wins the election.

I truly wish that those numbers were not real, but they are.

As Election Day draws near, many Americans have decided that "bugging out" is the best thing to do. For example, one 31-year-old New York resident is going to be staying with her parents on Election day because she believes "the city will be on fire" if Trump wins...

Flatiron resident Andrea, 31, also decided to pack up before Nov. 3. "I went to my parents in New Jersey for about two weeks when the BLM protests got bad and the looting started. So I definitely want to get out of here the week of the election," said the public-relations specialist, a Republican who asked that her last name not be used. "I'm thinking if Trump wins, it's going to be a disaster — the city will be on fire. People are going to go nuts."

And 42-year-old Ooana Trien is planning to spend Election Day out of the city because she is concerned that "protesters will try and burn down Trump Tower"... The Trump supporter, who is mailing in her ballot, plans to open up her doors to others looking to escape. "I told my friends that whoever wanted to get out of the city was welcome here. One friend who lives in Washington Heights is going to vote in the morning [on Nov. 3] and come straight up to the beach," she said. "My mother thinks that whether [Trump] wins or loses, protesters will try and burn down Trump Tower."

Law enforcement authorities all over the nation are also deeply concerned about the potential for violence.

For example, in New Jersey officials have warned that we could potentially see "civil unrest resulting in riots, violent acts, and fatalities"...

"Election result delays and recounts could result in protests and attempts to occupy election offices," officials with the New Jersey Department of Homeland Security and Preparedness warned in a threat assessment issued in late September.

"Incidents of civil unrest resulting in riots, violent acts, and fatalities will converge with election uncertainty, producing confrontations between protesters and counter-demonstrators challenging election outcomes," it noted.

Yes, you read that correctly.

They actually used the word "fatalities".

In New York, residents were rattled by a leaked NYPD memo that warned of violent protests from October 25th through the early portion of 2021...

New Yorkers are on edge after a leaked NYPD memo, obtained by The Post, revealed this week that police are preparing for protests to begin as early as Oct. 25 and grow in intensity through next year. The department decreed officers should "be prepared for deployment," adding: "This November 3rd will be one of the most highly contested presidential elections in the modern era. There is also a strong likelihood that the winner of the presidential election may not be decided for several weeks."

In Arizona, the information security officer for Maricopa County is encouraging people to have law enforcement authorities on speed dial just in case something happens...

"Make sure that you're reaching out to your law enforcement and say, on and around Election Day, what is our plan?" he said. "Do you have an emergency contact list? Do you have your police department, your sheriff, whoever, on speed dial ready to get them to respond to any kind of threat?"

Election Day is now just a little over two weeks away, and emotions are running really high.

Most Democrats fully expect Joe Biden to win, and many of them are still anticipating a landslide.

Of course most Republicans believe that the national polls are completely wrong again and that President Trump will ultimately emerge victorious.

In the end, one side will be proven wrong and the disappointment that they will feel will be very, very bitter.

We all remember the rioting that we witnessed earlier this year, and many believe that what is ahead could be far, far worse.

In 2020, gun sales have soared to levels that we have never seen before, and many Americans find themselves purchasing guns for the very first time. One of those first time buyers is a 44-year-old single mother named Andreyah Garland...

Andreyah Garland, a 44-year-old single mother of three daughters, bought a shotgun in May for protection in the quaint middle-class town of Fishkill, New York. She joined a new and fast-growing local gun club to learn how to shoot.

According to Reuters, a "potentially contested election that many fear could spark violence" played a role in her decision to purchase a firearm... Like legions of other first-time buyers who are contributing to record sales for the U.S. gun industry this year, Garland's decision to take up arms is driven in part by disturbing news about the coronavirus pandemic, social unrest over police killings of Black people and a potentially contested election that many fear could spark violence. "With everything going on around us," she said, "you see a need."

If you could go back 50 years ago and tell Americans what conditions would be like in 2020, most of them would not believe you.

Our society is literally melting down right in front of our eyes, and I don't think that anyone is going to be able to stop it from happening.

Of course this election will come and go, but the social instability that we are witnessing will remain, and at this point everyone should be able to see that America is heading into a very dark future.

More than half of all Americans "plan to stockpile food and other essentials" for the chaotic months ahead

October 12, 2020 by Michael Snyder

There was a time when preppers were relentlessly mocked, but nobody is laughing now. Today, most Americans are thinking about stockpiling food, and this massive shift in our national mindset has been sparked by concern about what is going to happen in the months ahead. Many Americans believe that another wave of the coronavirus pandemic is coming, others believe that our ongoing economic depression will get even deeper, and yet others are convinced that the upcoming election could produce widespread violence. Of course there have always been people that have been deeply alarmed about future events, but we have never seen anything quite like this. In fact, a brand new survey has found that over half of all Americans are currently planning "to stockpile food and other essentials"...

Slightly more than half of Americans in a recent poll from Sports and Leisure Research Group say they already have or plan to stockpile food and other essentials. The chief reason: fears of a resurgent pandemic, which could lead to disruptions such as new restrictions on businesses. On Oct. 2, the number of COVID-19 cases in the USA was its highest in almost two months.

People still remember the shortages that we witnessed earlier this year when the coronavirus pandemic first erupted in this country, and those that ended up being stuck at home without enough toilet paper would rather not repeat that experience.

So as the mainstream media continues to hype a new wave of the pandemic, we should expect to see Americans hitting the grocery stores really hard. And according to data company Envestnet Yodlee, there is evidence that this is already happening...

Already, there's some evidence that grocery sales are rising, according to data from industry sources. The typical bill for a trip to the grocery store rose to $72 for the week ended October 6, or 11% higher from the week before, according to data company Envestnet Yodlee.

"That's the highest we've seen since the first week of June and the second-highest since we started tracking this in January," said Bill Parsons, group president of data and analytics at Evestnet.

Fortunately, many grocery store chains anticipated a spike in demand in advance and started stocking up ahead of time. The following comes from CNN... Grocery stores across the United States are stocking up on products to avoid shortages during a second wave of coronavirus.

Household products — including paper towels and Clorox wipes — have been difficult to find at times during the pandemic, and if grocery stores aren't stocked up and prepared for second wave this winter, runs on products and shortages could happen again.

During a time when other retailers all over the nation are failing at a pace that we have never seen before, many grocery store chains are actually experiencing booming sales.

And of course I have been warning that this would eventually happen for a very long time. During a time of crisis, demand for food and other essentials tends to go up and demand for non-essential items tends to go down.

Needless to say, this is something that is not just happening in the United States. All over the world we have seen demand for food on the rise, and this comes at a time when global food production has become increasingly stressed.

As a result, food prices all over the world are starting to escalate quite aggressively...

Food prices continue rising during the coronavirus pandemic, jeopardizing food security for tens of millions worldwide.

On Thursday, the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) of the United Nations said world food prices rose for the fourth consecutive month in September, led by surging prices for cereals and vegetable oils, reported Reuters.

FAO's food price index, which tracks the international prices of the top traded food commodities (cereals, oilseeds, dairy products, meat, and sugar), averaged 97.9 in September versus a downwardly revised 95.9 in August.

Sadly, this is just the beginning.

Global food supplies will continue to get even tighter, and global demand for food will just continue to shoot higher.

So I would stock up while you still can, because prices will never be lower than they are right now.

Meanwhile, our society continues to unravel right in front of our eyes. You would think that the Lakers winning the NBA title would be a time to celebrate for the city of Los Angeles, but instead large crowds of young people used it as an opportunity to riot and attack police officers...

A crowd of more than 1,000 revelers descended into the area around Staples Center after the game. Unruly individuals mixed within the crowd began throwing glass bottles, rocks, and other projectiles at officers. That is when an unlawful assembly was declared, and only a limited number of people complied and began to disperse. A larger portion of the group broke off and began vandalizing businesses while continuing to engage in violent behavior, some aimed at responding officers.

In Portland, protesters just toppled statues of Teddy Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln during a "day of rage", but the mainstream media didn't seem to think that this was any sort of a problem.

And in the middle of the country, the violence never seems to stop in the city of Chicago...

Five people were killed and 48 others were injured by gunfire this weekend in Chicago. Five of those wounded were teenagers.

Last weekend saw 37 people shot throughout the city, five of them fatally.

Of course things could soon get a whole lot worse. According to one recent survey, 56 percent of all Americans expect "an increase in violence as a result of the election". Isn't that incredibly sad?

Many are still hoping that such a scenario can be avoided if one of the candidates is able to build an extremely large lead on election night. A large enough lead could potentially cause the candidate that is behind to concede fairly quickly, and that may ease tensions. But I wouldn't count on that.

At this point we are about 500 hours away from the election, and both sides are indicating that they are prepared to fight until the bitter end. And the side that ultimately ends up losing is likely to throw a massive temper tantrum, and that won't be good for our country at all.

So it makes sense that so many Americans are making extra preparations for the months that are ahead, because it definitely appears that they could be quite rocky.

15 Signs That America's Economic Depression Is Accelerating as We Head Toward the Holiday Season

October 4, 2020 by Michael Snyder

Hardly anyone expected that things would get this bad in 2020. Once the pandemic hit and states all over the country started instituting lockdowns, economic activity collapsed dramatically. U.S. GDP was down 31.4 percent during the second quarter of 2020, and that was a drop without parallel in all of U.S. history. In fact, that decline was more than three times as large as the previous record. But eventually states started to "reopen" their economies, and U.S. GDP for the third quarter is expected to show a significant rebound when the numbers are finally released. Of course we still aren't even close to where we used to be, but at least things weren't as bad as they were in the second quarter. But now as the fourth quarter begins, it appears that economic conditions are heading back in the wrong direction again. The following are 15 signs that America's economic depression is accelerating as we head toward the holiday season...

- #1 All 546 Regal Cinema theaters in the United States are being shut down, and right now there is no timetable for reopening them.
- #2 It is being reported that AMC Entertainment (the largest movie theater chain in the U.S.) will "run out of liquidity" in 6 months.
- #3 Over the weekend, I was told by someone that works in the industry that he expects most movie theaters in the country to eventually close down permanently because of this pandemic.
- #4 The average rent on a one bedroom apartment in San Francisco is 20.3 percent lower than it was one year ago.
- #5 During the 3rd quarter, the number of vehicles delivered by General Motors was down about 10 percent from a year ago.
- #6 It is being reported that Anheuser-Busch will be laying off 400 employees in Loveland, Denver, Littleton and Colorado Springs.
- #7 Allstate has just announced that they will be laying off 3,800 workers.
- #8 JCPenney says that it will be cutting approximately 15,000 jobs as we approach the holiday shopping season.
- #9 At least one-fourth of the 28,000 layoffs that Disney will be conducting will happen in Florida.

#10 Collectively, American Airlines and United Airlines let 32,000 employees go last week.

#11 On Thursday, we learned that another 787,000 Americans filed new claims for unemployment benefits during the previous week.

#12 Overall, more than 60 million Americans have filed new claims for unemployment benefits so far in 2020. That number is far higher than anything we have ever seen before in all of U.S. history.

#13 Retail store closings in the United States continue to surge along at a pace that is absolutely unprecedented.

#14 Bankruptcy filings in New York City have risen 40 percent so far in 2020.

#15 This number is hard to believe, but it is being reported that almost 90 percent of New York City bar and restaurant owners couldn't pay their full rent for the month of August.

None of this was supposed to happen.

By now, we were supposed to be well into a "V-shaped recovery" that would soon have Americans forgetting all about the dark days in the middle of 2020.

But instead, millions upon millions of Americans have lost their jobs and are facing a deeply uncertain future. One of those Americans is an unemployed cook named Juan Jose Martinez Camacho...

Juan Jose Martinez Camacho, 59, has been a cook for 30 years, since he was asked to fill in one day when he was working as a dishwasher in a restaurant.

He has worked as a cook at the Crowne Plaza in Redondo Beach, California, for 22 years. When he was laid off on March 23, he was thinking it would be only two or three months before things got back to normal. But late last month he was notified he had permanently lost the job, which paid $22 an hour. He has been looking for other cooking jobs without any luck.

Can you imagine doing the same thing for 30 years and suddenly being out of a job?

Like most Americans, he assumed that the pandemic would soon pass and he would be going back to his old routine.

But that hasn't happened, and so he is among the millions of restaurant workers that are not bringing in any income right now.

With so many Americans out of work, food banks around the country have been dealing with a tsunami of demand. In previous articles, I have written about the absolutely massive lines that we have been seeing in certain portions of the nation. In some cases, people have started lining up at 2 AM in the morning and the lines have gotten up to 2 miles long.

And every week we see more gigantic lines at food banks all over America. The following is how one local news source described the massive lines that have been consistently forming in the state of Texas...

Thousands of cars form tightly packed lines across the state every week now to receive food. From Chihuahuan Desert border towns and cities to the staked plains of the panhandle, across the piney wood of deep East Texas, down to the Rio Grande and back cars stack, growing into steel and fiberglass caterpillars, hungry.

These events have distributed tens of millions of pounds of food over the past six months.

If you still have your job and you haven't been forced to visit a food bank during this crisis, you should be thankful for your blessings.

Just like in the 1930s, we are witnessing colossal lines for food all over the nation, and this is just the beginning.

If you have been waiting for a "recovery", you can stop waiting, because what we witnessed during the third quarter was about all the "recovery" that we are going to get.

Now we are less than a month away from a presidential election that promises to be incredibly chaotic, and the extremely deep divisions that already exist in our nation are likely to get even worse. Many believe that this election will produce even more civil unrest, and that will likely depress economic activity even further. I truly wish that economic conditions would "return to normal" and that all of us could get back to our old patterns.

But there isn't going to be any "return to normal" any time soon. Instead, very dark days are ahead, and those very dark days will shake this nation to the core.

Exclusive: America's true unemployment rate, Oct 13, 2020 - Economy & Business, Felix Salmon, author of Capital

A person who is looking for a full-time job that pays a living wage — but who can't find one — is unemployed. If you accept that definition, the true unemployment rate in the U.S. is a stunning 26.1%, according to an important new dataset shared exclusively with "Axios on HBO."

Why it matters: The official unemployment rate is artificially depressed by excluding people who might be earning only a few dollars a week. It also excludes anybody who has stopped looking for work or is discouraged by a lack of jobs or by the demands of child care during the coronavirus crisis.

• If you measure the unemployed as anybody over 16 years old who isn't earning a living wage, the rate rises even further, to 54.6%. For Black Americans, it's 59.2%.

The backstory: The official definition of unemployment can be traced back to the 1870s, when a Massachusetts statistician named Carroll Wright diagnosed what he referred to as "industrial hypochondria".

- By restricting the "unemployed" label to men who "really want employment," Wright managed to minimize the unemployment figure.
- Wright went on to found the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and he brought his unemployment definition with him.
- To this day, to be officially counted as unemployed you need to be earning no money at all, and you need to be actively looking for work.

Employment gains are reversing course

Data: U.S. Department of Labor; Chart: Andrew Witherspoon/Axios

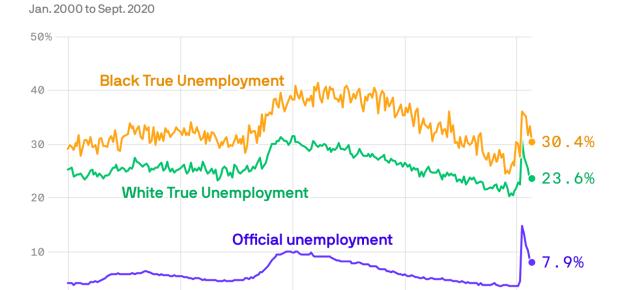

Nearly 900,000 Americans applied for first-time unemployment benefits last week, the Labor Department announced, the highest number since mid-August and the second weekly increase in a row.

What's happening: "It appears there was a widespread reversal of the downtrend in claims that has been in place for several weeks," Jefferies' money market economist Thomas Simons and chief economist Aneta Markowska wrote in a note to clients.

True and official unemployment

10 Data: Ludwig Institute for Shared Economic Prosperity: Chart: Axios Visuals

By the numbers: In January, when the official rate of unemployment was 3.6%, the true rate was seven times greater — 23.4%. That's according to new calculations from the Ludwig Institute for Shared Economic Prosperity, founded by Gene Ludwig, a former U.S. Comptroller of the Currency.

- "I was shocked," he tells Axios on HBO, "that a quarter of the population that want work can't earn a living wage."
- The recession made everything worse. Only 46.1% of white Americans over the age of 16 — and a mere 40.8% of Black Americans — now have a full-time job paying more than $20,000 per year.

The bottom line: The unemployment catastrophe in America is not new. It's been at crisis levels for decades, but it has been hidden behind the official numbers. Ludwig's hope is that his new data will light a fire under Congress to address this national emergency.

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books an do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in to deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. "Such a debt, who can pay?"

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. "Such a debt, who can pay?" This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, "Such a debt, who can pay?" the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar's signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is "Such a debt, who can pay?" If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. "Paid in full by Jesus Christ."

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God's Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), "As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one." (Romans 3:23 NIV), "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Luke 5:32 NIV), "I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), "For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), "That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.

The Sinner's Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being "Born Again."

Instructions on How to Give to This Ministry

You can use the donation link on my site www.tribulationtruth.com that uses PayPal with your credit card, or mail your donation to John Shorey, 178 Camino Embarcadero, Rio Rico, Arizona 85648, May God Bless You as you partner with my ministry.

The food offers I have been sharing in my newsletters are no longer available. Augason Farms are working two shifts to rebuild their inventory. The best way to order is to go online at Augasonfarms.com and only order the products they say they have in stock

I am also suggesting Ready Made Resources, I have dealt with them for years and they are reliable. Ask for Bob Griswold. 1-800-627-3809. I believe at last report their ship times are about two weeks.

Don't look to get food at just one location. There does not seem to be a run on rice and beans yet. I would suggest cans of beans, gravy, sauces you can use on rice and beans.

Special Burkey Type stainless steel Water filter Offer

Augason special offer, this unit is about two feet high with the upper chamber holding about 1.5 gallons. Similar unit's retails for $300.00 and this month is available for $119.99. My wife has fallen in love with our unit, when she is making a large batch of ice tea, she has all the filtered water ready and waiting. Call Ethan. 801-869-8105

A Solar Oven. These ovens work in any climate. I used mine to cook a roast for stew today. You can bake bread or cook a full size turkey. Every time you use your solar oven, you are conserving other non-renewable fuels. I have acquired a few because you can cook for a large crowd if you have more than one. Sun Oven Company sells the full package with all supplies needed, including bread pans and pots and pans. You can order by calling 1-800-408-7919, If you use the discount code "Shorey" you can get a $70.00 discount.
