

The Glory of The Lord Revealed On Us, The Rainbow Again.

McKana, September 15, 2021

Romans 8:18 (KJV)

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

Clear it is for all that we are living in a challenging, trying times. No matter what, the word of the Lord is live, His promises kept, the hopes certain, as it is written rejoice and be glad in the Lord “Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. (Psalm 32:11 kjv). When the Lord says I will never leave you, I will never forsake you, It is true, waiting with patience and leaving all to the Lord, the meaning is well established. Every ones' experience is different. As long as we are in this dark world, we will suffer from many tests and attacks from the enemy. In spite of the continuous attacks we suffer from the enemy, the Lord constantly watches. The Lord sees everything, the Lord hears everything, the Lord knows everything, there is nothing impossible for the Lord.

The message today is, never ever think that the Lord has left you or forgotten you, never. I have suffered for very long years and still I am continuously, none stop, every day and night with no skipping of a single day, attacked, suffered from sever attack, torment depression and derision. I have lost many. If you remember what was posted few years earlier, I am the one who has been drinking his life with a broken glass.

I all this, regardless of what the Lord has done for me, the gift of life, countless joyful wonderful gifts of grace, many promises, due to the severity and ceaselessness of the attacks from the enemy, I feel I am forgotten, forsaken, finished, as if no one cares of what I suffer from. Some times, I tell the Lord tom make an end to this. I have even gone further than that. No matter what any one thinks, I have told the Lord “Is it because we don't have any where to go that I go through all this?” You can see the anger and the bitterness in these words. I have said worst than that, why? The pain is unbearable, the torment continuous, the enemy is determined to destroy me and I felt hopeless. Sometimes, I questioned the worth of life itself. In all this I repeneted.

This is for us not to go the way I treaded for long, the anger and the bitterness. Patience is victory, endurance is a virtue, faith is up to death. All we endure here on earth is perfectly worth it. For every torment I suffered, the Lord has treasured immeasurable and great rewards, showed His Love, above all has shown me that the Lord cares and is consistently watching. I have seen, a number of times, the Lord sternly watching every activity down on the four corners of the earth, the in and out and the depth of it, watching everything, examining every mind heart and deeds. It is written “Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.” (Jeremiah 23:24 kjv). Further more “It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” (Hebrews 10:31) but what does the fool think? “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.” (Psalm 14:1 kjv)

I cried much and the Lord has done much. As much as I suffered, the Lord has rewarded me with countless gifts of grace much beyond any human being can think of. Get this, from the mouth of the Lord “They will never see you again!” not for one but for all the faithful, the most hated, despised and tortured by this evil dark world run by the enemy. Even if we thing otherwise, the Lord is closely watching the pain and sufferings of His little doves. Be of good cheers, we have the Lord who is for us, forever showering us with the gifts of grace much beyond we wish for and think of. This is our loving God, our Lord who paid and bought us with long suffering, blood and his own life.

This short visions about this:-

The Colorful Rainbow Lit The Room!

(Vision of September 15, 2021 4:30AM)

At 1:30AM, an hour after I slept, I suffered a sever attack from the enemy, to keep me awake for another hour. I prayed, I complained, I made my case in the strongest of all terms, telling the Lord why I have to go through this pain this long. Since I know the trends of the enemy, I told the Lord that “They will come with more sever attacks, even after short hours.” They did, another attack at 3:00AM. This time It is too much to bear. I started complaining, murmuring. Compared to what I endured, I didn't give up on the hope for I know the Lord watches but wondered why the Lord is watching me die alive?

Almost awake and struggling, I rested for 30 minutes. Then, the Lord responded.

My head is towards the South. On the Northern end, right in front of my face, I see a glorious bright, colorful, wonderful rainbow lit the room. This wonderful rainbow stretches, arching from the middle of the floor to the right upper corner of the room, continuing out. What I saw is inside my room, so wonderful. I shouted hay!, hay! Hallelujah! praise you Lord! My neighbors must have been awake by the loudness of my shout to match the wonders. Words can't describe the joy.

Last time it was the other room next to my bedroom where the brilliant light filled the whole living room of the basement. This time, the glorious colorful rainbow. God is perfectly good. Everything of God is perfect. Nourishment for the soul.

The pain and everything I have been experiencing even the past has evaporated, full of joy and happiness. This is the third time to see a rainbow. The first was in the ocean, telling us the covenant and the promise for the people of the world is near and here. The second is what has been posted weeks earlier in this website and this is the tell of promises kept and the Lord watching.

The reason for all this attack, from the Lord “The enemy sees what I have done for you!” Now, we all know the reason. The enemy is constantly spying on us as, sees the good things the Lord has done to His little children.

This message is for all who are suffering from the attack of the enemy, who might think no one cares. The loving Lord, our God cares. Keep the faith, keep the hope, keep the lights on and endure to the end even up to death! Remember, our victory is in our patience.

Rejoice, Be of Good Cheers, Victory Belongs to the Creator, Our Lord

By The Grace of The Lord, The Victory Won is Ours, Forever.
