

The chip!

Hebrews 4:13-14 (KJV)

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

-----//-----
This is a very strange world, a changed world. Many things are happening in the background. My job is to deliver what the Lord gave us. The Lord told me a week earlier "Sit and I will give you what you should tell." In the moment I least expected, the Lord as He told me gave me this strange revelation. Take this to the Lord as usual like any word you hear and read. This must be very significant.

The Compute chip!

(January 27, 2021 12:45PM)

After listening to one prophetic word from a well known brother, I am tired, my eyes are closing on me. I just closed my eyes, one minute, no more.

In that instant, I see plates with food being handed to people. I went to the kitchen to have some more food, rice added to the my plate. I am walking back to the table.

My view changed and I see a person from in the meddle the restroom of an airplane on the air. I am watching from his back, in a short distance but close enough to see details. He is already there in the rest room, I didn't see him walking in, I saw him there to begin with. He lowered his pants as if he is cleaning himself. What I see is his legs which are very thin gray silvery metal rods. Like the tibia and fibula of a person. I see the left leg which is two thin rods of metal, not round but little shaped like human bone. He took out a quadrangular flat computer chip, the size of half of a credit card with all the dark and golden well designed connections. Miniatured compute chip with its integrated circuit, it is. He kept it back in his pocket and sat on the toilet as if he is cleaning himself but he is not. He sat on the toilet, stretching his two legs straight forward on a support and rested there for a while. The purpose was not to clean himself but to make it look like that he has been in the toilet like a regular time a person would takes to clean himself. As if he has cleaned himself using the toilet, he came out and walked back to take a sit in the airplane. He walked back to have a sit in the middle of human on the airplane. He looks human, walks like human, acts like human but underneath his cloth, he is something else. The moment I saw his leg, I said this is not human. This is an evil entity on a mission.

I am more focused on the compute chip and his legs made of metal which are not of humans. I saw his left leg, his lowered pants and the edge of his thin golden yellow jacket not more, I didn't see his face.

What is that compute chip? What is he going to do with a compute chip in the middle of a flying airplane? I didn't see any devise but a flat computer chip with all its sophisticated wire connections. Can compute chips be used to do anything? Why is this entity in the bathroom, translated fallen? He checked what he brought is already there in his pocket?

Is this the program for "The Chip of the Mark of the Beast", a technology transfer of the fallen in the hand of the fallen? This is what I understood.

I saw this clearly, very, very clearly.

Danger, to humanity at large.

They are already here!!! The fallen!!!
