My Most Precious Gift!

Your babies blood is crying out to Me, from the ground and the sewers,
Don't you realize, parents, that you are the losers.

I offer forgiveness, mercy and grace,
Come to Me lonely mothers, come seek My face.

I cry for My babies, they weren't even born,
Their innocent blood cries out to Me, My Heart is so torn.

I had such great plans for My boys and My girls,
They are worth so much more than billions of pearls.

How could you murder such precious little babies
I was told, it was just a blob of tissue, I guess so, maybe.

I have given the most wonderful and glorious gift to you,
How could you shed their blood, and turn their little bodies blue.

I breathed Life into their Spirit, they became a living being,
I was so proud and wished for you to see, what I was seeing.

I formed their little body into My Image and Likeness,
Their mother didn't understand, and couldn't see, she was sightless.

My Father in Heaven, He feels so sad,
He's mourning for the babies, He wanted to be their Dad.

I gave the baby Life, and blessed the babies Mother,
Then after several days, she started listening to another.

The devil sneaked in and said, you don't need it,
You will probably loose your job, and how will you feed it?

This tissue blob inside you, will cost a fortune,
The only answer now, is to have an abortion.

She went to a doctor to make the arrangements,
The doctor said, no problem, this will be painless.

The day was approaching, the mother filled with regret,
The devil kept saying, you can have a dog, for a pet.

She went to the clinic, her head full of doubts,
The devil kept saying, it's almost over, don't pout.

Please mother, don't do it, I gave your baby My Spirit,
In great pain, your baby screamed! Oh, mother, can you hear it?

He cut and ripped your baby apart!
I watched from above, this broke My Heart.

I can't let this continue, this must come to an end,
No one is repenting, so now My judgment I will send.

There is nothing left of Me in this nation anymore,
Your nation has left Me, I will now close the door.

I AM removing My blessings, your destruction will come,
Are there any left who loves Me, Yes, I know there are some,

They are a small remnant, My Chosen, My Few,
I asked them to be My Bride, I will make them brand new.

Dear Mother, I love you, and your baby too,
Please love your baby, just as I do.

If you have aborted your little one, by believing a lie,
Come to Me, ask for forgiveness, believe Me, and don't cry.

On earth, it is time, I will make all things new,
In My Arms, little Mother, your baby is waiting, for you!

I AM Life, I AM Love, I AM Light, I AM Yahushua
