

On The Verge

Cryptic1

I believe America is on the verge of a mighty move of God that is coming in the next few days. This morning I was led to this video "Health Ranger Report with Mike Adams" titled 'Situation Update, Jan. 18, 2021 - Game-changing intel grants Trump new pathways to VICTORY'. This post is not a political commentary but an awakening to a move of God that will soon take place. All the recent messages I have been receiving from the Holy Spirit are about justice coming to America and God's hand of justice prevailing. The excerpt from the Mike Adams video follows.

"It appears that we are on a path as a nation that is going to be extraordinary.

Most importantly stay home on the 19th and the 20th. Stay home. Do not join any capitol protests. There is a new reason why everybody listening here needs to follow that advice. Do not participate in anything that's about to go down in terms of the false flag operations and so on. You need to be out of harm's way because major events are going to unfold surrounding this inauguration.

It's okay to have faith now in the process of our Constitutional Republic and those who have sworn an oath to defend it. I'm going to read from Isaiah 43 first starting halfway through the first verse of chapter 43 and it says...

'Do not fear for I have redeemed you. I have summoned You by name. You are Mine. When you pass through the waters I will be with you and when you pass through the rivers they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire you will not be burned, the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, Your Savior.'

What is it saying is that although it may appear to be fire - we are commanded to walk through it having the faith that God is with us and although it may appear to be waters that might drown us - we are commanded to walk through it because God is with us. It is putting one foot in front of the other in the mindset and the spirit of faith that proves to God that we are worthy of His favor. And so part of the takeaway from that is that we should not run from what we are about to witness. We should witness it with open eyes, with courage. We should face tomorrow with courage and optimism and faith even knowing that it looks like fire and floods and destruction and earthquakes and the end of the Republic and international war and who knows what else - it looks horrific. We must walk into it spiritually I'm not saying obviously to go to the protest - but staying home walking through this with our emotional body, our spiritual body facing this and having faith in God and the outcome that God can create for us because we are worthy of His favor. Everything that is about to happen in the real world to solve this crisis is also happening in alignment with God.

According to a source President Trump just called pastor Paula (White) in. She asked us all who are Trump supporters I guess to pray now. This is not a drill. If Trump does have a trump card this is it. This pastor is someone that Trump has worked with over many years and she's been called in because as it says Trump has new information, Trump now has several courses of action. Most of those courses of action results in the saving of the Republic. He's asking for spiritual guidance to make the right decision that will preserve the most freedom and minimize the loss of life because I believe there is no scenario that Trump can choose here that doesn't in some way involve some kind of strife in DC - you know maybe left wing antifa uprising, things like that. Trump is looking for wisdom from God to do the right thing, to do the most effective thing."

While putting this post together I had gone to the 444ProphecyNews.com site and was encouraged after reading the post 'A Vision of Washington DC & Noah's Ark' by Celestine 1.17.21. The excerpt follows.

'I saw what I knew was Noah's Ark, it was resting on its side, I knew it had just landed, or come to rest in front of the White house or the Capitol in Wash DC.

As I thought about it, two words came to me, one was "Multiply", the other was "A New Beginning".

There may be much more here than I understand, but what I understood was that America will be coming into a time where the Kingdom of God will thrive once again.'

God is moving. I pray the church will open their spiritual eyes to see what is coming over the horizon. May God the Lord Jehovah be with us.
