Introduction

As I have shared, I don’t put out my newsletters and studies until I am prompted by the Holy Spirit and given the topics I am to develop with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Recently my newsletters have been four to six weeks apart. I have not been on vacation. I continually study and work on preparing our property in Arizona to help people in the coming hard times of the Great Tribulation.

My last newsletter was only two weeks ago and last night the Holy Spirit surprised me by giving me marching orders to go to work on this newsletter. I believe the reason I have recently been held back is because the church has been confused as to who they should be listening to. As I shared in my last newsletter, there are two camps of the prophets today, just as there were in Old Testament times. There was Jerimiah the prophet warning of coming judgment and there was the camp of the prophets of Baal telling the people what they wanted to hear.

We are seeing a similar division of prophets today. What I call the pillow prophets are presenting a similar message, painting a rosy picture of coming prosperity, peace and safety and great years ahead for America.

As I study Bible prophecy, I am not aware of True Bible prophets giving a message of peace and safety and coming prosperity. There are many references where God says He will give us peace, but the prophets of God most often give warnings of coming judgment.

As I was doing a word study on this subject, I found a few references where prophets were being reprimanded by God for giving a message of, "Peace, Peace. When there is no peace." Below I will share some of these verses from the Book of Jerimiah and Ezekiel.

Jerimiah 6:13b and 14b, "And from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely", 14b, "Saying, 'Peace, peace!' When there is no peace!"

Jerimiah 23:16b,17 and 20-22, "They speak a vision of their own heart, Not from the mouth of the Lord. They continually say to those who despise Me, 'The Lord has said, "You shall have peace" ' And to everyone who walks according to the dictates of his own heart, they say, 'No evil shall come upon you.'" 20,21 "In the latter days you will understand it perfectly. "I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in My counsel, And had caused My people to hear My words, Then they would have turned them from their evil way And from the evil of their doings."

Ezekiel 13:1-3, 6b -7, and 10, “And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, ‘Son of man, prophecy against the prophets of Israel who prophecy, and say to those who prophecy out of their own heart, ‘Hear the word of the Lord!’ Thus says the Lord God; :Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing,” But the Lord has not sent them: yet they hope that the word may be confirmed. Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken a false divination? You say, “The Lord says,” but I have not spoken.” 10, “Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people saying, ‘Peace’ when there is no peace”.

If you want to do further study on this topic, just go the Bible verses I have shared and keep reading.

What really amazes me is, why is it that it is the prophets today who prophecy a rosy future, who get most of the attention. I was watching some u-tubes from some of the pillow prophets the other day and they were being really cautious in predicting political outcomes right now. I listened to one message that was titled something like this. “Have all the prophet been wrong?” This was concerning the many prophets saying God told them that Donald Trump would serve two terms.

When I saw this, I said to myself, what do you mean, “All the Prophets”, I am not a prophet, but I see my ministry as a prophetic teacher. I follow the words of prophets I trust. Some like David Wilkerson who has passed on to Glory and others who I trust who are currently hearing from God. It is a shame that it is the pillow prophets who have prophesied a rosy great future for years to come that are getting the largest platform on TV. They have so convinced the majority of the church that the future of America will be great and the Lord is not coming for years down the road that current events are confusing the church in light of what they have been told by most of the TV prophets.

Paul in the Book of 2 Thessalonians says there will be a great falling away before the rapture. I believe we are about to see Last Day’s events that will cause such confusion to many Christians and these events will cause many Christians to fall away in their faith in Christ.

All of this said, this brings me to the reason I see God directing me to put out this study. I have been preaching a message of the imminent return of the Lord since the beginning of my prophetic teaching ministry and when nothing happened at the end of 2015 and early 2016, I lost many who were following my teachings. I believe things are about to change.

Stay the Course and Stand Your Ground

During the years from 2012 to 2016, great anticipation was building up that the Lord would come for His Bride at around the end of 2015 or by the spring of 2016.

When the Lord did not return as we had anticipated, I went to the Lord in prayer in the spring of 2016 asking God what I was to do. My ministry started as a result of receiving a prophetic word from a visiting evangelist while my wife and I were Children's pastors in Puyallup, Washington. Part of this prophetic word from God was that I would see the greatest years of my ministry ahead of me. I can see that this word has been fulfilled in many ways but I have always felt that if these years are my greatest years of ministry then they cannot end with me crashing and burning as a false teacher.

So, as I made this inquiry to God. During about a two-week period I heard two phrases from God. A very loud inner words telling me to, "Stay the Course" and "Stand your ground".

These two words of heavenly instruction were a great encouragement to me, if I had not heard from God, telling me to hang in there, I may have given up my ministry. Book sales disappeared, speaking engagements also disappeared. The last printing of my book in the fall of 2015 was still on my credit card. During most of 2016 I was living on my credit.

I may have been down but not out. I started putting out regular studies and newsletters and I trusted God to keep me in the game. I was so confident I had heard from God that I was determined that God would back me up.

So, what did these words from God mean? I had been teaching that we were witnessing the convergence of prophetic events as Jesus told us to look for in Matthew 24. I could see no way that these signs, in the sun, moon and the stars, that Jesus gave us to look for as a sign of His coming could be reset on a different time, years down the road on God's calendar.

While during this time in 2016, that many were saying no to my teachings and ministry, during the same month I received two prophetic words from God, from two prophetic ladies with the same first name.

The first prophetic word came from a prophet lady who had never heard of me.

A friend who posts prophetic words on his blog site called me and said you need to be seated. This prophet lady posted a dream, and in the dream, God gave her my full name. In her posted dream she said this was very unusual for God to give her the name of someone and she said she needs to find out who John Shorey is.

I was encouraged by this and further encouraged when a friend emailed me saying God knows your name. God really knows all our names; He has had our names written in His books even before we were born. In the parable of the 10 virgins is a very scary thought that half of the 10 virgins Jesus told them, “I don’t know you, depart from me.”

A few days after this prophet lady posted her dream, we made contact to get to know each other. Then two weeks later she received a Word from God for her to give to me. This prophetic word covered some important areas of my life and ministry and part of this word told me that I was being told no to speak for God. I was doing my newsletter at this time so I figured this referred to my no longer getting radio and TV invitations. This Word from God said, “You have been told No! but I will yet have you Speak.”

A couple of weeks later I hear from another prophetic lady who woke up singing in the spirit. Some of the words she was singing as she was waking up were, “The devil is glad, he has shut you down”. Then God says, “I will yet have you speak.” She sent this to me and as I was reading it, I could hear in my spirit that God gave this to her for me and at end of email she said she thought it was for me.

I have stayed the course and held my ground for some time, knowing the time would come when my audience would come back. I believe current events are bringing us to that time when the confused church are going to be searching for truth and many will seek me out to hear what God has been showing me. I am not sharing any thing here to boast, I am only an instrument seeking to obey God.

I truly believe we are now entering that time.

The Requirements for the Rapture

This segment of my newsletter is not intended to be one of my study topics but I just feel led to share something that is important to understand. I have been teaching on the Gentiles being part of the 144,000 for over 2 years now. Most of my last newsletter dated 1-12-2021 was covering this event, concerning the sealing of the 144,000.

I have had contact from many who are telling me that they are getting it. The 144,000 are not just Jews. Much of the Book of Revelation where this topic is covered is symbolism and this group from the 12 tribes of Israel is symbolic for Christians walking in holiness from all the nations of the earth.

This group called the 144,000 is also called, The Servants of our God, they are referred to as the first fruits of the Bride, also called the "First fruits of the resurrection, and the event is often called, those who are the sealed or the transformation.

This is not a rapture as they are not caught up in the clouds to meet Jesus but their bodies are transformed into there eternal heavenly bodies and they stay on the earth on assignments to encourage the lukewarm church that will go into the Great Tribulation.

In my last newsletter, I have one topic title called, "Requirements for the Transformation". When you study all I have said on this topic you may agree that the 144,000 are not all virgins, virgins are symbolic for holiness. The Bible clearly teaches that Jesus is coming back for a bride without spot or wrinkle.

How do we attain such a condition of holiness when the Bible says our righteousness is as filthy rags? The Bible also says in Psalms that, "No one is holy in this life." Holiness is not something we attain; it is something we put on. Our sins are washed away by the Blood of Jesus, we must put on the Breast Plate of Righteousness.

So how do we meet the standard of holiness without spot or wrinkle that qualifies us to be part of the Bride of Christ?

If you study the Lords prayer, you realize this prayer is a model of how to pray daily to God. Prayer is communion with God and if we are really sold out to God, we will have daily communion with Him. Part of this prayer teaches us to ask God to forgive us our sins as we forgive others who sin against us. This daily communion with God is what keeps our robes spotless, without wrinkle.

To be part of this small group called the Remnant. A remnant is a small portion of the whole. The requirement to be part of this first group of the first fruits of the resurrection is having daily communion with God, talking to him daily, prayer is talking to God, asking him to guide us daily to be obedient to His will.

The reason the first fruits group will be so small is because most Christians are not taking time to commune with God on a daily basis.

When this event happens the majority of the church will be left out and many will be angry at God and angry at their pastors for not teaching them how to properly prepare for the Lord's Coming.

So now back to my subject title. What is the requirement for being included in the rapture? The requirements for the rapture are the same as requirements as those who are part of the First Fruits of the resurrection. Daily communion with God and asking God to forgive our sin and guide us into a daily walk of obedience.

Revelation 3:10, "Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth."

I believe those who persevered are the first fruits of the Bride who will not suffer during the Great Tribulation. Those who were left behind will have this time of testing to stand up to what ever they must endure, even unto death. Remember death has lost its sting and the eternal rewards are worth it all.

Update on my health

For some time now I have had some severe health challenges, I know this is an area that I am to trust God in and I recently had a personal God Word sent to me that confirmed that God has His hand on my health and He is not going to let me go home to heaven early. The Lord told me that I am needed. and have work to finish.

I continue to covet your prayers as I strongly believe in a prayer answering God. In recent weeks I have prayed for renewed strength to be able to get my property ready to help people during the soon coming tribulation. God has answered these prayers. I am not totally healed yet. Like a YO YO, my feet and fatigue issues come and go. I am confident my total healing is just around the corner.

Financial Alert

My Ministry is faith based. I continue to trust God as I always have and God has never let me down. I don't care to list specific needs but let me say that at this time of year many end of the year expenses come due. I am also being hit with unusual repair issues.

I appreciate all who are able to give to the support of my ministry. I am seldom able to reach out and thank my supporters but I could not make it without you and I really do appreciate all of you.

These are challenging times for many financially, I understand that some previous supporters to my ministry are no longer able. I know God will lay my needs on the hearts of those who are able to give. For those not able to give, please remember me in your prayers

At the end of this newsletter, I share how you can give to this ministry.

What Just Happened?

With what just happened in the swearing in of a new president, most Christians are asking this question. “What just happened?”

On the morning of the inauguration, I watched a u-tube where the speaker said that Biden will not be sworn in today. A friend of mine told me, his son less than a week before the swearing in ceremony said that Trump will stay in the White House. He will pull a rabbit out of the hat.

I am hearing some ask the question, “How could all of the prophets been wrong. I already addressed this earlier. The majority of the church have been listening to the wrong prophets.

In Elijah's day the people wanted to follow the prophets of Baal worship. Today to many churches have turned real worship into entertainment.

In Jerimiah's day the people did not want to listen to true prophets like Jerimiah. No, he was discarded into the sewer pit and they found false prophets who would tell them what they wanted to hear.

If you really want to find true prophets of God today, they are out there but the church is not interested in a message of judgment and what is called fear mongering. Some time back I heard one of the pillow prophets say that those prophets and watchmen who are saying that judgment is coming to America are preaching the message of satan.

In case you haven't noticed, Judgment has arrived. If the message of judgment is of satan, then are you saying that Jerimiah and most of the Old Testament prophets were delivering a message from the pit?

Read the words of Jesus in Matthew 24, warning that they will kill you. Look at the writings of Paul, how many would sign up to go through all he went through?

The truth of the matter is, what just happened, had to happen.

As I have studied the Lords coming and studied the words of the prophets, I have seen that we have two camps of the prophets as it was in Bible days. If you study these two groups you have to conclude that they both cannot be right.

In my studies on what I have called the convergence of the events that Jesus told us to watch for. I see clearly that the horses are truly pushing against the gates waiting for the gun to go off and launch the world into the Great Tribulation.

The recent warnings coming from the prophets I listen to are saying we have arrived at the time of great trial. If those prophets who I call the pillow prophets would have been right, then Donald Trump would have to still be in the White house.

If Donald Trump was reelected and sworn in, then those I call the false prophets would have been right and those who I call the true prophets would have been wrong.

It amazes me that those who have believed that Donald Trump will make America great, are still in denial that he is not coming back. Some even saying we will still have eight years of Donald Trump as our president because he will return in four years. Don't you see what is coming? There will not be an America as we know it in four more years.

This election was not about a political race between the Republicans and the Democrats. No, this has all along been about the global agenda for a One World Government. America has been in the way and President Donald Trump stopped them in their tracks. This is why they will take every step to ensure that he can never run again.

What is Going to Happen?

My last topic, “What just Happened” whether we like it or not, it happened. So, the real question we should be asking is, “What is Going to happen?”

Much of what I could put into this topic will be shared in my coming worst case scenario story. Why would I like to look at a worst case? I have heard it in prepper circles, prepare for the worst and pray for the best.

I believe we are standing in the doorway about to enter what the Bible calls the Days of Sorrows. Jesus used these words when he completed the list of events to watch for in Matthew 24. The list He gave His disciples was completed with Great Earth quakes. He then said, “These are the beginning of sorrows.

The last event on His list was earthquakes and the opening of the 6th seal begins with a great earthquake. I have shared in earlier teachings that I see the seals all lining up and I believe when the list is completed with a great earthquake, all the seals will move forward together into the time called the Days of Sorrows or the Great Tribulation.

So, the answer to the question, “What is going to happen?” is a combination of what Jesus warned us to watch for, along with what our true prophets have warned us is coming. The Bible says that God will do nothing unless he has warned up through His prophets.

If we read what Jesus warned us to look for from Matthew 24, what can we expect?

As you read this list below, these are the warnings of Jesus, these events are coming so don't call me a fear monger, I am only trying to warn you.

1. The first thing Jesus told us to watch for was false prophets. I know this will make some angry at me but I will speak what I see God showing me whether you like it or not. The pillow prophets who have been saying we will have many years of prosperity and great days in America have been putting the church to sleep. Soon it will be the needed judgment of God that will wake up the sleeping church.

2. Jesus said there will always be wars, but during these last days we will see global wars unlike any time in history. I believe America will be taken out in war and this coming war will not be like past world wars that were fought on foreign soil. With this coming war on our soil, other prophets have warned of coming captivity.
3. Famine will be the effects of economic collapse, the effects of War, and can be brought on by weather and other events. When you have famine from the shortage of food you will have death by starvation.
4. There will be pestilence, there have been events like the locust infestation happening in part of the world this last year that is creating food shortages this year.
5. Plagues, we are witnessing the plague of the Covid 19 event. They are saying it is mutating and a more dangerous strain is just starting to spread around the world. Economies around the world are currently being kept alive on life support by the printing of monopoly money. This cannot go on much longer. In almost one year the amount dolled out to America families cannot sustain them.
6. Earthquakes, this is referring to mega earthquakes. When the big ones hit on the West Coast and in other parts of our nation. This event will bring America to its knees.
7. Meteor and tidal wave event. This is not in the Matthew 24 list but Luke recorded this event from the same meeting on the Mount as recorded in Matthew 24. I believe this will end the lives of millions. This is recorded as part of the 6th seal.
8. Many will be killed for their faith in Jesus and for not going along with the system of the Global Government.

What is soon coming demands that we stand strong in our faith. All the disciples and many Christians to follow died for their faith. I have never been able to understand how so many American Christians believe that God would never allow his people to suffer. Tell that to His disciples. Tell that to the millions since the time of Christ who have died for their faith. Tell that to the millions who died in the Holocaust, If God did not spare the Jews who are we in America?

A few years ago, I mailed some of my books that teach the rapture will be in the middle of the seven years, to a Bible school in Africa. I was able to message back and forth with to my contact person. When the students had time to read my book, I asked my friend Daniel how many of the students believe the rapture is Pre-trib. He told me that none of them believed in a Pre-Trib. Rapture. He said that in his country the church has been going through tribulation for decades.

A Worst-Case Scenario

A few days before the swearing in of Joe Biden as our new President, I wrote the following worst case scenario story. I debated sharing it with more than a couple of friends because if it did not happen exactly as I wrote it, I would be called a false prophet.

As I have said many times, I am not a prophet but a prophetic teacher. I do hear God's voice and get an occasional dream but that does not make me a prophet.

I have been blessed to see prophetic things in God's Word that many have missed. It is the Holy Spirit who reveals hidden secrets in His word and man cannot take the credit.

In this scenario story I am sharing my thoughts concerning all the many prophetic events that we have been warned are coming. No doubt, I don't have the order correct. The reason I am including this worst-case story is because when certain events begin to unfold, it will be a wake-up call for the sleeping church.

The following is based on my study of God word, my analysis of the prophetic voices I have learned to trust like from Pastor Dana Coverstone and others and my study of current world events.

This scenario includes attempts on the life of Former President Trump. It includes our new president Biden being taken from office by some of a number of means. Possibly the 25th amendment for a lack of mental acuity.

I see American cities being nuked by many possible sources, maybe Terrorist, maybe a foreign enemy, or maybe a false flag event by our own government. If it is a false flag event by our own government it will be done and blamed on the Trump Supporter. This will pave the way to waging war on the whole conservative population in America. Hillary Clinton recently called all those who voted for Donald Trump, domestic terrorists who need to be kept under surveillance. Some so called leaders in America are even saying we need to round up the Trump supporter and send them to re-education centers, (consecration camps).

I see the destruction of America as needed by the Globalist to ensure America can never rise again against the agenda of the One World Government.

An event of destruction has to be big enough to declare nation wide martial Law and suspend the US Constitution. This will without debate allow our government to cancel the right to bear arms and lead to the confiscation of all privately owned firearms.

The UN will be asked to send in peace keeping military troops from Russia and China. This will be necessary because our own police and military will not want to kill Americans to disarm them, but the Foreign peace keepers will not have a problem with this, as they plan on invading America later and this allows them to spy out the land.

Kamila Harris rises to the office of President due to the elimination of President Biden. Her time in office as others want her position and they investigate her citizenship and declare her an illegal sitting president. Former President Obama is placed in the White House on a temporary basis until a new legal election can take place. A new election never happens because the Leaders in Washington and the former President sell out America to the One World Government.

When many cities are nuked, this will take out most of the national electric grid. This will cause a national panic and all food will be gone in 48 hours or less.

Gangs, looters, and killers will be going house to house to steal food and supplies, to rape and kill.

Every city over 20,000 in size will be under strict curfew. Those caught breaking curfew will be shot on sight.

An incredible God event happens during the time of this scenario story. This event could even happen any day. The sealing of the 144,000 servants of our God are transformed into their heavenly bodies and given assignments to be boots on the ground during these trying times to minister comfort to the believers.

All hell is not only breaking out in America but it is spreading to all corners of the earth. We have just entered into the time of the global solution. As countries are collapsing the forming of the One World Government is picking up the pieces.

At the same time that the nations of the world are joining the global solution of a One World Government, God is raising up a standard against evil. The 144,000, Just a symbolic number of completions are being raised up by God from all the nations.

These saints who have been sealed and anointed with power from God are the tip of the spear for the greatest revival the world has ever seen. These impowered saints are traveling on assignment at the speed of thought to places of need all around the globe, delivering miracles, signs and wonders to the places and people in need.

This incredible event is God using His servant to be His hand extended to all who call out to Him. Delivering comfort and the Love of God in ways never seen on such a large scale.

Millions of newly Born-again Christians are dying for their faith, but their decisions for Christ has canceled the sting of death. While a hurting world is hurting down here, great rejoicing is happening in heaven.

Great spiritual battles are being waged through prayer in both heaven and earth. For many it may appear that evil is winning but on God's score card the Salvation of millions is what shows who the real winners are.

We are now in the days when we must not delay. We must fully give our heart and life to God and ask for God's forgiveness that has been purchased with the Blood of Jesus and truly make Jesus the Lord of our life. If Jesus is Lord, then He is the boss.

When we truly follow Jesus as our Lord, great will our reward be in Heaven.

Praise God, we win.

Does China Own Your Home?

This may sound like a strange topic but it is far more relevant to our future than you can imagine. When you finish reading this you may ask, what can I do about this? I don't have the answer but I believe we need to pray about this and pray for wisdom concerning our finances and stewardship.

I keep my ears to the ground on a wide variety of subjects. A couple of things I have been keeping in my radar as much as possible has been the subject of China buying up America.

Over a year ago I heard that America has been selling off our National Parks to China. I still have not been able to confirm this but I recently learned that Canada has been selling off their National Parks to China. I have had this confirmed by friends who live in Canada.

What is interesting is these same friends are confirming that China has thousands of military troops in British Columbia, Canada close to our borders. The Reason given for their troops in Canada is to protect their investment interests in Canada. I personally believe Canada is stabbing America in the back.

There is more to this puzzle you need to hear. Many of you have learned how the federal Reserve has supplied America with trillions of dollars by just running their printing presses around the clock. This has been called Quantitative Easing. The question we must ask is, "How can America ever pay back all this money to the Federal Reserve.

What America has done is taken all the federal home loan mortgages and given them to the Federal Reserve for what is really only monopoly money. Now think about this, for only the cost of paper and ink the Federal Reserve owns most home loans in America.

Now it gets even more interesting. The Feds would like to have real money for their investment portfolio so now they have sold all those mortgages to China. Think about this, If you default on your home loan, most of these mortgage loans are federally backed and now are owned by China and it will be China who takes your home.

I have seen the writing on the wall. An economic collapse is on the horizon. This will also include a total collapse of the dollar and most Americans will not be able to meet their monthly mortgage payment.

We have been warned by prophets for decades that America will be invaded by China and Russia. China will own your home.

The other day the truth about what I am sharing with you came close to home. I received a letter from my mortgage Company. It outlined 15 fees I can be assessed if I default on my home mortgage. The total of these fees could add up to over $50,000.00 . Most home owners do not even have that much in equity, thus loosing their home on foreclosure without receiving anything back for their investment. At the end of this letter instructions were included written in English and Chinese. Why Chinese? I believe because they now hold my mortgage.

Again this is something we need to pray about.

Words from the Prophets

The Greatest Earthquake

JANUARY 22, 2021 , by DESIANNA

I woke up at 7 am 1/22/21 I dreamed of news casters all over the world talking about this earthquake that shook the entire world. It was as if Jesus took the whole earth and shook it vehemently in his hand. Somehow in my dream it happened to the whole earth at the same time. I kept thinking but how with time zones. This earthquake was so huge it effected different sections of earth. America, South America Europe China and Korea Africa South Africa Australia Antarctica. ALL 7 CONTINENTS!!!!!!!

What tripped me out is the news casters were just talking about their shock and how this has never happened and scientists tried to explain. I was shocked that people were not waking up to realize Jesus Christ is shaking the whole EARTH!!!!!! THEN I SEE RANDOM PEOPLE. People all over the world. A VERY SMALL GROUP.

On their knees repenting and some were accepting Jesus as their savior for the first time. These very far few and in between across the world repented literally on their knees.

What was more disturbing is the people who just remained deaf dumb and blind. It's like they just ignored the signs. Turned a blind eye and made their ears deaf. They didn't care they blamed God they were mad at God. They asked how could their be a God if this happens? Some people literally were like live your best life we're going to die anyway. It was disturbing.

So, when I woke up the Holy Ghost reminded me of 2 scriptures in revelation. It gave me chills. First was Revelation 11:13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

I got chills, these were the few that repented and turned to Christ. Then I read Revelation 16:18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. The newscasters kept talking about how this has never happened before.

Lastly, I thought about Matthew 24:7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers' places.

Repent accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. Pray and talk to him like a friend. Things are going to get worse. But let us have peace in Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Below I am sharing A dream I had warning of a great earthquake in the Northwest. I had this dream 6 months before scientists went public warning of this coming mega Earthquake. This section below is as I have recorded it in my book, "The Window of the Lord's Return" by John Shorey

This is the second encounter I had where God spoke to me that judgment was coming to America was when I had a dream on May 11, 2013. This dream had caused me much concern; I wanted to know if this was a revelation from God. God has called me into the prophetic ministry and as a watchman on the wall, I didn't want to stick my neck out on a pizza dream.

I labored several days over whether I should send the message of this dream to my Facebook friends and the contacts from the sale of my book. I firmly believe that God has not given me light to hide it under a bushel. I was willing to accept that some of my friends would pass this off lightly; some would defriend me. I am willing to accept any criticism from man, in my efforts to be obedient to God. Below I will explain and share this dream.

It was now Tuesday evening May 14th. On Saturday, May 11th I woke up from just having a dream that was not like my normal dreams, I could remember every detail and conversation concerning this dream.

In this dream, I was with people I knew from the Northwest Seattle area. It was about an earthquake that would hit the Northwest. It had not yet happened, but we were discussing it as if it had already happened. In the dream, we knew this quake was of the same magnitude as the earthquake that hit Alaska in 1964, which is said to have been a magnitude 9.2. Like I said, we were discussing it as if it had happened but it had not yet happened. It was like I was warning the people I knew, but they would not take it seriously. However, they seemed to know it was going to happen.

I felt it would happen soon, because in the dream we were talking as if we knew it was about to happen. I prayed for three days that God would let me know if this dream was really going to happen. I even asked if God would give this dream to me a second time, but this did not happen. On the morning of my third day, I felt compelled to find a place to pray. I continued to ask for God to confirm if this dream were from him. After a time of earnest prayer, I then went to my office to read my Bible. As I was reading my Bible, I just happened to be reading from the book of Psalms, and into my second page of Bible reading, this verse jumped out at me.

Psalms 18:6-7 (NIV) "In my distress I called to the Lord: I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears. The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry."

This verse from Psalms was the answer to my prayers. Yes, this dream was from God. The portion of this verse that says, "In my distress I called to the Lord: I cried to my God for help”, this was me in earnest prayer just minutes before. Then the verse goes on to say “From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears.” Then the verse talks about the earth shaking and that God was angry. “The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry”. The bottom line is God was confirming that the Northwest quake will be part of God’s judgment on America.

It has dawned on me that this dream has a very interesting parallel to Christ’s return. My Christian friends and the church in general know that Jesus is coming soon; they talk about His coming as if it was coming very soon, but they are not taking it seriously. They are not preparing for this event. I recently realized that there is a parallel to the church of our day and to the people living at the time of Noah’s day.

I will start by sharing this verse from Matthew 24:37-39 to show how I see an application to this generation. Matthew 24:37-39 (NIV) “As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking and marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark: and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.”

What I am going to propose is that the generation of Noah’s day was like the lukewarm church of today that lacks the discernment needed to recognize its sinful condition and hear the warning of judgment that are being preached by God’s men of today.

When you study the generations of Noah’s day, you learn that Methuselah, who was a godly man, lived up to two years before the flood. When you consider that it took Noah a hundred years to build the ark, it would not be surprising if Methuselah actually helped Noah and his families build the ark. Now Methuselah lived to about 1000 years old and he actually knew Adam and Eve. When I first thought of this, I realized that the generation of Noah was only one generation removed from the time of Adam and God’s creation. When you realize this you have to consider that Noah’s generation were not atheists. No! They did not question that there was a God, but the people of Noah’s generation were the lukewarm, backslidden church of their day. In their backslidden condition, they lacked any discernment to recognize that judgment was coming. Read this verse again. “And they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away”. Noah was preaching to his generation, but they were not listening. This verse is saying, “As it was in Noah’s day, so shall it be in our day.”

In our recent time, you can look back to the great Pentecostal revivals of Evan Roberts and the Welsh Revival, this great revival spread to America to the Azusa Street Revival and from these and other early fires of revival, a great Pentecostal revival with miracles, signs and wonders spread around the world. Today, many churches with this great spiritual heritage are absent of the miracles, signs, and wonders. Often the churches of today have substituted the miracles, signs and wonders for great entertainment.

*As it was in Noah's day, God is again sending out his prophets and a warning message that the Lord is coming soon, but the lukewarm church does not want to hear it. Jesus told us that we would see hard times and tribulation before he returns. In fact, Matthew, chapter 24 lays out a great list of what is to come, but the warning from God's Word and from the prophets of our day are not being heard or acknowledged. We have set ourselves up for a great surprise. God will soon be sending earth shaking events, and it will catch the church totally by surprise just as it says in Matthew 24:39, (NIV) "and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man."

In fact, much of the church today is lukewarm and lacks spiritual discernment. We are one generation removed from the miracles of our heritage, just as Noah's generation was one generation removed from their spiritual heritage. The church of today is so lacking in discernment, that the church is being warned of coming judgment and the soon coming of the Lord and like as it was in Noah's day, they lack the discernment to see it coming.

I will be sharing what God revealed to David Wilkerson decades ago and share how God is bringing these prophecies back to our attention for such a time as this. It was David Wilkerson's three most important prophetic books, (The Vision, 1974, Racing Toward judgment, 1976, and Set the Trumpet to Thy Mouth, 1985.) that over the course of twelve years, David Wilkerson wrote warnings to America to repent and turn back to God. Instead of repenting, America has pushed God's grace to the outer limits. There comes a time when a people can drift so far from God that God has no choice but to bring judgment on a nation or, as in the case of Noah's day, his judgment was brought on the whole world with the exception of one family.

The Punishment of America, by David Wilkerson

"I believe God has appointed the instrument of killer earthquakes as His most ominous weapon of judgment. Our nation will undoubtedly suffer the most severe judgment of all. It will strike suddenly, without warning. God has forewarned through many prophetic messages. Even scientists have been warning that major quakes are coming. It will not come as a surprise. The very first tremor will send forth the judgment message loud and clear to all - THIS IS IT! A day of judgment has come! There are no words in our language to describe the horror and the suffering. There will be no way of escape. The worst that man feared will suddenly come upon him.

God will literally shake our nation with this instrument of judgment. The mountains will tremble and the cities will fall. "Quakeproof" buildings will crumble like toothpicks. The earth will heave, split apart, and tremble."

"Hundreds of square miles affected. In less than two minutes on God's judgment clock, the death angel will claim the lives of multiplied thousands, over a radius of hundreds of miles. Mountain pass roads of escape will be blocked. Water mains will crumble and break. Cars and houses will sway like toys tossed about. Dams will burst and flood tides will carry many to their doom.

A series of minor earthquakes will precede the major killer quakes. One of moderate magnitude will strike, with moderate damage, and many will be relieved that a massive quake did not happen. But it will follow, most assuredly.” David Wilkerson’s book, Racing Toward Judgment, pages 65,66

Judgment Begins at the Coasts

“God’s judgments have always begun at the “entrance gates” of nations, cities and empires: “A cry of alarm will begin at the farthest gate” Zephaniah 1:10. This is representative of the seaports, harbors, and centers of influx. It is significant that most of the Old Testament prophets warned of judgment beginning at the coasts. Zephaniah warned the Philistine cities:”... Woe to you.....living on the coast....The Lord will destroy youThe coastland will become pasture...” (Zephaniah 2:5,6)

“Many will survive. Among the survivors will be those who were prepared and who had humbled themselves before God. Those who heard the warnings and who began to trust God for deliverance will survive. Many unconcerned Christians will be lost, along with the thousands of unbelievers.” David Wilkerson’s book, Racing Toward Judgment, pages 67-6

Clouds of GLORY. Clouds of Revelation.

Boris Johnson: New 'British' Strain of Covid-19 Deadlier Than Previously Thought, 1-22-2021

by Ilya Tsukanov

The UK first reported the existence of a new strain of Covid-19 in December. Since then, officials have issued contradictory statements about its contagiousness and deadliness.

There is "some evidence" that the new strain of the coronavirus discovered in the UK last month is more deadly than previously believed, Prime Minister Boris Johnson has announced.

"I must tell you this afternoon that we've been informed today that in addition to spreading more quickly, it also now appears that there is some evidence that the new variant, the variant that was first identified in London and the southeast, may be associated with a higher degree of mortality," Johnson said, speaking in a briefing on Friday.

"It's largely the impact of this new variant that means the NHS is under such intense pressure," the PM added, referring to 40,000+ new cases of the virus recorded over the past 24 hours.

Johnson's remarks appear to contradict earlier claims about the extent of the new strain's contagiousness by Danish researchers, who recently calculated that the so-called "British" variant is 36 percent more contagious than the common strain, and not 74 percent previously claimed by British scientists.

The UK began a mass vaccination rollout last week, with Britons invited to get a jab developed by Pfizer-BioNTech or Oxford/AstraZeneca. The Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine has come under fire in several countries where it's been used, with scientists reporting a broad spectrum of potential complications ranging from temporary facial paralysis to death. Last week, Le Monde revealed that European Union authorities pressured the bloc's medicines watchdog to approve the Pfizer vaccine despite a series of concerns about its quality and safety. British regulators are said to have been more lax than those from the EU to begin with.

Since the pandemic began last year, the UK has reported a total of over 3.54 million Covid-19 cases and 94,500+ deaths associated with complications from the respiratory disease. The country has also reported a surge in fatalities associated with the conversion of health care capacity to fighting the coronavirus, which has left fewer medical staff and resources available to treat people suffering from other serious ailments, including heart disease, cancer, and diabetes.

IL CONGRESS MEMBER SIGNS ONTO EFFORT TO REMOVE CHRISTIAN INFLUENCE FROM AMERICAN CULTURE

WASHINGTON DC - The name of a Congressional member that represents Illinois' 6th CD - which includes what was once known as America's center of Christian Evangelism, Wheaton College, where the late evangelist Billy Graham attended college - is included among a group demanding President Joe Biden and VP Kamala Harris remove Christian influence from the nation's culture.

"We urge you to lead our nation on a path that revives the Founders' vision of religious freedom in our government and promotes a unifying patriotic pluralism—not dogmatic religious chauvinism—in American society," states the Secular Democrats of America within a 28-page list of demands. "We believe that this is a moment not only to enact policies to advance constitutional secularism but to position the Democratic Party to take back the mantle of religious freedom and pluralism from the Republican Party."

The document, presented to the Biden-Harris transition team by Representatives Jamie Raskin and Jared Huffman, was endorsed by Representative Jerry McNerney. Those three are listed as founding members of the Congressional Freethought Caucus - one of which is Illinois Congress member Sean Casten (IL-6).

The document calls on Biden to make the following changes:

- Eliminate government support for all crisis pregnancy centers and all abstinence-only education programs in schools.
- Deny free speech and religious liberty to select Americans based on their religious beliefs.
- Incentivize states to strip parents of all non-medical exemptions to mandatory vaccinations for children in schools or daycare centers.
- Remove "In God We Trust" from U.S. currency.
- Repeal the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA)
- Rescind and replace the Trump DOJ's federal protections for religious liberty.
- Appoint an attorney general who will support governors whose emergency COVID-19 executive orders restrict gatherings at houses of worship.
- Reverse the Trump administration policies that have allowed faith-based government-funded contractors to provide adoption and foster care services and work with Congress to pass the Every Child Deserves a Family Act.

- Fully and robustly fund “comprehensive” sex education, which to the leftist means encouraging elementary and middle school-age children to declare themselves one of dozens of made-up non-biological gender identities and learn how to engage in various deviant forms of sex.
- Work with governors to educate and combat Project Blitz and encourage the introduction of the Do No Harm Act at the state level. [Project Blitz is a pro-family lobbying group described by the Secular Democrats as “a coordinated effort by Christian Nationalists to inject religion into public education, attack reproductive healthcare, and undermine LGBTQ equality using a distorted definition of ‘religious freedom.’”]
- The document tells Biden: “We urge you to avoid invoking the phrase ‘Judeo-Christian values,’ as it has been weaponized by the religious right to advance an agenda that has the veneer of inclusivity but actually undermines religious freedom and tolerance and does not represent tens of millions of Americans implicitly excluded from its formulation.

'It's Not Getting Better': Biden Says US Economic Crisis Is Deepening

© REUTERS , 22.01.2021(updated 21:05 GMT 22.01.2021)

by Evan Craighead

US President Joe Biden's economic relief plan rollout comes a day after the US Department of Labor announced some 900,000 additional Americans filed for unemployment insurance during the week ending in January 16.

While delivering remarks on the economy Thursday, Biden presented a grim outlook by asserting the US is currently facing uncommon economic hurdles that will require federal intervention within the next several months.

“We remain in a once-in-a-century public health crisis that has led to the most unequal job and economic crisis in modern history. And the crisis is only deepening,” he remarked during an address held on his second full day in office.

The US president also stressed that it is necessary that Congress looks at his $1.9 trillion COVID relief bill, which includes the third round of direct relief payments to Americans and $416 billion in funding for the administration's push to vaccinate 100 million Americans and reopen US schools within the first 100 days of the presidency.

"We cannot, will not, let people go hungry. We cannot let people be evicted because of nothing they did themselves," he declared. "We cannot watch people lose their jobs and we have to act. We have to act now. It's not just to meet the moral obligation to treat our fellow Americans with the dignity and respect they deserve."

Biden went on to sign two executive orders, one of which seeks to increase food aid and assist unemployed Americans. The other order lays the groundwork for federal workers and contractors to get a $15-an-hour minimum wage.

The US president's executive intervention comes a day after new figures from the DoL showed US jobless claims sitting at 900,000. Mark Zandi, a chief economist for Moody's Analytics, says claims would be somewhere around 200,000 in a "typical economy."

The still-high unemployment rate comes amid the US' steadily growing COVID-19 death toll.

"A lot of America is hurting. The virus is surging. We are [at] 400,000 dead [and] expected to reach over 600,000," Biden highlighted Friday.

Overall, the US has logged more than 24.7 million cases of the novel coronavirus and at least 412,780 deaths related to the contagious disease, according to the Johns Hopkins University COVID-19 dashboard.

We Are Suffering Through the Most Painful Economic Crisis Since the Great Depression of the 1930s

January 21, 2021 by Michael Snyder

I warned that an economic collapse was coming, and an economic collapse is exactly what we got. 2020 was a "personal financial disaster" for 55 percent of all Americans, approximately 12 million U.S. renters are "at least $5,850 behind in rent and utilities payments", the Aspen Institute is projecting that up to 40 million people could be facing eviction when the rent and mortgage moratoriums finally end, and more than 70 million new claims for unemployment benefits have been filed since the COVID pandemic began.

Nobody can point to a time since the Great Depression of the 1930s when the U.S. economy was in worse shape than it is right now.

Unfortunately, there are no indications that this nightmare is going to end. Last week, another 900,000 Americans filed new claims for unemployment benefits... Another 900,000 people filed new unemployment claims last week, President Donald Trump's last in office, a snapshot of the significant labor market challenges facing President Joe Biden.

An additional 423,000 people in 47 states filed new claims for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance, the program created to help gig and self-employed workers.

Prior to 2020, the all-time record for new unemployment claims in a single week was just 695,000, and that old record was set all the way back in 1982.

We shattered that old record early in 2020, but the bigger story is what has happened since we broke it.

At this point, the number of new claims for unemployment benefits has been above 695,000 for 44 weeks in a row.

That is starting to come close to a full year.

If that does not qualify as a "collapse", then you are probably using a completely different definition of the word than I am using.

This unemployment crisis has hit low wage workers particularly hard. At this point, even Fed officials are being forced to admit that the unemployment rate for low wage workers "is above 20%".

Many of those low wage workers used to be employed in the restaurant industry, but the restaurant industry continues to be mired in the worst stretch that it has ever encountered...

The number of “seated diners,” a daily measure with which OpenTable tracks walk-ins and diners with reservations, in the week through January 20 in the US was down on average by 57% from the same period last year.

The hospitality industry also typically employs large numbers of low wage workers, and we are being told that last year was the “worst year on record” for that industry...

According to STR, Inc, a hotel industry market data firm, 2020 was absolutely the worst year on record for hotels as industrywide profits fell to zero, as the virus pandemic and resulting government-enforced social distancing measures kept travelers at home. STR’s latest report said the US hotel occupancy rate was 44% for the year, down from 66% in 2019. This was the lowest occupancy rate on record. In an earlier STR report, we noted weeks ago that the industry had one billion unsold room nights for the first time, surpassing the record of 786 million in 2009.

Countless numbers of small business owners have also been absolutely devastated by this economic downturn.

Each month, thousands of small businesses die a permanent death, and the outlook for the months ahead is not good at all.

The Epoch Times recently interviewed one small business owner in Minnesota who admitted that “the fallout by this time next year will be shocking”... The ramifications of the forced shutdowns on thousands of small businesses in Minnesota is going to be huge, says Julie Schroeder, who owns two craft stores in the Minneapolis metro area.

“The fallout by this time next year will be shocking,” she told The Epoch Times on Dec. 30, 2020.

Meanwhile, north of the border small businesses are being destroyed at a staggering rate as well...

The Canadian Federation of Independent Business is warning that more than 220,000 businesses across the country are at risk of permanently closing due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The CFIB, a lobby group that represents small and medium-sized businesses (SMBs) in Canada, released a new report on Thursday that surveyed 4,129 members about business prospects through the pandemic. The survey found that 181,000 businesses – or one in six – are seriously contemplating permanently closing. That’s up from a similar survey conducted in July, which found that 158,000 businesses were at risk of closing.

In the end, if we can keep the amount of small businesses in the U.S. and Canada that go under to less than 20 percent that should be considered a major victory.

Because I have a feeling that the final number is going to be well above that threshold.

And the Biden administration does not seem too sympathetic to the needs of small businesses at this point. For example, one new law that Biden is likely to sign would absolutely cripple small truckers...

Trucking industry experts expect Joe Biden’s presidency to seriously jeopardize many small American trucking companies, and the prospects of truck drivers who work as independent contractors.

Biden is poised to sign a transportation law passed in the Democratic House and stalled in the then-Republican Senate in 2019. The Moving Forward Act had required commercial motor vehicles to maintain more than $2 million in insurance liability, more than doubling the existing $750,000.

Wouldn’t it be nice if our representatives in Washington were forced to take a basic course in economics before they were allowed to serve?

The blind are leading the blind, and the economic nightmare that we are currently experiencing is eventually going to get a whole lot worse.

But hopefully we can at least have a short period of time where things will plateau a bit before the next major trigger event happens.

So many people out there are really hurting right now, and it is not just financial pain that they are dealing with.

The past several months have been excruciatingly painful for tens of millions of Americans, and the truth is that there are countless people out there that are emotionally shattered at this moment.

If you are one of those people, just keep hanging in there. It will take some time, but you will get through this and you will recover.

And I will continue to be here pumping out articles as I do my very best to try to help everyone make sense of a world that is going completely mad.

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books and do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in to deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. “Such a debt, who can pay?”

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. “Such a debt, who can pay?” This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, “Such a debt, who can pay?” the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar’s signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is “Such a debt, who can pay?” If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. “Paid in full by Jesus Christ.”

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God's Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), "As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one."

(Romans 3:23 NIV), "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

(Luke 5:32 NIV), "I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance"

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), "For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), "That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.

The Sinner's Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being “Born Again.”

Food Offers

The food offers I have been sharing in my newsletters are no longer available. Augason Farms are working two shifts to rebuild their inventory. The best way to order is to go online at Augasonfarms.com and only order the products they say they have in stock

I am also suggesting Ready Made Resources, I have dealt with them for years and they are reliable. Ask for Bob Griswold. 1-800-627-3809. I believe at last report their ship times are about two weeks.

Don't look to get food at just one location. There does not seem to be a run on rice and beans yet. I would suggest cans of beans, gravy, sauces you can use on rice and beans.

Special Burkey Type stainless steel Water filter Offer

Augason special offer, this unit is about two feet high with the upper chamber holding about 1.5 gallons. Similar unit's retails for $300.00 and this month is available for $119.99.
