Introduction

I have been silent for the last two months and it seems that most have not even noticed. In the last week I have had two of my readers email me and express their concern and wanted to know if I was OK. I will post my reply below and then I will expand on those thoughts and more.

Hi James,

Thanks for your concern, I have had some setbacks, I will copy a letter I sent out the other day. I do appreciate your prayers.

I have not done a newsletter in two months as of today. I always wait for the prompting of the Holy Spirit and I have sensed God telling me that most are not listening. I Believe God will soon send out His message that will wake up the sleeping church.

In the mean time I have had some setbacks, we had a hail storm six weeks ago with some hailstones the size of golf balls and it did over $20,000.00 in damage between my truck and home. Our upper house had no insurance, my truck was called a total, but it still runs fine and doesn't look that bad so I am using insurance funds from the truck to help with repairs that were not covered, we had a high deductible so I need to do as much of the repairs myself to make the insurance money stretch. Then I need the energy to make the repairs. I don't mean to share negative stuff; this is why I have been hesitant to share my doom and gloom. My health has been worse, My energy level has recently been at its worse. In last two months we had 20 inches of rain, (a record amount) and the grass and weeds are growing like crazy, so most of my energy takes care of chickens, and weed whacking.

I do appreciate your care for me. I believe God will make a move on America very soon and many prophets are saying the month of September, many prophet friends are hearing NY and other cities hit as soon as September. I don't want to share what most do not want to believe. Maybe God is holding me back so I don't miss step, but there is much prophetic chatter for the month of September and one prophet friend who had a dream 3 years ago when God gave her my name in her dream and the month of September. She called me last week and said I believe this is the September. We cannot wait another year. In the dream we were looking out a window watching war breaking out in America.

I dont know if you have gone along with my teaching on the 144,000 who will be sealed and used for revival when all hell breaks out, I see this any day or week very soon, We only need to walk in daily communion and holiness , daily confessing our sins to be a part of this great event.

Your friend in Christ, John Shorey

My intension yesterday was to send out this letter and maybe a little more, But as I worked on this yesterday I heard to Lord tell me to do more, God kept giving me more energy and thoughts to share and This short letter is now turning into a full Newsletter. I pray you will read it fully, carefully and share with others.

Before I cover some important topics. let me say a little about me. I am not a prophet; I see my gift as a prophetic teacher or a watchman on the wall. God has given me the honor of working in this capacity for about ten years now.

God has given me the honor of uncovering prophetic truths that have been hidden in the Gods Word, only be revealed in the last days. I have often ask myself, Why Me Lord? Part of the answer is because I don't think of my self to highly. I see myself as a common Christian who wants to be used by God and will not take personal credit, always thanking the Holy Spirit for revealing truths to me.

One of my favorite prophetic ministers over the years of my being a Christian has been David Wilkerson. He always said that he was not a prophet but God gave him many prophetic warnings for the church. David Wilkerson was greatly criticized by his Contemporaries and even by members of his own family. Believe me, I can relate.

Why was David Wilkerson criticized so much? Because his prophetic words did not come to pass in a timely manner. Why should this bother people as much as it does? We are still waiting for the fulfillment of many prophecies given by Ezekiel, Isaiah, Joel, John the Revelator and even Jesus and many other Old and New Testament prophets.

Even though David Wilkerson was not a prophet, why did he preach with such an urgency that it made people think that these things were going to happen at any time? Why did the preaching of Jesus to His disciples cause the disciples of Jesus to think Jesus was coming back in their life time?

The answer is simple, God gives a needed urgency to the preachers of every generation because many will die in their sins unless they are prompted to repent and prepare to meet God. All who have died for the last 2000 years did not need to prepare for the Return of Jesus, NO! they had to prepare for the day they would take their last breath and meet God. This meeting that every man has a set date to happen will either be the day they hear Jesus say, "Well Done thy Good and Faithful Servant, welcome into my kingdom". Of they will hear, "I don't know you, depart from me you workers of Iniquity".

God called me to this prophetic ministry through a personal word of prophecy by a visiting preacher from Africa to the church my wife and I were Children's pastor at in Puyallup Washington. The things God told me through him were spot on accurate, I knew this preacher was being used by God to get my attention. One of the things that was hard to believe was when He told me that, "The greatest years of my ministry were ahead of me." This has been so true. Why am I sharing this?

I am not a prophet so I cannot not set dates, even now I don't know the day of the Lords return. Part of the Ministry God called me to was to preach with Urgency. Like David Wilkerson I believe it is a message with urgency that causes people to repent. I have taught and believed that the Lords return and the beginning of the Great Tribulation should have already happened. Because I have been wrong in my analysis, does this make me a false teacher? No! What I am teaching is the truth, I only teach what I can back up with the Word of God, I just don't know the exact time for these events to unfold.

Jesus in Matthew 24, warned His disciples to watch out for false prophets and teachers in the last days. He then went on to give them the signs and events to watch for that would let them know the time of His coming. I have recently concluded that if we would have been giving equal importance to the signs and events back in 2015 it should have been recognized that 2015 was not the right time. Now in 2021 we are seeing all the signs pushing at the starting gate waiting for the gun to go off to begin the Days of Sorrows or the Great Tribulation.

Go down through the list that Jesus gave in Matthew 24 and go through the parallel list John gave us in the Book of Revelation and you will see everything is ready up to the opening of the 6th seal. The 6th seal starts off with a great earthquake and I see a series of Mega quakes as the gun going off that will open the 6th seal and start to Great Tribulation.

Read the opening of the 6th seal in Chapter 6 of the Book of Revelation and what does John warn us will happen? Then read the Matthew 24 account along with the account from Luke and you will see a picture of what I believe will be happening sooner than we want to believe.

After studying the events of the 6th seal what can we expect? To start we will see mega earthquakes. We will see meteors causing fires and meteors causing tidal waves. From my studies I believe the destruction of Mystery Babylon will happen at the opening of the 6th seal. I have no doubt that Mystery Babylon is America and I am overwhelmed at how many prophetic warnings are pointing to the destruction of America as soon as this month.

This next statement is very important for us to understand. If America is not destroyed in the next 30 days, does this mean we are listening to false prophets and teachers? I have learned that God will often give a timely warning and we are to pray to see if in God's mercy he will delay Judgement. This happened when Jonah told Nineveh that God would destroy their city in 40 days unless they repented from the top leaders down to the people. They did repent and God delayed His judgment for many years.

In the case of America, during the years of Gods warnings of coming judgment, has Americas leaders and people repented? No! Things in America have become so much worse that for God to apologize to Sodom and Gomorrah would be an understatement. I have recently been hearing God speak through His prophets that He has shown mercy to America and its people but His mercy has not worked. The sleeping church will need to be severely shaken in order to wake them up and bring true repentance to the sleeping church.

Below I will repost some comments I made on a Facebook prophecy blog that I am a part of. Then I will go into greater detail covering things that I see are imminently propelling the world into the Great Tribulation.

There seems to be a convergence of prophetic warnings of the destruction of Mystery Babylon this month. If this is true and Revelation 17 talks about an angel throwing a millstone into the sea to destroy mystery Babylon would this be a warning it could happen in this year's September.? A prophet friend was shown war breaking out in America in the month of September 4 years ago, she recently called me because my name was given to her in this dream and she told me that she has asked God each September if this would be the year. She told me a few weeks ago that she does not believe with current events that judgment on America can be delayed for another year.

When I found the David Wilkerson book in my pocket on the night of the first blood moon, I was told God had a revelation for me that night and when I found this book in my coat pocket that night, I figured it must contain the revelation God wanted to give me. the books dog eared page had three warning signs, the third warning was, "When America is weak, our enemies will invade us."

If you take the weak and embarrassing leadership in Washington and add the mega west coast quakes and the meteors and tidal waves of the 6th seal, America could never be more ripe for invasion. It is so hard to imagine without setting a date that soon America will never be the same, soon, the American Dream will become a nightmare.

As I attempt to wrap up my thoughts and warnings in this newsletter I will ask and try to answer the question, "Where are we at today, prophetically on God's calendar?"

There are two camps of prophetic teaching. Both are convinced that they are right. Sincere and well-meaning Christians belong to both camps.

1. One camp believe that America will see great days ahead. We will remain the greatest country in the world and we have at least ten or more likely another whole generation before the Lord returns. This group believes former President Trump is coming back and we will see our kids and grandkids grow up and get married and have more kids.
2. The second group or prophetic voices are telling us with extreme urgency that time is up. Judgment is knocking at the door and this is the group who have grown tired of listening to teachers like me.

If you are a follower of the first group above then you will not want to continue reading this newsletter. You will not want to hear what the prophets I am listening have to say. You will continue to listen to the pillow prophets who will tell you what you want to hear. Good stuff, what does the Bible say? Peace and Safety then sudden destruction will fall.

OK, get mad at me and unfriend me, unsubscribe yourself from my newsletters and go back to sleep. The lukewarm warm church reminds me of a TV show that I will never watch. It is called the "Walking Dead" This is the lukewarm church and I am praying it is not too late for the luke-warm church to come back to life. The Bible teaches that most will not wake up in time.

So, what is happening in the news today that convinces me that we have run out of time and we cannot postpone the beginning of the Great Tribulation for another year?

The seals and the Book of Revelation are warning us and these things are coming to pass as I write this letter of warning. What are the signs? War, famine, pestilence, death by war, famine, starvation, plagues, (Viruses and bio weapons) earthquakes, meteors, tidal waves and Americas destruction, (Mystery Babylon).

I will make a list of some of what I am seeing in the news currently, and most is not being covered by the mainstream media.

1. America is making enemies around the world. Russia and China are preparing for war and they are not our friends. Lesser countries like N. Korea and Iran are developing nuclear weapons for the sole purpose of destroying America.
2. Our President is making and looking at enforcing Covid mandates across America. Other Countries are already forcing people to take a vaccine that is killing people.
3. The 80 million Americans who refuse to take to vaccine are being labeled enemies of the United States, domestic Terrorists.
4. Two days ago, I saw a story that Biden is getting ready to use all federal highways with roadblocks to force the vaccine or arrest and detain those who refuse to take the Jab.

5. Crops are failing around the world and in some countries, they are requiring you have a Covid passport before you can work or buy food and other needed resources.
6. Most government workers in America only have a few weeks to take the vaccine or they will lose their Job.
7. It has been announced that Americas Veterans only have until the end of October to get the shot or they will lose all medical benefits.
8. Our economy is on the brink of collapse. The Feds are warning that if the Government does not raise the debt ceiling by a few trillion dollars by the end of October we will enter a severe recession or total collapse.
9. If we do approve the 3.4 trillion latest stimulus packages, we will see runaway inflation and still a collapse of the dollar, we lose either way.
10. Lastly, right now a big unreported news story is what is rumbling in the Canary Islands. It is having harmonic tremors that are causing great concern. If this volcanic Island off the coast of Africa blows it is predicted that a huge portion of this island will slide into the Atlantic Ocean and the resulting tidal wave will kill millions along the coast of Canada, the USA and South America.

I have a news article on this below, there are so called experts on both sides of the isle saying it won't happen or that it is about to happen. Who do you believe? I remember before Mount Saint Helens blew. They were saying similar stuff. They finally let family's and workers return to the danger zone and it went off, many died and the rest is history.

Once you have finished reading this newsletter you will have a lot to think about and pray about. My question to you is, what will you do about it?

I believe Jesus is coming very very soon, the first gathering will be what are called in Revelation 14, the 144,000 or the first fruits of the resurrection. I have taught a lot on this in the last couple of years and most do not want to believe this study that is fully backed by the Bible in my recent studies.

Read Revelation chapter 7, The four angels of destruction who are about to unleash the destruction of the 6th seal are stopped by an angel of authority who tells them, "Do not harm the earth, (earthquakes), the sea, (tidal waves) or the trees,

(vegetation from burning) until we have sealed the servants of our God, (the 144,000)

What does it take to be a part of this first fruits group? It is required that you are walking in holiness. It is so clearly explained in scripture, Jesus is coming for a bride that is without spot or wrinkle.

The Bible says that without holiness you cannot see God. Holiness is unattainable in our own strength, it is not something we attain, it is something we put on, we put on the Breastplate of Righteousness. The Righteousness of Christ. We daily commune with God and ask Jesus to wash our robes with His blood that was shed to purchase our salvation.

If you want to be a part of this First Fruits group you must be totally sold out to God on a daily basis. Is this so hard to understand?

Most do not want to walk in holiness, they would rather enjoy the pleasures of this life. The Bible says this is not our home, we are pilgrims passing through and we are supposed to be serving God every step of the way.

So, what will happen when the 144,000 servants of God are taken, what will happen to the luke-warm church? They will have to go through the great trials of the Great Tribulation and they will either learn to walk in holiness or they will fail the test and God to hell.

Revelation 3:10, “Because you have kept My command to persevere, I will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.”

Don’t get me wrong, our righteousness is as filthy rages. It is our daily efforts to please God and our daily confession of our sins that make us holy in Gods eyes. Going to church once or twice a week and reading you Bible once in a while will not get you to Heaven.

A lot of what I have been sharing above is backed up with News stories I have posted in the, “What is in the News”, section of this newsletter. Please take the time to read these stories and do some of your own research,

Financial update

My Ministry is faith based. I am trusting God to meet my every need. During these last two months of silence, giving has dropped off, I want to give a special thanks to those who have continued to support me during this time of silence. Thank you so much.

My financial needs go beyond just personal living expenses. God has instructed me to build a place of safety for the time of the Great Tribulation. This has been a huge expense, getting ready to help over 100 people as God has told me. I have recently had to borrow from other accounts to finish getting things that are needed to help people. If God prompts you to help me in this project, I really appreciate your help in helping me catch up during these final hours.

I appreciate all who are able to give to the support of my ministry. I am seldom able to reach out and thank my supporters but I could not make it without you and I really do appreciate all of you.

At the end of this newsletter, I share how you can give to this ministry

Words from the Prophets

Your Time Is At Hand And Yet You Think You Shall Escape

Received on 9/16/21 After 6 AM, The Messenger

Your time is at hand and yet you still think you shall escape

My Son , yet again take these last second Words for all to understand and receive, for those whose ears and hearts are open. I am Your Father, Your God , I am highly displeased and sorely vexed with most, again My Mouth opens and again this Chosen Messenger writes. Children Your time has come it is here now and many SHALL PERISH, SHALL PERISH, let Me state this from My Mouth , Your Creator's Mouth , SHALL PERISH. Children what will you say to MY SON THE ANOINTED ONE, on that day , what will you say when Jesus The Christ says depart from Me I never knew you. What will be Your answer? the scriptures are clear on this children, you either obey your father's Holy Voice , Through My Holy Spirit and Do My Will, Your Father's Will, Your Creator's Will or get turned away by My SON Jesus The Christ . Most truly are deceived and do not understand this.

In My Words it says you must become as one of these, being a little child to gain entrance to My Kingdom and why is that. Children if you do not clean Yourselfs and become pure in heart and have all the right reasons and motives towards My Will you shall never and I will say this again and again and again you shall never enter My Kingdom without Purity , without Holiness . Why do I , Your Father, Your Creator keep, I keep saying obey My Voice , My Commands why Children why ? Is it because I want to keep repeating Myself or is it because it is the most important thing you can do after you accept My Son , Jesus The Christ on The Cross and what He did there. Children no other name on earth or anywhere shall save you but My Son's Name Jesus The Christ. .

It is utmost imperative that you obey My Voice , My Commands , you must, to do My Will,Your Father's , Your Creator's Will, My Will , for if you do not do My Will than who or what will, are you doing? . If you are not doing My Will then you do not belong to Me and if you do not belong to Me then you belong to this world, and if you belong to this world you are a child of the world and shall stay chained to it. That is why Hebrews 12 verse 25 is written in My Words, None shall escape none , escape what you ask? This world, you are chained to it , by not obeying My Voice, My Commands and if you do not obey My Voice, My Commands you are in disobedience, and than I, Your Father has to chaste you . I love you, I love all but the first and most important thing that you can do now is obey Me, My voice .

Children you must, must obey My Voice,MUST it is Your only way off the planet, only, without dying in the flesh for My SON, the only way . Children without obeying My Voice, My SON will turn you away on that day of Your death, and you shall wait in darkness for judgement. Children without following My Voice to do My Will you are a worker of inequality doing Your will , the worlds will , not mine, and Jesus The Christ will and shall have you depart from him . Obey My Voice now, or you shall suffer what shall come upon you . While there is in actuality no time left, come sit with Me and listen for that inner, still, small Voice .

Children open Your bibles to First Book of Kings chapter 19 and read, where is My inner , Still ,Small Voice , where is it? . Through all of what is going on around you, My servant learned through it all , it is right here inside of you. I implore you, I plead with you, to just obey Me, Your Father to do My Will. Children time is no more, My Mercy for these times are and is almost closed, soon My Words shall come to pass all of them . Will you be one of the ones waiting to be judged,, stuck in the dark for many years, or will you be with Me and My SON here with US in the Heavenly . You Children need to think and fast , be one of the few who obey My Voice, it will be the greatest decision in Your fleeting short lives . I love you Children but time is no more, soon it all ends. Signed Your Father, Your Creator.

Heb 12:25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

Heb 12:14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Tribulation is coming to wake up those who are asleep

SEPTEMBER 14, 2021

TERI HENESSEY, My daughter write My words,

We are at the starting point of the tribulation. Will My Bride be ready? Will My Bride, My Remnant be prepared for what comes? Evil abounds in this hour. A darkness that the world must see, must feel, to awaken. Ready yourselves, My people, My beloved flock, for the hour is upon this world. Tribulation is coming to wake up those who are asleep. My bride, My Remnant will bring home a harvest like no other in human history. My Remnant, My Soldiers, your hour is upon you. Seek Me with everything you are, as you will need to be completely clean before Me to receive your anointing, your gifts. This is your time to shine, beloved flock. Time to do miracles, signs and wonders that will turn even the blackest hearts to mush. This time is a gift from your Father. A necessary provision to wake up those who have departed and grown lukewarm. These will awaken with a new fire within and will have eyes and ears to see and hear of My great love and desire for them to be delivered, healed, and saved from the enemies kingdom, which is this dark world. You are almost there beloved flock, seek Me now to be strengthened, to be resilient and stand in righteousness, for that hour is now upon you. Ready your hearts, minds and spirits, for it comes.

Love,
ABBA Father

Be ready for My Son comes like a thief

Received 8/16/21 near 4:30 PM, The Messenger

My Son write down these words on this day to those who are watching. My Children are you truly watching or will My SON come upon you like a thief who broke into the house. My Children, do you not understand that all is somewhat calm in Mystery Babylon, that most are stuck in this world, that most have no clue that Your nation America has been on a slowly downward fall. I , The Father Your Creator allowed Trump to fall and replaced him with an even more evil king . Many truly do not realize or know the true depths of how America's government has sunk. As this Messenger is writing this , final preparations are being made by Your own government to allow , yes My Children, allow Russia and China to be put in strategic locations to quickly strike Mystery Babylon, USA. As I Your Father, Your God has said thru this Messenger, Mystery Babylon destruction will now commence and those spiritually awake know it , My Worthy are ready to take flight to go do the marvelous, wonderful things set before them. My Worthy obey My Voice and strive for My Holiness, My Wheat , well you still need much purification and shortly you will be plunged in My Fires Of Holy Purification.

My Children everything is set , it has already been put in motion for the attack and short downfall of America, no more . Many, many will perish and I as Your God have said this on countless times and have waited for many, to awake up but that never happened, so now the point has come for all to start. When all starts it will not end, nor stop, most will cry out for Mercy and to no avail, will not receive any will not . Until you learn to truly trust in Your God and truly with Your mouth and heart to call upon My Sons name Jesus the Christ, The Anointed One you will finally know what My Heritage, My Small Ones, when they were being aborted and murdered what it felt like. You will know what deaf ears feel like when I called to you and got no response, no reply back , My Children you have no clue how I as Your God have felt only some of My chosen do, a few weeks ago I made this Messenger sick he rarely ever gets sick but I sent My spirit on him in a heavy dose and he knew it. I made him sick for few days with a bad stomach virus and made him feel just a portion of how the whole has made Me sick. My Children I am Your Creator, Your God I am Merciful, Holy, Just , Righteous and if you think what you do has no effect on Your God on Me guess again, where do you think you get all Your emotions from, Me Your Creator and I feel all everything that you do good and bad . My Children I have grown tired and impatient from all that has become and now await to start it all .

America as I have said countless times , so many so , that the number cannot be numbered and I have been patient , ongoing suffering, well no more , no more will I . I have constantly said get Your house in order and most laugh , most brush away , well no more, most are lost they are. Russia and China will not will not stop till Your country is destroyed, burnt to cinders ,to the ground and many have saw this thru visions and dreams . It is time for all of those visions and dreams to pass, it is time. Get ready My Children to be rocked and shocked , many will starve, many will have no sleep and many taken prisoner, many will be tortured and many raped . America you would not, would not repent, you would not recognize Me as Your God, now I will not repent of the evil that will be sent forth for Disobedience to My Voice . Again My ones, My Children Deuteronomy chapter 28 there is a list of the numerous things that shall happen to a nation and. Person for Disobedience to Me Your God Your Father . Playtime is over. My Army, My worthy ones prepare to move out ,prepare to bring My Wheat into My Barn . I love all of you but all are not Holy nor Pure enough to stand in front of The Son of Man and not get turned away. Strive for holiness and obedience to My Voice it is Your last hope besides calling out My Sons name Jesus The Christ to be saved.

End of Message.

Forced Vaccines In America

August 15, 2021
the-masters-voice.com

“At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lampstand went out to meet the bridegroom, five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

“At midnight the cry rang out: ‘Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

“Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

“‘No,’ they replied, ‘there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

“But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

“Later the others also came. ‘Lord, Lord,’ they said, ‘open the door for us!’ “But he replied, ‘Truly I tell you, I don’t know you.’

“Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour. – (Matthew 25:1-13)

Note: It is the believer’s responsibility to seek the Lord concerning prophecy. Scripture says it is OUR RESPONSIBILITY to put oil in our lamps and be waiting to receive our bridegroom at whatever hour He chooses to return-morning, afternoon or midnight. Wise virgins are those who, when the word comes, receive it with wisdom and immediately turn to GOD in prayer and set-apart time with their Bible, asking His Spirit to break it down into OIL for them to put in their lamps. True prophecy stems straight from the written scripture, therefore when we read it our first responsibility is to turn to God, not anyone else, to go on our knees and seek HIM to teach us by His Spirit and help us understand, prepare for and to bear all that we are learning about the times we are in. PROPHECY COMES TO TURN GOD’S PEOPLE BACK TO GOD AND MAKE THEM SEEK HIM, not anyone else. Thank you.

On Aug. 12 I had an uncomfortable dream about vaccinations in the United States. I dreamt that coronavirus vaccine mandate laws were passed. It was no longer ‘the individual’s choice’ to get the vaccine or not. Nor was it about ‘strong recommendations’ from the CDC which employers and public institutions are following now- i.e. making workers get vaccinated even though there is no law requiring it at the moment.

It wasn’t about ‘full FDA approval’ either- which the Lord has said in another prophecy will be what triggers mandates across the U.S. God showed me past all that. I saw the time where being vaccinated was a LAW; you had to have this vaccine unless you were considered an actual law-breaker worthy of criminal treatment and penalties. In the dream the act of not having taken the vaccine was the subject of extreme censure (i.e. very harsh criticism, rejection and even public hatred); it was a very heated issue and had also become a criminal offense.

So many people rushed to take the vaccine when this news was announced, it was called vaccine mandate laws. Announcements were made that if you don't take it you're in violation of code this, section this of U.S. law. It was codified, it was legitimate, it was the law. Despite this a large number of people still refused to take it so they were given the vaccine by force. In the dream whether it was people going to get it by free will or by force or by government pressure, an enormous number took the vaccine. Whenever a person got it I saw the needle go in and felt like I was poked; I was vaccinated so many times in this dream that I got irritated and decided to leave the dream.

Babies were vaccinated as newborns, as soon as a baby was born that baby was seen as 'eligible' for the covid vaccine. Also elderly people, a huge number of teens and young people, little children, professionals, temps, day workers, even immigrant workers who only came across the border for a single season hoping to pick fruit or do short term work to make money and go back with their earnings- it didn't matter. If your two feet were standing on U.S. soil (so said the mandate laws) you had to take the vaccine.

They were announcing it night and day like some kind of repeating nightmare on every available platform, warning that you absolutely had to take it to be "compliant". I woke up briefly from this dream and while I was thinking about what I'd seen (especially newborn vaccination) the Lord said: "Time is short for America. Those vaccine mandates are coming and when they do a terrible struggle will arise all over the world, a great push-back, a great cry for help and salvation, but he causes all."

I went back to sleep and ended up right where I'd left the dream. Forced vaccinations happened in America. ALL OVER AMERICA. Contrary to what many think or say now, "Oh I'll die first! I'd rather die for Christ!" there was nothing like that. Not that I saw. What happened is just what God said when I woke up, (because God knows people better than they know themselves)- there was great anger, great pushback and GREAT WEEPING EVERYWHERE.

That kind of hopeless, despairing weeping where someone has done something to you that tears at the fabric of who you are- like when men with strong religious beliefs are forced to cut their hair for work or the army, or made to take off their turban, the way those men sob like little children because you've separated them from the core of who they are- that is how people cried.

I saw people crying as if their hearts would break- men, women everyone. I'm even referring to deeply patriotic people who are not always Christians, I'm speaking also of believers, I'm speaking of anyone who for their own reasons said they will not take this vaccine but had it forced on them.

The crying was piteous and the sound of it filled America, also there was a lot of anger. But I didn't see anybody dying or committing suicide because human nature is just not engineered to cut itself off unless there is a severe mental imbalance that makes a soul go against the will and desire to live that God has implanted in us. God made us with a will to live and that's just how it is. Millions were given the vaccine by force and they lived. It was grievous bodily harm yes, it was total disrespect for human rights yes, it was horrible overstep by the government of America yes, but IT WAS DONE.

People wept and lamented but it was the law. The dream showed me the outcome of having an "It could never happen here" mentality; in broad daylight in America I saw everything turn sideways and God showed me how it happened here.

As the dream ended I saw a man in the park wheeling his bike. It was one of those thin bicycles that only serious cyclists buy, the one with the peaked seat and curvy Tour De France handles. He had long white hair partly in a bun but he can't have been over 30, he was just one of those people that grey early because his face was fresh as an apple and didn't match his hair at all. He was walking along a sunny path in a park when out of nowhere four police officers snuck up behind him, pounced on him and tackled him to the ground. The attack was so hard that the push caused his bicycle to roll away from him and fall safely on the grass, while the young man himself went thudding to the ground and landed hard on his shoulder.

Before they attacked him I saw one of the officers pull out something like a shopping register 'gun', the scanner they point at supermarket items to scan them. He pointed it at the man's back and when it returned a positive ID I saw them nod to one another to confirm he's the one they wanted. The biggest officer ran up behind the man and shoved him so hard that he went flying. As he angrily tried to sit up they were on him; it was three men and one woman who stood aside from the tussle writing something on a piece of paper. Two big officers held him down as he squirmed and screamed for help while the third took out a syringe and injected him in the calf. The man's cargo pants offered no covering from the needle, his legs were easily accessible. He fought so much it was hard to give him that injection safely but eventually they pinned him and gave him the vaccine. As he was injected I found myself thinking-

There we go. There we go- see? It's all done now. What was all the fuss about? IT'S DONE. You're all set, you're one of us now, you can't cause any harm to anyone and you're no longer a menace to society. You're no longer a danger to yourself. See, no problem. It's no big deal.

That's when I realised I was watching the injection process through the eyes of the police officer who was holding the man's feet. I saw the encounter from his perspective, he thought they'd fixed a problem and even done the man a favour by injecting him.

At the same time the Lord let me feel the man's emotions- he was filled with fury over the abuse of his human rights, at being attacked and held down like an animal. He was in a lot of pain, screaming in real life and screaming in his spirit with anger. I saw the universe in this man's mind: the emptiness of space, swirling galaxies and constellations of stars. I even saw the strange shapes and designs of eastern religions and New Age but I could feel he was not a committed follower of any of those things. He was just full of concepts, adrift in a mix of 'beliefs' that informed his worldview. The Lord showed me he was not a Christian, he did not believe in God or Jesus but in 'forever nothingness' if I can put it that way, oneness-with-the-universe or something where we're all part of one big cosmic mystery.

However he also greatly believed in his rights as an American- he had strong views on civil liberties and his rights as a free member of U.S. society. Yet whether he was Christian or not, free or not I saw the police jump on a citizen of the U.S.A., vaccinate him against his will and he was not able to stop it. I felt the views of the vaccinated policeman and the forcibly vaccinated man at the same time, showing how differently they saw the encounter.

The four officers left as abruptly as they came; when the vaccine was given they left the man on the ground (without caring how badly they'd injured him, after all he was a criminal breaking the law). The four officers walked away talking while one of them entered some information on an electronic pad. This was the same scanner they used to identify the man, it had a keypad and they wrote notes on it. One thing was sure, they already knew he was a vaccine offender, once they identified him with the gadget they attacked him without reading him his rights. He was not arrested or taken to the station, he did not get a chance to see a lawyer or have his one phone call. Instead they sent him flying to the ground and forcibly gave him the covid 19 vaccine. Then I woke up.

The Lord has said in multiple prophecies on this blog:

This vaccine will be forced on the whole world;

There will be a terrible struggle against it but even those who struggle will not prevail against the 'force' (whether human or spiritual) that will push this thing on humanity;

The U.S. Bill of Rights and Constitution will be overlooked, overstepped, shredded and trampled on as citizens' rights are eroded by emergency measures, overnight 'laws' and "mandates" that replace the regular system of government;

AMERICA WILL OPERATE BY STATE CONTROL AND NAZI FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

What is in the News?

UPDATED 2:55 PM (Thursday) EDT – Nuclear Power Plant vs Tsunamis - Strong Harmonic Tremor - 10 cm Deformation – Earthquake Swarm - La Palma - If Blows, Wipes Out US East Coast via Tsunami "Yellow Alert" Declared

NATION HAL TURNER 13 SEPTEMBER 2021

A very significant earthquake swarm is taking place on an island off the west coast of Africa. This particular situation has been feared for decades because it could literally wipe out the ENTIRE U.S. East Coast.

The island of La Palma is part of the Canary Islands off the northwest coast of Africa. The scalable Google Map below shows its location: The island was formed by eruptions from the Cumbre Vieja volcano.

La Palma earned the nickname “the beautiful island” — white sand beaches highlighted by black volcanic soil. An endless night sky filled with stars as far as the eye can see. But beauty here is only skin deep.

Nestled on the western side of La Palma sits the Cumbre Vieja volcano, like a pot of water waiting to boil over. Its last big eruption was more than 50 years ago, but everyone knows it’s only a matter of time before it unleashes the beast inside.

Over decades, the entire southwest third of the island has become eroded and unstable from volcanic eruptions; with scientists fearing it could break loose and slide into the Atlantic Ocean. If that took place, the slide would be about 500 cubic KILOMOTERS of dirt and rock, plopping into the ocean, which would trigger a Tsunami wave for the entire Atlantic Ocean.

It starts with tremors - exactly like what we're seeing right now. Glasses rattle on kitchen tables while picture frames skew left and right. Tourists to La Palma brush it off, calling the jelly feeling “sea legs” — they are, after all, on an island.

But the locals know better and they hold their breath. When it does happen, the ash and lava spill out of the volcano’s mouth like a giant sigh. No one could have predicted what happens next.

The western side of the volcano cracks and splits; the steam builds up inside and pushes against the volcano’s walls. The pressure is too much; the entire western flank breaks off, the Atlantic Ocean eagerly swallowing every rock, stone and pebble as they freefall into its deep blue depths. The earth rumbles and the water begins to slosh around as its calm ebb and flow turns into frenzied splashing and crashing.

The waves grow. And they grow and they grow. To the naked eye, it looks like the heavens unleashed a curtain made of water — somehow the volcano’s landslide has produced a tsunami that reaches the sky.

All 3,000 feet of water roars as it barrels away from La Palma’s coast toward the United States. As the most western island of the Canary Islands, La Palma sits eight hours away from the eastern U.S. shore by plane. It’s the one piece of good news: Residents have a window of time to evacuate.

But chaos breeds chaos, and soon the highways are clogged with cars, frightened families from Boston to Miami trying to flee inland. A final silver lining: The wave decreases as it sojourns across the Atlantic from a staggering 3,000 to a mere 160 feet.

As that wave travels from Africa to the west, it would move about as fast as a jet airliner, about 500 MPH. About eight hours later, that wave would reach the North American coast line and begin to pile up on top of itself, creating upwards of a ONE HUNDRED TWENTY FOOT TALL wall of water, smashing into the ENTIRE east coast.

All the major cities would be wiped out. Boston, New York, Baltimore, Washington, DC, Norfolk, VA, Charleston, SC, Jacksonville, FL, Miami, would all be inundated by a giant wall of water. Most buildings within ten miles of the coast would be physically knocked down by the wave. Almost nothing would survive.

Now, one might think 'We'll have 8 hours warning.' Do you have any idea at all how long it would take to completely evacuate cities like Boston, New York or Miami? And Miami is of particular concern because there may not be anywhere to go for ANYONE IN FLORIDA.

Most of Florida is only about four feet above sea level. The Tsunami 30 Meter (100 feet tall) wave from Las Palma might very well wash over the ENTIRE LANDMASS of the state. Elevation of Capitol Hill, Washington, DC, USA 79 ft.

In fact, scientists say that the area impacted by any such Tsunami contains twenty-nine percent (29%) of the US population and they estimate 65 Million DEAD.

There are plenty documentaries on tubes about this.

-Worse case says up to 250 miles inland using rivers.

-100' high

-Travel a few hundred miles per hour

-Seven-Eight hours to reach NYC

Long island would go underwater for a time, So would Florida

A few dozen nuclear reactors would be Fukushima, or worse

Hudson River would flood all the way to Albany
Could be one large one or several smaller ones.

or,...we could see a little ripple at the docks. Just keep your tank filled w gas.
Download some tsunami alert app or something.

Oh then there is this -

"REV 8:8 - And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;"

Translation: "A volcano erupted then busted up with a large portion falling into the sea killing 1/3 of all coastal inhabitants of that sea."
no, doesn't say which sea

Analysis: La Palma's mega-tsunami is a disaster, no doubt. And — scarily enough — it's not impossible.

In 1949, the Cumbre Vieja volcano erupted along the coast of La Palma and caused an earthquake that created a mile-long fissure on its east side.

The force of the fissure then caused the volcano's west side to slip six feet into the Atlantic Ocean. It has since remained in this position, its estimated 1.5 trillion metric tons waiting like a ticking time bomb.

Researcher and scientist Steven Ward, now a research geophysicist at the Institute of Geophysics and Planetary Physics, UC Santa Cruz, and Simon Day, a senior research associate at the Institute for Risk & Disaster Reduction, University College London, first quantified the features of the La Palma mega-tsunami. Their video model appears below.

Readers must watch this earthquake swarm very diligently. At the first sign of a major eruption, or at first hint of a landslide/collapse due to the earthquakes, get away from the US East Coast by at least 50 miles inland.

Remember, it will only take about 8 hours for the Tsunami to reach the USA once it is generated by a landslide. Anyone in its way, will likely not survive.

This Is Definitely Going To Be “Not A Normal September” For The Rapidly Imploding U.S. Economy

September 2, 2021 by Michael Snyder

The “good times” were supposed to be rolling by now, but instead the wheels are starting to come off, and the economic outlook for the rest of the year is not good at all. Just yesterday, I warned my readers that things were about to get worse, and it only took exactly a single day for that to actually happen. As you will see below, major factory shutdowns were just announced, and that is going to make shortages even worse. Fear of COVID is restricting production all over the globe, and meanwhile national governments and central banks have been absolutely flooding their systems with fresh cash. As a result, we now have way too much money chasing way too few goods and services, and anyone that has taken ECON 101 will tell you that will inevitably result in higher prices and shortages.

As I discussed yesterday, if there is something that you need to buy, run out and get it now because the shortages are only going to get worse in the coming months.

On Thursday, General Motors shocked the entire nation when it announced that it is going to be closing down almost all of its manufacturing facilities due to our ongoing shortage of computer chips...

General Motors will idle nearly all its assembly plants in North America starting Monday as the COVID-19 pandemic affects production of semiconductor chips overseas.

GM said its Arlington Assembly in Texas, where it makes its highly profitable full-size SUVs, will run regular production next week, along with Flint Assembly in Michigan, where it makes its heavy-duty pickups, Bowling Green Assembly in Kentucky, where it makes its Corvette, and a portion of Lansing Grand River Assembly in Michigan, where it will make some Chevrolet Camaro and Cadillac Blackwing cars.

I knew that things were bad, but I didn't know that they had gotten this bad.

Ford also announced that it will be slashing production due to a lack of chips... Ford Motor is once again cutting production of its F-150 pickup truck and other highly profitable vehicles due to the ongoing global shortage of semiconductor chips.

The automaker informed employees Wednesday of the cuts, which also impact production of its larger Super Duty pickups and Expedition SUV.

This was supposed to be a time when vehicle sales were soaring to all-time highs, but thanks to a lack of chips the number of new Ford vehicles that were sold last month was down by a whopping 33 percent compared to a year ago...

U.S. sales of Ford Motor's new vehicles last month declined by 33.1% from a year earlier due to an ongoing global shortage of semiconductor chips that's wreaking havoc on the automotive industry, the company said Thursday.

The Detroit automaker's sales capped off a dismal month of U.S. auto sales in August, which plummeted to an adjusted selling rate of 13.09 million vehicles. That's the worst pace since June 2020 and down from this year's peak of 18.5 million in April, according to auto data firm Motor Intelligence.

Demand is not the problem.

There is simply not enough Ford vehicles to go around right now, and this has pushed dealer inventories to frighteningly low levels...

Dealers only have about 942,000 vehicles in inventory for retail sale, compared with roughly 3 million before the coronavirus pandemic two years ago, according to Thomas King, president of the data and analytics division at J.D. Power.

Of course it isn't just the auto industry that is dealing with these sorts of problems.

Supply chains all over the globe are in a state of complete and utter chaos, and it just seems to keep getting worse with each passing day. I really like how Wolf Richter has described the current state of affairs...

Yesterday, just outside the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach, a record 44 container ships were anchored, waiting. And there are hundreds of these ships hung up somewhere globally, trying to get into a port, or they're being rerouted to different ports. And all this takes time.

And containers are stuck in ports because railroads are backlogged, trucking companies are troubled by driver shortages, and containers are hung up in railyards and clog them up to where some railroads have stopped routing trains to those particular railyards until the backlog is cleared, thereby further contributing to the pileup of containers at ports.

And each extra day that a loaded container doesn't get to its destination is a day that it cannot be unloaded and returned to the flow of containers, and cannot be sent to a manufacturer that has goods ready to ship but cannot ship them because they cannot get empty containers.

In my last article, I discussed the fact that experts are already warning that Christmas has been ruined because of all the mayhem.

And now fear of Delta and other variants threatens to gum up the works even more. Most Americans had assumed that we would be "returning to normal" by now, but instead we seem to be going in reverse in a lot of ways...

The delta variant of the coronavirus is preventing a return to normal and pumping the brakes on the economic recovery. Major corporations such as Apple, Facebook and Ford have pushed back their return-to-office dates from September to January. Schools are reinstating mask mandates and, in some cases, dealing with virus outbreaks, sending students home to quarantine. Restaurants and retailers are scaling back hours, as workers remain hesitant to return to lower-paying service jobs in which they are also more exposed to the virus. Meanwhile, brands including Nike and Gap are warning that factories in Vietnam and elsewhere aren't operating at full capacity and that some items may not be available as the coronavirus surges around the world.

Authorities thought that they would be able to have the pandemic under control by now, but they have dramatically failed.

As long as these variants are sweeping across the globe like wildfire, there definitely will not be a return to “normal” any time soon.

The machinery of our economy is being shaken at a very basic level, and many believe that this is just the beginning.

For many years there have been warning signs, but our leaders have somehow been able to hold the U.S. economy together.

But now inflation is out of control, shortages are becoming exceedingly painful and confidence in our national leaders has plummeted to extremely low levels.

We haven't even reached the official end of summer yet, and things are already starting to become very, very interesting.

The Stage Is Being Set for A War Between Israel And Iran To Potentially Begin Before The End Of 2021

August 5, 2021 by Michael Snyder

The clock has been ticking for a long time, and now Israel is telling us that Iran is “only around 10 weeks away from acquiring weapons-grade materials necessary for a nuclear weapon”. The Israelis have always been very clear about the fact that they will never, ever allow the Iranians to get to that point, and so that would appear to leave only 10 weeks remaining to avert a major war in the Middle East. And let us certainly hope that war can be averted, because a major war in the Middle East could easily spark a full-blown global war. U.S. relations with both Russia and China continue to deteriorate very rapidly, and the Biden administration is being very aggressive with both of them.

Most Americans don't pay much attention to foreign policy these days, and that is because they don't think that it will ever affect them personally.

But the truth is that what is going on in the Middle East is of the utmost importance. A major war in the Middle East would deeply affect everyone, and right now the stage is being set for one to potentially begin before the end of 2021.

Of course I am not setting any dates and I am not making any predictions. I do not know if the war between Israel and Iran will start this year, next year or some time thereafter. But at some point there will be war. You can take that to the bank.

The Iranians are not going to give up their nuclear program, and the Israelis will never allow them to get to a point where they can produce their own nuclear weapons.

On Thursday, Israeli Defense Minister Benny Gantz was asked a direction question about this, and he responded by saying that "Israel is ready to attack Iran"... "Israel is ready to attack Iran, yes," Gantz told Ynet on Thursday.

"We are at a point where we need to take military action against Iran. The world needs to take action against Iran now," he added according to a translation of his comments tweeted by Ynet journalist Attila Somfalvi.

In case there was any confusion about this, Gantz gave us even more to chew on during remarks that he made to diplomats from UNSC members...

"Iran has violated all of the guidelines set in the JCPOA and is only around 10 weeks away from acquiring weapons-grade materials necessary for a nuclear weapon," Gantz told ambassadors from countries on the United Nations Security Council during a briefing at the Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem.

"Now is the time for deeds – words are not enough," he added. "It is time for diplomatic, economic and even military deeds, otherwise the attacks will continue."

10 weeks from now would put us in the second half of October. Let us hope that something changes between now and then. It is always possible that Gantz is simply attempting to intimidate Iran and that an actual attack is not actively being considered. Because otherwise what Gantz is doing does not make any sense at all.

If I was in his shoes, there is no way in the world that I would telegraph a potential attack. If you are going to launch a major assault on another nation, you don't tell them in advance that it is coming.

Of course the Iranians certainly appear to be doing their part to raise tensions in the region. There have been two more "mysterious tanker attacks" within the past seven days, and both of them are being blamed on Iran...

Two tanker attack incidents within the span of less than a week are now being blamed by the US, UK, and Israel on Iran. First there was last Thursday's Mercer Street tanker drone attack which left two British and Romanian crew members dead, and then on Tuesday there was the hijacking on the Panama-flagged Asphalt Princess – boarded by a half dozen armed Iranian militants.

Since the Israeli-managed Mercer came under assault, Israeli leaders have been openly proposing military action to allies, saying it may be needed to stop the Iranian attacks. Israel says it has provided allies like the United States with "hard evidence" that Tehran was indeed behind the drone attack in the Arabian Sea.

In the aftermath of the most recent attack, the Israelis have even gone so far as to name the specific Iranian military leaders that were involved...

Defense Minister Benny Gantz and Foreign Minister Yair Lapid named on Wednesday the Iranian commanders they said were behind last week's attack on an oil tanker off the coast of Oman.

"Amir Ali Hajizadeh, commander of the IRGC's Air Force, is behind dozens of terror attacks in the region employing UAVs and missiles," Gantz told envoys from countries on the United Nations Security Council during a briefing at the Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem.

"For the first time ever, I will also expose the man who is directly responsible for the launch of suicide UAVs — his name is Saeed Ara Jani and he is the head of the IRGC's UAV command."

The Iranians had become accustomed to getting away with certain things, but now Naftali Bennett is in power.

Bennett is younger and more aggressive than former prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu. When Bennett served in Netanyahu's cabinet, he was often frustrated by Netanyahu's unwillingness to take more aggressive action against Israel's enemies.

Now it is Bennett's turn to run the show, and he certainly sounds like a man that is thinking about war...

"We would like the world to understand that the Iranian regime is violent and fanatical," Prime Minister Naftali Bennett said last month. "It selected the 'Hangman of Tehran' as its president — a man who is willing to starve his own people for years in order to have a military nuclear program. That is a regime that one should not do business with."

Bennett added that Israel "will continue to consult with our friends, persuade, discuss, and share information and insights out of mutual respect. But at the end of the day, we will be responsible for our own fate, nobody else."

Those are ominous words.

Meanwhile, the Biden administration continues to do more things to upset China. For example, the Biden administration just approved a major arms sale to Taiwan...

*After a series of US-backed arms sales packages to Taiwan during Trump's last year in office, severely ratcheting tensions to where they are now, President Biden's administration on Wednesday approved its first arms sale to the island claimed by China.

Bloomberg is describing the potential $750 million deal as including 40 new M109 self-propelled howitzers, essentially a highly maneuverable tank-like military vehicle with a giant gun, and some 1,700 kits designed to convert projectiles into more precise GPS-guided munitions.

Approving that arms sale is one of the rare times when the Biden administration has actually done something right, but without a doubt it will greatly enrage the Chinese.

Thankfully, the U.S. and China are not currently on the verge of military conflict, but we are steadily moving in that direction. And just like with Israel and Iran, at some point the clock will run out and a day of reckoning will arrive.

Empty Shelves, Severe Shortages and Widespread Crop Failures Are Ahead In The Fall Of 2021

August 24, 2021 by Michael Snyder

The overall mood of the nation is becoming increasingly sour with each passing day. The pandemic seems like it is never going to end, the drama unfolding in Afghanistan is one of the greatest embarrassments in modern American history, and Joe Biden's approval rating is sinking like a rock as it becomes clear that he is completely and utterly incompetent. Unfortunately, average Americans will soon have even more to be stressed out about. As we head into the fall months, our store shelves are going to be getting emptier, shortages of products will become more widespread, and it looks like we could potentially have a very bad harvest season.

I realize that I packed a lot of really bad news into that paragraph, and some of you may be tempted to think that I am exaggerating.

So let me take this one step at a time. First, I would like to talk about crop failures. According to the Department of Agriculture, 63 percent of all U.S. spring wheat is in "poor or very poor condition". Last year at this time, that number was sitting at just 6 percent...

Extreme heat is baking most of the U.S. North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska all contain areas of extreme drought, according to data from the U.S. Drought Monitor. North Dakota and Minnesota, in particular, are experiencing near-record lows in soil moisture, according to data from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

As a result, many crops planted this spring are wilting. Some 63% of the U.S. spring wheat crop is in poor or very poor condition, versus 6% at this time last year, according to Agriculture Department data.

So does this mean that agricultural production will be below expectations? Yes.

In fact, the USDA is now projecting that levels of corn, wheat and soybeans will all be "at their lowest level since 2013"...

The poor weather has caused the USDA to scale back its expectations for U.S. crop production in 2021—which, in turn, is causing domestic inventories to dwindle. In the USDA's latest monthly supply and demand report, the agency pegged ending stocks for corn, wheat, and soybeans all at their lowest level since 2013.

Of course this comes at a time when we are also seeing crop failures in other key areas all over the globe.

For example, we are currently witnessing one of the worst droughts that South America has ever experienced. Agricultural production has been absolutely devastated in Brazil, Argentina, and elsewhere, and this is going to have a huge impact all over the planet.

What this means is that global hunger is going to continue to grow rapidly, and this is extremely bad news because global hunger has already been rising at an extremely aggressive rate...

*Earlier this month, the humanitarian organization Oxfam released alarming statistics that measured the state of the food crisis after one year of the pandemic. Every minute, eleven people on the planet die of hunger. The number of people experiencing famine-like conditions globally has increased by six times in the past year.

Many Americans may not care about starving people on the other side of the globe, but they are going to care very much when their Christmas celebrations "are ruined" because of severe shortages in the stores.

While she was in Singapore this week, Kamala Harris specifically warned us about what is coming...

"The stories that we are now hearing about the caution that if you want to have Christmas toys for your children, it might now be might be the time to start buying them, because the delay may be many, many months," she said.

"So across the board, people are experiencing the issue. And, of course, the climate crisis is fueling a lot of this. When we look at the stronger typhoons that have disrupted shipping lanes and sea-level rise, which threatens port infrastructure as an example. So these are the many issues that are causing these disruptions," Harris said.

Wow. When Kamala Harris starts sounding just like The Economic Collapse Blog, then you know that it is really late in the game.

Even now, empty shelves and widespread shortages are being reported all over the nation. Susan Duclos over at ANP has done an excellent job of documenting what is going on out there. People from around the country have been sending photos to her, and this has helped her readers to understand that this is not a phenomenon that is just limited to a few areas. Unfortunately, this is just the beginning.

The holiday season is expected to greatly exacerbate the shortages, and it is being reported that "new problems are arising weekly"...

Grocery-store chains are still battling supply challenges that some executives said are as bad as what they saw in spring 2020, when hoarding left holes in stocks of some staples.

Industry executives say new problems are arising weekly, driven by shortages of labor and raw materials. Groceries including frozen waffles and beverages remain scarce as some food companies anticipate disruptions lasting into 2022. A wider range of products is running short and logistical challenges are compounding for many retailers.

Grocery stores are ordering more food like crazy, but we have gotten to a point where the largest U.S. food distributors simply cannot fulfill all of the orders... *According to Bloomberg, some of the largest U.S. food distributors are "reporting difficulties in fulfilling orders as a lack of workers weighs on the supply chain." Take distribution giant Sysco, North America's largest wholesale food distributor, which is turning away customers in some areas where demand is exceeding capacity.

Worse, food inflation is about to soar: the company said prices for key goods such as chicken, pork and paper products for takeout packaging are climbing amid tight supplies. In particular, production has slowed for high-demand, labor-intensive cuts like bacon, ribs, wings and tenders, Sysco said. And if intermediate and final wholesale prices are "rising", just wait until they emerge on the consumer side.

Needless to say, my regular readers are not surprised by any of this, because they were warned in advance that all of this was coming.

But for most of the U.S. population, the new reality that we are entering into will come as a major shock.

They had been promised a new golden era of prosperity, but instead what they are going to get is a nightmare.

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books and do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in to deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. “Such a debt, who can pay?”

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. “Such a debt, who can pay?” This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, “Such a debt, who can pay?” the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar’s signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is “Such a debt, who can pay?” If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. “Paid in full by Jesus Christ.”

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God’s Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), “As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one.”

(Romans 3:23 NIV), “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

(Luke 5:32 NIV), “I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), “For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), “That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.

The Sinner’s Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being “Born Again.”
