Introduction

I have a number of mini topics of study in my introduction. I am keeping these studies short for a number of reasons. I don't want you to quit reading before you read the words from prophets I have listed below. The consensus coming from so many different prophets on the topic of the Lords Coming for the First Fruits of His Bride is mind blowing.

A second reason I am keeping these studies short is because the Lord is prompting me to get this newsletter done and sent to you before I go to bed tonight. If I am able, I will expand on these studies at a later time.

And the third reason is because the temperature in my office is about 95 degrees. In the last five days we have had five days in a row breaking the all-time high temperature records here in Arizona. At our house it has hit 108 to 110 for 5 days in a row and our house second story HVAC which cools the upstairs broke down 2 months ago and we are now paying the price for this breakdown.

Am I right or am I Wrong?

This newsletter has some very important information included but I must warn you that this info is not for everyone. For most, what I am teaching on the sealing of the 144,000 is too far out of the Box.

If you are unwilling at this time to study what the Bible has to say about this event that goes by many names that include the sealing of the servants of our God in Rev. 7, called the First Fruits of the Resurrection in Rev. 14. The First Fruits of the Resurrection also implies the First Fruits of the Bride, and also an event very similar to the rapture.

Some are saying that this is a pre-trib rapture and all Christians are included. You are making a critical mistake in your thinking. The 144,000 is a small global number and it is referred to as a remnant. A remnant is a small part of the whole and it will only include those Christians who are walking Holy before God without spot or wrinkle. I have taught on what it means to walk holy, without spot or wrinkle in other newsletters, if you want to study on this you can find these older studies on my site, www.tribulationtruth.com

I know I am already making some upset at me, so if this is you and you do not want to read more on this teaching, then stop reading right here and you can just take the attitude of let's wait and see.

It saddens me to have friends and some family unwilling to study to see that what I teach is totally backed by God's Word. It is much easier to call me a false teacher. The Bible says to Study to show yourself approved unto God. The desire to truly study God's Word is really lacking today.

False Prophets soon Revealed

It is not a matter of if the sealing of the 144,000 servants of our God will include both Jews and Gentiles, it is a matter of when this will happen.

There are two camps of the prophets, those who say Jesus will not return for years and the camp I follow that says Jesus will return for His Bride sooner than you think.

I have been teaching on the First Fruits of the Bride, also called the First Fruits of the Resurrection, as referred by Jesus when he met the 144,000 on Mount Zion after the Battle of Armageddon.

If I am right on this imminent event then we will know who the false prophets are. I can already call out many by name because I know the Word of God and the counterfeit prophets stick out like a sore thumb.

I recently lost one of my supporters, maybe more than one because I called out a few false prophets by name. I received a letter of reprimand telling me we are not to touch the Lord's anointed. If they are not true prophets then they are not the Lord's anointed. Also realize that Paul called out false prophets and false teachers by name and Jesus in Matthew 24 warned us about false prophets in the last days and Jesus called out the religious leaders and called them whited sepulchres.

The point I want to make is, when this Bible based event happens, those prophets and teachers who are calling me a false teacher will be left behind and you will then know who you should not have been listening to.

A Puppet in the White House

If you have been following the speaking engagements of our new President Biden you may notice that he has to use some form of file cards to read from or use the ear piece that is giving him the answers to the questions that he is being asked.

It was recognized even before the election Biden no longer has the mental acuity to run America. This makes him a puppet with others pulling his strings. The question I have to ask is, "Who is pulling Bidens strings and who is really running our country?"

I personally believe it is a former president from two presidents ago, the one who never left Washington. Most of his former cabinet were brought into Bidens administration.

What is scary about the goals of this former administration was its goal to take down America and see America out to a One World Government. Many years ago I even shared in my book that God showed me that this former president would sell out America to the coming global government. I thought this former president was even a candidate to become the anti-christ.

I now see it differently. I see his goal is to bring America down and then this former American leader will leave the rubble of America and go to Europe to head up the position of the leader of the United Nations or also called the Global One World Government.

If you have read my book on the chapter on the coming anti-christ then you may remember my study showing that the antichrist does not come from being the leader of the UN, no the antichrist comes from one of the 10 regional leaders of the global beast government. Some thought that Americas president would be the leader of the North American region and make the American president a candidate for the anti-christ.

A Clue to the Coming Anti-christ

I am now seeing a totally different scenario. If you have been following the prophetic warnings from many past decades warning of Americas destruction and invasion then it is not hard to see that we are about to see these warnings come to pass.

Many prophets and prophetic teachers, myself included have taught that America is in the way of Bible prophecy, and America will be taken out of the way. Many including myself believe America is Mystery Babylon and will be destroyed in God's Judgment.

I believe the destruction and the invasion of America is knocking at the door. If this is true then when the ten-region global government is put in place who will be chosen to be the North American regional leader? It certainly won't be President Biden or any America leader. I am looking to the North to Canada.

Take a look at Justin Trudeau. He is young and handsome. Look at what he has been doing. He has been inviting Chinese military on his soil. He is selling out America to our enemies. He is having Christian pastors and Christians arrested. He is building detention centers for dissidents. This man has the spirit of Anti-christ and could very well be the North America regional leader, one of the 10 candidates for the anti-christ.

Over the years when I thought former President Obama could be a candidate and people would disagree with me, I would always say, "If you don't agree with me then give me a name.” the names they would offer would be world leaders who did not exhibit the spirit of anti-christ. I see Justin Trudeau fitting the bill.

I am not a prophet and I am not saying thus saith the Lord on this but it is a possible candidate to ponder.

Mega Earthquakes and the 6th Seal

If you study the opening of the 6th seal you will discover some incredible information. The opening of the 6th seal opens with a great mega earthquake. I believe this great earthquake event is the earthquake event that God showed David Wilkerson back in the 70's.

It was only during this last year that God showed me in His Word that the events of the 6th seal will not be allowed to happen until after the angels have sealed the 144,000 servants of God. Read it in Revelation 7:3.

I believe the West Coast quakes will be the opening of the 6th seal. I remember when God gave me a Dream, I believe it was 2012 or 13 concerning a Mega quake on the Northwest. I had this dream 6 months before the earthquake scientists when public with the Cascadia Fault. My dream included every detail as the scientist would later reveal.

If the 144,000 are about to be sealed then it follows in my thinking that the west coast earthquakes will soon follow.

Recently I believe God gave me insights concerning the Northwest Subduction zone quake that is frightening to me. I have tried reaching out on the internet to find an earthquake engineer to talk to but without any luck.

Because it has been, I believe 600 years since the last NW quake, we cannot really know what the coast line really looked like.

I am going to just touch on my thoughts concerning this quake. I believe instead of thousands dying from this event it could be millions.

Why? The subduction zone event that is building up on the Northwest is caused by the Pacific Continental plate moving under the NW continental plate. These continental plates float on liquid magma. I believe the pacific plate could be causing the west coast plate to be floating higher than it would naturally. When the Pacific plate breaks, off the coast of the Northwest it will cause the pacific plate to rise on the magma core it floats on and the whole pacific plate will no longer be holding the NW plate higher than it would naturally be and this event will cause the whole Northwest plate to sink down into the magma lake to its natural level.

If I am right then the pacific plate rising off shore of the NW will cause a huge tidal wave to go inland into the Northwest, while at the same time the NW plate is sinking and the water rushing in would not go back out to sea as what would happen in a normal tidal wave situation.

Please don't take me wrong, I am not an earthquake engineer. I would love to talk to one. I hope my speculations on this are wrong. If I am right then people need to be warned. Perry Stone saw 10 story buildings under water in LA in a dream and John Paul Jackson said he was shown that the west coast map would have to be redrawn.

Do We Have Much Time?

I am not a prophet. I am a prophetic teacher and I see myself as a prophetic analyst. I have always preached from a position of urgency and thought things would happen sooner than they have. God spoke to me in 2016 to stand my ground and stay the course.

I am hearing warnings that time is up from many sources. There are many prophets I don't trust but I can trust God's Word, His Word trumps the words of any prophet. And I have taught for a few years now that we are seeing the convergence of events that Jesus in Matthew 24 told us to watch for.

Are you seeking God for answers or are you just trusting what your pastor tells you or what you are hearing from the pillow prophets?

I am hearing loud and clear, Time is up. Is it days, weeks or months? I don't know but I believe it is sooner than you think.

If the event I am teaching on the 144,000, or by other names like the first fruits of the Resurrection, does not happen by the end of June, then I believe it will not happen for around a year or more down the road. I don't believe current events will allow this to wait that long. If I am wrong, I will soon thereafter issue an apology that I was wrong.

How much time will it take for you to run out of food for you and your family?

Update on my health

For the last few months my health challenges have had a turn for the worse. I have not wanted to share this as I am trusting God and I am not looking for your sympathy. I am looking for my promised healing which I believe is only days away.

I was given a prophetic word over 2 years ago that health challenges would come and if I trusted in God, I would see the miracles of the total restoration of my body. I really didn't think my body would hold up this long. I have believed that the worst that my health became, it would be an indication to how close we were to the Lord's coming. I believe we are very, very close to incredible events and the Return of the Lord Jesus.

I continue to covet your prayers as I strongly believe in a prayer answering God. In recent weeks I have prayed for renewed strength to be able to get my property ready to help people during the soon coming tribulation

Financial update

My Ministry is faith based. Recently giving has been down, partly because I have not been putting out a lot of Newsletters. I only do these studies when the Holy Spirit prompts me. Today I have been strongly prompted.

My financial needs go beyond just personal living expenses. God has instructed me to build a place of safety for the time of the Great Tribulation. This has been a huge expense, getting ready to help over 100 people as God has told me. I have recently had to borrow from other accounts to finish getting things that are needed to help people. If God prompts you to help me in this project, I really appreciate your help in helping me catch up during these final hours.

I appreciate all who are able to give to the support of my ministry. I am seldom able to reach out and thank my supporters but I could not make it without you and I really do appreciate all of you.

At the end of this newsletter, I share how you can give to this ministry

Words from the Prophets

I have tried to keep my personal teachings on the short side so my readers will carefully read what many different prophets are saying in the following prophetic words dealing with the gathering of the First Fruits of the Resurrection. I have been covering this topic in great detail many of my Newsletters. Some are listening and many are not. Pray over these prophetic words and ask God to reveal the truth to you before it happens.

Worthy

THE MESSENGER, Received June 14th 2021 around 5:30 PM

My son please write these words down. My children the end has come, please get your spiritual house in order. It is the most important thing that my children ,being a child of god can do. The Antichrist has risen up , and before long satan will give him his powers. Soon I will cast him from this realm my heavenly realm and he will no longer be able to accuse you . My children most are not ready most are not going to be taken in the first rapture , they are the ones who have made themselves ready for my son . They are the ones who are clean, blameless and spotless in my eyes. Oh how I and my son the true anointed one wait with open arms for these Crown Jewels. Many things await my first fruits in Heaven . The main reason they are the first fruits is for my harvest, the great harvest ,these brides obey the lamb, they know my voice they obey, obey, obey. Through obedience they are found worthy to escape satan's wrath. My children time is of the essences and those caught up in worldly things will find themselves left. Again let me say these things to be found worthy you must truly believe on what my son did on the cross ,dying for you and forgiveness of your sins . You must forgive all ,everyone of everything ever done to you for, without true forgiveness I will not count you worthy. You must confess all every sin no exceptions , please do a look back, and have my Holy Spirit search your heart for any unforgiveness. The last thing is obedience to my voice , it is one of the most important things, You May ask why?. Because my voice comes to those who have truly forgiven others and truly have repented of all sin ,everyone . My children the ones who hear my voice the clearest are the ones most humble, most repentive , I can use them for my kingdom to serve me. The last thing is true Repentance, you must turn away from all sin from all of the enemy strongholds in your life. You must be seeking me with all your heart all of you, which means you have made me your father and my son Jesus the Christ top priority you have given up all, every worldly thing that can be given up . My children you have to do these things to learn to walk in holiness for without it you are not worthy to escape.

For those left behind ,my purging purifying fire will get you ready ,for the main rapture. My purging fire will not be to your liking but it will be better to go thru that ,than face satan's full wrath. My fire will get you ready ,cleanse you, make you a new creature, you will have to do this before I can send a harvester to you, to take you out of this world. My disobedient bride you should have heed my warnings. My left behind children do not let satan trick you or even force you to deny me the father or my son Jesus the Christ for than you will have to repent ,truly and you will have little or no time left. Satan will also try for you ,to curse me out with your lips please at all cost do not do that again you will have to truly repent of it.

Please do not take the mark of the beast there is no turning back you will dam your self forever, eternal damnation . At any cost do not take satan's mark, it is better for you to die than get tossed into the lake of fire.

My children time of the end has come and it is now, please get ready ,get all things in order in your lives for when this all starts, my judgements on USA ,Babylon ,there is no stop or turning back. Please prepare for the worst and pray I lessen and shorten your days thru all of satan's wrath. I love all my children but for my words to come forth and pass ,this must come about . End of message signed your loving heavenly father.

SOON WE FLY

HEAVEN'S SHOFAR,

Word Received by Heaven's Shofar on 4-10-2020 @ 8:00am – 8:51am

Many of my servants continue to sound the alarms, but no one is listening and there is not much time left. Make your final preparations... for SOON WE FLY!! PREPARE FOR TAKEOFF!! DO NOT BE AFRAID!!!

There is much work to be done...the harvest is plenty, but the workers are few! (Matthew 9:37). You, MY REMNANT, have been chosen for such a time as this!! Do not fear what lies ahead. Remember the battle has already been won!! You are fighting a defeated foe and he knows it!!! You are what he NOW fears most, and he has pulled out all the stops to keep you from fulfilling your destiny. Keep pressing into Me!!

I am now putting the finishing touches on refining you, “My Masterpieces”!! Each of you is a piece in this marvelous puzzle designed by My Father in eternity past. Each of you will play an intricate part in gathering my harvest. Some of you will evangelize, some of you will heal, some will encourage those at the very end of their rope, and some of you will fight the enemy “HEAD ON”!!! I have EQUIPPED and SEALED each and every one of you with what you will need to take up your mantles! Keep studying My word, for in it you will see that “What was, will be again... There is nothing new under the sun, for I change not” I am the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8, Ecclesiastes 1:9, Malachi 3:6). Just as I delivered the children of Israel with Moses, so too, will I deliver you from the time of trial which is about to come upon the earth. You must stop at nothing to complete the tasks I set before you! Do not hesitate to MOVE when I say “MOVE”!!!

Each of you has a specific job to do that will be revealed at the proper time. Listen for my voice and remember I am no respecter of persons (Romans 2:11). I use whomever I want, whenever I want. I know your hearts and I see

ALL. Those of you who have surrendered everything to me are now in the final phases of refinement. Others aren't quite ready yet and will need to seek Me more often thru prayer and fasting. Trust me in EVERYTHING!! That is the only way this will work! Trust the process as I continue to purge sin from your life to make you more and more like Me, my Precious Jewels!!

By now you should have very little to no desire to be a part of this world. Your focus should be solely on Me and My kingdom, that is to come. Your prayers and worship are now more essential than ever! Pray and worship me like never before, for soon we will be together and see each other Face to Face!! You will see Me, your Risen King, just as I am and YOU WILL BE IN AWE OF MY MAJESTY!! Oh, how I love you and long to be with you all, but my heart grieves for my lost sheep!! Many will perish without EVER knowing how much I love them and what I went thru to save them!

It is imperative in these final moments that you share my message of salvation with those all around you. Plant those final seeds, children, for only I know which ones will be harvested when the time comes. Speak out when I nudge your spirit. It could be to a relative, co-worker, or neighbor. Everyone must hear the Good News and repent before it's too late!! There is not much time left, children!!! SOON WE FLY!!

I asked the Lord for a sign/confirmation because I felt uneasy in my spirit about "prepare for takeoff" and "soon we fly" words He gave. The message ended at 8:51am and I felt led to look up that number in the Strong's Concordance. 851 means "to remove" "cut off" or "take away"

Be Ready

LYNNE JOHNSON, JUNE 6, 2021

Remember my sisters and brothers to listen to the Lord's words and "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." Proverbs 3:5-6 NKJV

Word received January 24th, 2021 at 10:47 PM

My Children get ready for the time is at hand. This is the time for the Great Harvest of Souls to begin. The most important time of this age, the salvation of the lost sheep. The change is almost upon you. Be ready for it comes upon you suddenly. There will be no warning when this anointing from the Holy Spirit, the Ruach HaKodesh comes upon you. So be ready for His arrival. Ensure that your heart is pure, that you have no unforgiveness in your heart and that you repent daily, or more often of your sins. DO THIS IMMEDIATELY WHEN YOU HAVE SINNED AS YOU DO NOT WANT TO MISS YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO WORK THE HARVEST. Only those who are cleansed, pure, will be given the anointing. So be ready, be pure in heart for He comes very soon. Again, once you have received this anointing from the Holy Spirit, you are to wait for MY Voice and Instructions. DO NOT LEAN ON YOUR OWN UNDERSTANDING. Your safety depends on this. You will, as I have said, have a heightened understanding and should understand this. Your loved ones will be protected at this time. Do Not Worry About Them. They will be given an understanding of what is happening to you and your task.

I AM in control and all will be fine.

MY Word will be fulfilled as written. You, My Chosen Warriors of Faith, will bring MY Called lost sheep into the Kingdom of Glory. This is your destiny and it will be fulfilled. A most exciting time on earth. This will be truly the most amazing time of this age! There will never be a time like this on earth again. A time of wonders, of healing, of the miraculous all done by you, MY Chosen Ones, MY radiant jewels. For such a time as this! A most exciting time for you to be in. Yes, an incredible time in history. Many through the ages have wanted to be part of this Harvest of Souls, but you were the ones Chosen for this special task. I AM CHOSE YOU! Reflect on this.

Be ready for the moment is upon you!

Your King Yeshua, Your Redeemer, Messiah

It is time – be ready My Warriors of Faith — be ready!

READY OR NOT

Message received June 5, 2021

As I sit here praying over this message, asking His Holy Spirit to go before this word so all may have ears to hear, I hear a shofar blowing in the spirit. Truly, King Yahushua is at the door! Make haste to be ready, be holy as He is so holy, humble and contrite of spirit. Thank you all for all your love and support. We pray for each of you daily. Our love and blessings and Yahushua's shalom to you all until He comes for us!

Julie..

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge, and you will watch many fall away now. Is this not what is happening before your very eyes? You who have been seeking truth, you who have been called and prepared and are ready because you have been through the refining fires, know the hour is very, very late. I have set My seal upon you and your steps are ordained. Great, great changes are here now, and the time for warnings has ceased. The world is under judgment, and I will use this season for great purging and separating. Too many continue to sit on the fence and remain undecided, and in My house, I have begun the separation. The filth and abominations of those who call themselves Mine have reached their limit, and I will show them which god they have chosen to serve. How long have I admonished them to seek truth, yet the comforts of this world still hold them captive. Tell My house, the time is over to make a choice for Me, as you cannot serve Me and mammon. The time of severe testing is now upon the earth.

A dramatic shift will separate those who are truly Mine and who have embraced truth and walk completely in it, from those who pay lip service to Me, but whose hearts are hardened by the choice to live in willful sin. Those who have not come out of man's systems, religions, and Babylon will suffer the consequences of their decisions.

I have told you that nothing will be the same again. The earth cries out for redemption from the bloodshed and the evil perpetuated, and all is out of balance. The weight of sin on the earth causes great groaning for all that is upon it. For a short time, I will allow the enemy to advance, but only against those who are not with Me, those compromising, and those living in sin.

You who love Me, who seek Me with all your heart, soul, mind and strength will very soon know a different reality. As the darkness blankets the earth and seeks to consume, My light will penetrate those places where My remnant faithful ones gather and miracles will abound. You will hear My same voice, the voice of your Shepherd. You must have no fear, as you cannot be harmed, and I have already dispatched My angels concerning you. Soon, you will see the manifestation of My glory in a much more visible way, and although you will see people living in fear everywhere around you, you will have My great peace and undisturbed composure, as I will dwell within you and your places of gathering.

Have I not told you I am about to do a work in your day that you would not believe even if it were told to you? Believe My chosen ones and have joy in your hearts, for your Redeemer lives and will glorify Himself in and through you in a way you have never known before. I will say go here, and you will go and be undetected and unhindered. You will minister and you will teach and heal. I will say ask, and you will receive all that you require. I will say command the elements to come under your authority, and it will be done in your places of dwelling, as it will be My authority by which you speak.

I will use your mouth to stop the enemy in his tracks and silence him, as all the forces of darkness seek to destroy you. The enemy will no longer have direct access to you, as he once had before. They will run in terror for the fear of Me, as they see Me manifested through you. They will be defeated in front of your eyes. Your faith will be greatly strengthened, and I will pour out My Spirit in great measure, so that all will know that the Great I AM is in your presence. I have promised I will never leave you or forsake you, and My Word is truth. Continue My loves to walk in Spirit and in truth, and it shall be well with your soul. Truth is the only Way you will overcome, and truth has always been available to you.

There will be storms of great magnitude, seasons out of alignment, unusual weather patterns and much turmoil in the atmosphere. As the elements will be unleashed as judgment, man will no longer have dependency on patterns, as all has now begun to change dramatically. While there will be lack of food, water and electricity in many areas, My remnant will lack nothing. While the fury of the enemy seeks to devour the earth, My set apart ones will be unseen and unknown to them. The time is upon you when you will see even your loved ones struggling to make a choice for Me, but you must stand firm. Few have received truth previous to now; many will endure the tribulation that is here, as it is the only way for them to ultimately find Me and be saved. Keep praying for them, keep interceding. Your prayers avail much in My Kingdom.

Have no worries or concerns about where your help comes from, as you know it comes from Me. I am your Help. I am your Deliverer from all darkness. I am the Source of all things. I am in your midst. Remember who you are, made in the image of your Father, sent here to glorify Me and manifest Me to all I send to you. You came here for this time on the earth, for this reason in these last days, and your steps are ordained. I will light the way, as I always have; and I will hedge you in on all sides, and you will behold wonders upon wonders, as you will see the fulfillment of all that has been written.

Do not grow weary in your journey. The best is yet to come! Continue to pray for radical faith, and it will be granted to you. Keep seeking My counsel and wisdom, and it will pour forth to you. Pray continually that you will always have My Kingdom perspective, as you endure this last season of your experience here, before I complete your transformation, and yes My loves, it is coming very, very soon. I know your hearts, and soon means SOON!

HEAVEN'S SHOFAR

Word Received by Heaven's Shofar on 5-5-2020

The time is drawing near where we will be together. My Remnant will be gathered very soon...Many believers from all walks of life... all with different gifts and different things to contribute to this coming epic battle against the Kingdom of Darkness. You must all love and respect each other. Some of you will have different ranks in my end-time army (meaning some will be higher positions than others) that does not mean I love some more or some less than the others. It is all about your walk and how much of Me you sought and found on your journey. Though I am no respecter of persons, I do respect “free will” and your right to choose how much of “Me” you actually let into your lives during your walk.

Some have been at this much longer than others and have learned many, many things on their journey. These are my “seasoned” war generals who will lead and teach you what you need to know to be victorious when you confront your enemy in battle. I am your Commander in Chief who of course, will be with you every step of the way and NEVER leave your side. I, too, will teach you many things in the days ahead, but my generals will also be in positions of leadership, and you should respect and obey them (especially during combat)! Follow their commands, for several of them have already been trained by me. They have submitted their lives to me and withheld nothing. I have refined them through the fires of affliction, and they now shine as “pure gold”.

The days ahead will not be easy, for there is much work to be done and much for you all to still learn from me, The Master, The Lord of Hosts, The God of Ancient Armies. That is who you fight for!! Remember, I won this battle many years ago at Calvary. Satan is a defeated foe! Everything now is just a formality...prophecy being fulfilled to prove that I am NOT a liar, and my word does NOT come back to me void. I am the Lord your God, creator of Heaven and earth...Worthy of ALL praise!!

Be ready, for very soon we will be together, and you will behold my Mighty Power and Majesty. Much greater will the works be that I will accomplish through you, my beloved Remnant. You would not believe it, even if you were told!

Your commander in Chief and Messiah, Jesus the Christ

You are not appointed to My Wrath!

LYNNE JOHNSON, Word received January 26th, 2021 at 12:07 AM

My Children events proceed as written in MY Word. Judgments fall and will continue. All will be fulfilled as written in My Word. This is that time of distress, of chaos, of great unrest that comes upon Babylon and of the nations of the world. This will continue until the end of the age. Do not despair, for MY Chosen Ones will be protected during these times. You will see much that you will not like or wish to see come about, nevertheless this must all come to pass in order for this age to end. For MY Kingdom of Glory to come to earth. All wickedness must be removed before MY Kingdom of Glory will be established. I DO NOT PERMIT ANY EVIL IN MY KINGDOM. Although this is a very difficult and evil time, you will make it through safely.

The Great Harvest of Souls will happen very soon. The time of the Harvest as I have said, will be short, and then you MY Chosen Ones come home to be with Me forever. Do not worry, this time of Harvest is upon you and your time to do many miraculous exploits. Truly I tell you, it is so very close upon you. Stand firm in My Word. Be ready, for your anointing from the Holy Spirit comes suddenly and all will be very different. Once your work is done and you come home to ME, My Wrath begins. You are not appointed to My Wrath! Be ready, My Chosen Warriors of Faith, as events continue to unfold as your time is fast approaching. Be prepared! Be ready!

Your King Yeshua, Your Redeemer, Your Messiah

What is in the News?

What I am sharing under the topic of the news is not even the tip of the iceberg. Our country is in grave danger. We have a puppet in the White House and the recent trip by our president Biden to the World G-7 meeting has made the leader of our country a laughing stock to the world.

The Federal Reserve is printing money like it was toilet paper and soon so much money will be chasing so few goods that this monopoly money will not be worth any more than toilet paper.

The situation with Covid 19 is not going away, it could but they won't let it. One large news outlet reported they it is OK to be violent to those who refuse to take the vaccine. I see the vaccine becoming mandatory and some are already saying you will lose your job if not taken. Some colleges are requiring it for admission. These is talk that you will not be able to buy or sell without proof of vaccination.

This smells of the mark of the Beast and I will refuse under all circumstances, even the threat of death.

Look at what has just happened in Israel. Getting rid of Prime Minister Benjamin is leaving Israel in the hands of weak leadership in Israel just as what has happened in America.

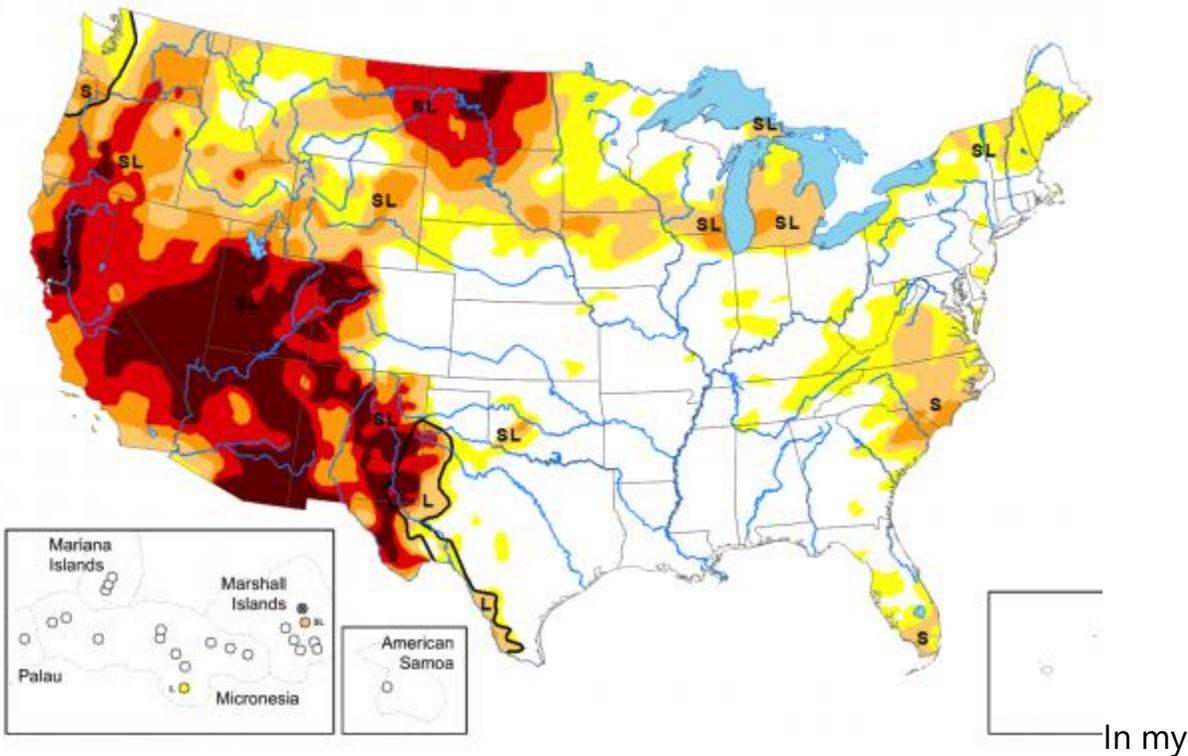

Concerning America, David Wilkerson was shown that when America is weak, our enemies will invade us. We are there.

Ranchers Sell Off Cattle and Farmers Idle Hundreds Of Thousands Of Acres As America's Drought Emergency Escalates

June 9, 2021 by Michael Snyder

Map released: June 3, 2021

Data valid: June 1, 2021

entire lifetime, this is the worst that drought conditions have ever been in the western half of the country. During the past 20 years, the amount of territory in the West considered to be suffering from exceptional drought has never gone higher than 11 percent until now. Today, that number is sitting at 27 percent. The term "mega-drought" is being thrown around a lot these days to describe what is happening, but this isn't just a drought. This is a true national emergency, and it is really starting to affect our food supply.

Just look at what is happening up in North Dakota. The vast majority of the state is either in the worst level of drought or the second worst level of drought, and ranchers are auctioning off their cattle by the thousands...

"Normally this time of the year, we're probably looking at 400-600 head and a lot of times would be every other week," said former auctioneer Ron Torgerson.

On Sunday and Monday, more than 4,200 head of cattle were sold at Rugby Livestock and Auction.

Needless to say, ranchers in North Dakota don't want to get rid of their cattle, but the drought has pushed prices for hay and corn so high that many of them simply have no choice.

One of those that has already been forced to sell a large number of cattle is rancher David Bohl...

As the drought continues, the price of hay and corn has gone way up. It's more expensive for ranchers to try and supplement feed than it is to sell the cattle.

Bohl has already sold 200 of his head in the last month.

"Everybody is in the same situation, they're going to have to sell probably 25 to 50% of them because there's nowhere to go with them we just got no food to feed them," Bohl said.

As cattle herds shrink all over the western half of the country, this is going to push beef prices significantly higher than they are right now.

And in many areas, they are already at ridiculous levels.

Meanwhile, the drought continues to push the water level in Lake Mead into the danger zone. According to CBS News, Lake Mead will soon hit the “lowest level ever recorded”...

For more than eight decades, the iconic Hoover Dam has relied on water from Nevada’s Lake Mead to cover up its backside. But now, at age 85, it finds itself uncomfortably exposed. Much of the water the dam is supposed to be holding back is gone.

“This is like a different world,” said Pat Mulroy, the former head of the Southern Nevada Water Authority. She told CBS News senior national and environmental correspondent Ben Tracy that Lake Mead, the nation’s largest reservoir, is on track to soon hit its lowest level ever recorded.

Since the year 2000, the water level in Lake Mead has declined by a whopping 30 feet, and it is currently at just 37 percent of capacity.

The dam’s hydropower output has already been reduced by about 25 percent, and once the water level gets low enough it will stop producing electricity completely.

In addition, many farmers that rely on water from Lake Mead are facing a very uncertain future at this point...

For the first time ever, the federal government is expected to declare a water shortage on the lower Colorado River later this summer. That will force automatic cuts to the water supply for Nevada and Arizona starting in 2022. Homeowners have higher priority and, at first, won’t feel the pain as badly as farmers.

Dan Thelander is a second-generation family farmer in Arizona’s Pinal County. The water to grow his corn and alfalfa fields comes from Lake Mead. “If we don’t have irrigation water, we can’t farm,” he said. “So, next year we are going to get about 25% less water, means we’re going to have to fallow or not plant 25% of our land.”

Unless something changes, Thelander and other farmers in the region could potentially have all water cut off in 2023.

That is just two years away.

Of course there are many farmers in California that have already been informed that they will not be getting any water allocated to them at all here in 2021. It is being projected that farmers in the state will not grow anything on 500,000 acres this year, and that is really bad news because California grows more than a third of our vegetables and two-thirds of our fruits and nuts...

Along with wildfire risks, short water supply is putting immense pressure on the state's agricultural industry, which grows over a third of the country's vegetables and supplies two-thirds of the fruits and nuts in the US. Already farmers are culling crops and fallowing fields in anticipation of water shortages. Karen Ross, California's food and agriculture secretary, told the California Chamber of Commerce that she expected 500,000 acres would have to sit idle this year.

So what are we going to do if this mega-drought persists several more years and agricultural production in California is dramatically reduced for an extended period of time?

I am sure that some wise guy will post a comment after this article about importing more fruits and vegetables from South America, but South America is experiencing a historic drought too.

In fact, at this moment Brazil is experiencing the "worst drought in nearly a century", and scientists are anticipating that it will not end any time soon. Needless to say, the droughts that we are witnessing are setting the stage for many of the things that I have been warning about, and the future of agricultural production in the western hemisphere is looking quite bleak for the foreseeable future.

In the short-term, this crisis is going to result in substantially higher prices at the grocery store. I know that grocery prices have already risen to painful levels, but the truth is that food prices will never be as low as they are right now.

So I am encouraging everyone to stock up while they still can.

As I have said so many times, we really struggle to feed everyone in the world during the best of years, and 2021 is definitely not one of the best of years.

Global food supplies are getting tighter and tighter, and this definitely has enormous implications for our future.

Outsourcing The Production Of Virtually Everything Has Brought Us To The Brink Of A Nightmare Scenario For The U.S. Economy

June 6, 2021 by Michael Snyder

Many of the imbalances that are contributing to the nightmarish shortages that we are currently witnessing are not going to be solved any time soon. Ever since I started The Economic Collapse Blog, I have been warning that outsourcing the production of just about everything and running massive trade deficits year after year would eventually have very serious consequences down the road. Well, now we are officially “down the road”, and our incredibly foolish trade policies have put us in a very precarious position. During the “good times”, being extremely dependent on the rest of the world to make stuff for us wasn’t a problem, but now it is rapidly becoming a national security issue.

For example, without a steady flow of computer chips, our society as it is formulated today simply could not function. We need computer chips for our vehicles, for the trucks that transport all of our goods, for the farm equipment that produces our food, for the extremely sophisticated equipment in our hospitals and for the millions upon millions of electronic devices that connect to the Internet.

The global chip shortage has been a very painful reminder of how exceedingly dependent we have become on technology, and it has also shown us how unwise it was to outsource production of most of our chips to Asia.

Back in 1990, the United States produced 37 percent of all computer chips in the world.

Today, that number has fallen to just 12 percent.

Business leaders are now pledging to start ramping up production here in the U.S., but that will take an extended period of time, and Intel's CEO is openly admitting that the current shortage of chips could take "several years" to be resolved...

Intel Corp's (INTC.O) CEO said on Monday it could take several years for a global shortage of semiconductors to be resolved, a problem that has shuttered some auto production lines and is also being felt in other areas, including consumer electronics.

Sadly, there are many other industries where our outsourcing makes us extremely vulnerable.

Did you know that 60 percent of all apple juice that is sold in this country now comes from China?...

Taken together, these laws explain why the apple orchards near my hometown disappeared. Nearly 60 percent of the apple juice sold in the United States comes from China, even though most of America has a climate conducive to apple production. The problem is so bad that salmon caught in the United States is shipped to China for processing and then shipped back to the United States for consumption.

There is no reason why we can't make our own apples. In fact, weather conditions are ideal for apple growing in much of the nation.

And how hard can it be to gather apples and squeeze the juice out of them? We should be able to do that here.

But during the "good times", big corporations discovered that they could make a little bit more profit by outsourcing to China, and so that is what they did.

Over the decades, big corporations have come to dominate food production in America, and this has pushed small family farmers to the brink of extinction...

The design of this framework benefits only the largest farmers who have the resources to produce these commodities at scale. For family farmers, the impact has been devastating. The share of each dollar spent on food that winds up in the hands of farmers has fallen from 53 cents in 1946 to 14 cents today, the lowest level ever recorded. Diversified family farms raising a variety of crops and livestock have been replaced by large industrial operations exclusively growing commodities like corn and soy at scale.

This grimness has caused countless family farms to throw in the towel. Since 1980, America has lost 50 percent of its cattle farms, 80 percent of its dairies, and 90 percent of its hog farms. As Benson and Butz threatened, farmers were forced to choose between getting big or getting out. The average size of a farm nearly doubled from 650 acres in 1987 to 1,201 acres in 2012.

As long as relations with China are good, we will be able to get the apple juice, salmon and other food products that we need from them.

However, if relations with China get really sour, all of a sudden there will be a whole bunch of basic things that will be in short supply and that we won't be able to make for ourselves.

Speaking of China, there is a very serious shortage of shipping containers right now. And one factor that is making it worse is that we buy far more from China than they buy from us. So empty shipping containers are stacking up on our side of the Pacific Ocean because there is not enough commercial traffic going back the other way.

Sometimes empty shipping containers are shipped back to foreign ports without anything in them, but this is exceedingly wasteful...

Using export data from U.S. Customs and Border Protections compiled by trader intelligence data firm Import Genius, Earther analyzed thousands of U.S. export records marked "empty container" shipped by Thor Joergensen A/S, a supplier based in Denmark whose largest customer is Maersk Logistics.

We found that in 2020, 668,086 empty containers were shipped to foreign ports around the world, 12 times more than in 2019. At the height of this empty container frenzy, in November 2020, 87,000 ghost containers were exported, 87 times more than at same time in 2019.

Another shortage that is weighing heavily on the U.S. economy is the worker shortage. Even though employment is still way, way below pre-pandemic levels, millions of Americans have decided that they simply do not want to go back to work because of the generous government benefits that they are now bringing in.

As a result, we are now facing a serious worker shortage, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce says that it is "getting worse by the day"...

"The worker shortage is real — and it's getting worse by the day," US Chamber of Commerce President and CEO Suzanne Clark said.

Most big corporations can easily pay more to bring in new workers, but many small businesses that are barely scraping by cannot afford to shell out higher wages. Along with other factors such as widespread shortages and higher commodity prices, this is creating a "perfect storm" that threatens to force many more small businesses to shut their doors. In fact, one recent survey found that 35 percent of all small businesses in America are "at risk of closing permanently by the end of the summer"...

*As small businesses complain that it has never been harder for them to hire workers according to a recent NFIB survey, many are facing growing pressure to survive. As the American economy continues to reopen, some fear it might not happen soon enough to save thousands of small businesses. Data from Alignable's June Revenue Poll shows that 35% of all small business owners are still at risk of closing permanently by the end of the summer.

Among the 3,772 small business owners in the 10 days ended June 1, Alignable's June Revenue Poll showed a myriad of factors – including the remaining closures and restrictions, growing inflationary pressures on prices, rising gas and transportation prices and labor shortages – are creating problems that affect small businesses more intensely than their corporate partners.

The U.S. economy has proven to be quite resilient, but the extreme imbalances that we are witnessing now threaten to cause immense damage in the months ahead, and they won't be solved any time soon. In fact, I believe that our economic challenges will soon escalate dramatically.

Before I end this article, I want to take a moment to acknowledge the passing of Robert Wenzel. He was an important voice for liberty, and I always enjoyed his commentary on The Economic Policy Journal.

So many people have been dying lately. Robert was only 63, and he will be missed.

It has been said that life is like a coin. You can spend it any way that you want, but you can only spend it once.

Be sure to spend your life on something that really matters.

The United Nations Is Sounding The Alarm About The Dramatic Increase In Global Food Prices

June 3, 2021 by Michael Snyder

Conditions are heading in the direction that we have been anticipating, and that is not good news at all. Food prices are rising at a very alarming rate, and at this point even the United Nations is sounding the alarm. Most of my readers remember the global food riots that we witnessed in 2008 and 2011, and if conditions continue to deteriorate we could soon be facing something even worse. Of course this crisis has not emerged out of a vacuum. We struggle to feed the entire world even in the best of years, and for a very long time I have been warning that we would eventually be facing extremely painful food prices and serious shortages of food in the poorer areas of the planet. But those running things just kept assuring us that everything would work out just fine somehow.

Unfortunately, they were wrong.

This week, even the United Nations was forced to admit that we are entering very dangerous territory after global food prices shot up for a 12th month in a row...

A United Nations gauge of world food costs climbed for a 12th straight month in May, its longest stretch in a decade. The continued advance risks accelerating broader inflation, complicating central banks efforts to provide more stimulus.

Drought in key Brazilian growing regions is crippling crops from corn to coffee, and vegetable oil production growth has slowed in Southeast Asia. That's boosting costs for livestock producers and risks further straining global grain stockpiles that have been depleted by soaring Chinese demand. The surge has stirred memories of 2008 and 2011, when price spikes led to food riots in more than 30 nations.

Sadly, global food inflation appears to be accelerating. We are being told that last month's jump in prices was the largest "in more than 10 years".

Here in the western world, we can just dig a little deeper into our pockets in order to pay our rising grocery bills.

But in the poorest areas of the world, higher prices can mean the difference between eating and not eating.

Things have already gotten so bad that one UN official is warning that we have "very little room for any production shock"...

"We have very little room for any production shock. We have very little room for any unexpected surge in demand in any country," Abdolreza Abbassian, senior economist at the UN's Food and Agriculture Organization, said by phone. "Any of those things could push prices up further than they are now, and then we could start getting worried."

Of course there are "production shocks" happening all over the globe at this point. The drought that is crippling agricultural production in Brazil and other South American countries has been absolutely devastating, and yesterday I wrote an entire article about how the endless megadrought in the western half of the United States is forcing some farmers to destroy their crops.

Things are especially dire in California right now. It is being reported that the reservoirs in the state are "50% lower than normal", and water levels are dropping much faster than they did during the previous drought...

Temperatures hit triple digits in much of California over the Memorial Day weekend, earlier than expected. State officials were surprised earlier this year when about 500,000 acre feet (61,674 hectare meters) of water they were expecting to flow into reservoirs never showed up. One acre-foot is enough water to supply up to two households for one year.

"In the previous drought, it took (the reservoirs) three years to get this low as they are in the second year of this drought," Lund said.

California residents may soon be facing draconian water restrictions, and farmers in the state have already been informed that they will be receiving very little or no irrigation water this year depending on where they live.

Without enough water to irrigate their crops, many California farmers won't be producing much at all this year.

And that is really bad news, because California produces more of our fruits and vegetables than anyone else does by a very wide margin.

What this means is that food prices are going to continue to rise aggressively.

Needless to say, the price of just about everything has been going up these days, and Americans have been doing more Google searches for "inflation" than ever before...

According to Google Trends, searches for the word “inflation” hit the highest level since 2004 between May 9 and May 15. That’s as far back as the data goes. Google charts trends numerically and during that time period interest in “inflation” went all the way up to 100.

In the end, it is just basic economics.

There are way too many dollars chasing way too few goods and services, and my readers knew that this sort of painful inflation was coming in advance.

As inflation rises, our standard of living goes down, and more Americans are being pushed out of the middle class with each passing day.

Since the beginning of the pandemic, poverty and homelessness have been absolutely exploding, and even those that live in wealthy areas are now discovering that this crisis is starting to show up on their doorsteps.

In fact, it appears that Hunter Biden has decided to move out of the luxury home that he was renting in Venice Beach, California because of the epidemic of homelessness that is ravaging that community...

Hunter Biden appears to have moved out of the luxury $5.4 million home he was renting in Venice Beach, California amid a crime and homelessness wave that has hit the beach-front Los Angeles city.

The son of President Joe Biden was reportedly paying $25,000 a month to rent the three-story property on the Venice canals – just a block away from the beach.

But on Monday, DailyMail.com spotted a moving truck outside the palatial home with furniture being loaded into it.

For an idea of what life is like in Venice Beach today, just check out this video. Once upon a time, Venice Beach was one of the most beautiful locations in the entire country.

Now it has been completely ruined, and the same could be said for much of the rest of the nation.

But if you think that things are bad now, just wait, because the chapters ahead are going to be even more terrifying.

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books and do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in too deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. “Such a debt, who can pay?”

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. “Such a debt, who can pay?” This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, “Such a debt, who can pay?” the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar’s signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is “Such a debt, who can pay?” If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. “Paid in full by Jesus Christ.”

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God's Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), "As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one."

(Romans 3:23 NIV), "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

(Luke 5:32 NIV), "I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance"

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), "For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), "That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.

The Sinner's Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being “Born Again.”
