Yahweh, Alpha & Omega, Father of the Universe

Let's Prayer:

Father in Heaven, I kneel before you as your daughter/son of the Most High God in the name of your son, Jesus Christ. I humbling ask for forgiveness of my stubborn flesh hidden in wounding and unforgiveness. You said I should love others with my heart, soul and mind, but I can not love with all my mind because of the ongoing battle within my heart.

I am a citizen of your Kingdom, I have access to you and approach you with boldness. I am loved. I am your creation and I belong to you. You are my refuge & strength. You are always present to help in trouble and always on my side, therefore never leaving me to fight my own battles. You are my source and my portion forever. How amazing is your grace and kindness towards me. Yahweh, I acknowledge I need your help to win this battle with Your spirit of truth that indwells within me.

You exalt as Ruler over all things. Your greatness, power and majesty existed before all things, superior to every man and god. You are greater than any principality, spiritual wickedness, satanic opposition and every stronghold of the enemy.

I am your child and your desire is for me to live in freedom from the holds of the world and devil. Therefore, as a citizen of your Kingdom, I am not bound by fear, loneliness, rejection, unforgiveness, lust, bitterness, anxiety, doubt, low self-esteem, guilt, insecurities, addiction, suicidal thoughts, anger, self-defeating and judgmental thoughts

Teach me to conquer & replace my unhealthy thoughts with your Word and your truth. I bring my thoughts into submission to Jesus Christ, as I aim to please you in every way. I give you my Mind so it may be transformed to the mind of Christ and focus on things that are beneficial, holy, and true according to what is written in your Word.

Father, I know that I am in a spiritual battle, fighting against principalities & rulers of darkness indwelling in neighbors, friends and sometimes family. (People)I request strength in my battle to reject every temptation and thought that contradicts your truth of who I am in you.

It is by your mighty power that I may break free of the schemes of the devil, not leaning on my own understanding. I shall put on my full armor equipping myself with the breastplate of righteousness, the belt of truth, the shield of faith, the helmet of deliverance and the sword of your Word. I live in believe and knowing your son Jesus Christ died for me, I submit to your power and clothe myself with your kingdom armor.

Father, I ask you to demolish every wall the enemy has built in my heart by the authority I have in your son, Jesus Christ. I ask you to tear down every high thing, every stronghold, every Goliath, and every mind-oppressing spirit that seeks to keep me bound.

As Jericho's wall crumbled, I pray the enemy's plans against my soul will fail and shatter by your great strength. I pray that you will break every unhealthy cycle in my life and mind. I cry out as David - You, Lord, are a shield around me, my glory, the one who lifts my head high. I ask you Lord to Help me to be your Barnabus for those struggling to overcome the plans of the enemy. Help me to share the gifts you bestowed upon me with those you put in my path.

Yahweh, I pray that you give me strength to stand, courage to fight, and the perseverance to win this battle. I pray that your peace which surpasses all understanding will guard my mind in Christ Jesus. I stand on the promise of your Word, “that blessed are those who hope in you, and those who trust in you will never be put to shame.” You are my eternal King, my only true God, and I give all glory & honor to you forever and ever. Amen.

Scriptures:

Jeremiah 15:1-21

15 Then the Lord said to me: “Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, my heart would not go out to this people. Send them away from my presence! Let them go!

2 And if they ask you, ‘Where shall we go? ’tell them, ‘This is what the Lord says:

“Those destined for death, to death;
those for the sword, to the sword;
those for starvation, to starvation;
those for captivity, to captivity.’

3 “I will send four kinds of destroyers against them,” declares the Lord, “the sword to kill and the dogs to drag away and the birds and the wild animals to devour and destroy.

4 I will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

5 “Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?

Who will mourn for you?

Who will stop to ask how you are?

6 You have rejected me,” declares the Lord.

“You keep on backsliding.

So I will reach out and destroy you;

I am tired of holding back.

7 I will winnow them with a winnowing fork

at the city gates of the land.

I will bring bereavement and destruction on my people,
for they have not changed their ways.

8 I will make their widows more numerous than the sand of the sea.

At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men;

suddenly I will bring down on them
anguish and terror.

9 The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last.

Her sun will set while it is still day;
she will be disgraced and humiliated.

I will put the survivors to the sword
before their enemies,”
declares the Lord.

10 Alas, my mother, that you gave me birth,
a man with whom the whole land strives and contends!

I have neither lent nor borrowed,
yet everyone curses me.

11 The Lord said, “Surely I will deliver you for a good purpose;
surely I will make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and times of distress.

12 “Can a man break iron—
iron from the north—or bronze?

13 “Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder, without charge, because of all your sins
throughout your country.

14 I will enslave you to your enemies
in[a] a land you do not know,
for my anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you.”

15 Lord, you understand;
remember me and care for me.
Avenge me on my persecutors.

You are long-suffering—do not take me away;
think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.

16 When your words came, I ate them;
they were my joy and my heart’s delight,
for I bear your name,
Lord God Almighty.

17 I never sat in the company of revelers,
never made merry with them;
I sat alone because your hand was on me
and you had filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable?
You are to me like a deceptive brook,
like a spring that fails.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord says:
“If you repent, I will restore you that you may serve me;

if you utter worthy, not worthless, words,
you will be my spokesman.

Let this people turn to you,
but you must not turn to them.

20 I will make you a wall to this people,
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you
but will not overcome you,
for I am with you
to rescue and save you,"
declares the Lord.

21 "I will save you from the hands of the wicked and deliver you from the grasp of the cruel."

Daniel 4:4-14

4 I prayed to the Lord my God and confessed: "Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with those who love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from your commands and laws.

6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.

7 "Lord, you are righteous, but this day we are covered with shame—the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where you have scattered us because of our unfaithfulness to you.

8 We and our kings, our princes and our ancestors are covered with shame, Lord, because we have sinned against you.

9 The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him;

10 we have not obeyed the Lord our God or kept the laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.

11 All Israel has transgressed your law and turned away, refusing to obey you. "Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against you.

12 You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing on us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not sought the favor of the Lord our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to your truth.

14 The Lord did not hesitate to bring the disaster on us, for the Lord our God is righteous in everything he does; yet we have not obeyed him.

Amos 1:15

Her king[a] will go into exile,

he and his officials together," says the Lord.

Psalm 41:9

Even my close friend, someone I trusted, one who shared my bread, has turned^[b] against me.

Psalm 18:2

The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, the power that saves me, my stronghold.

Exodus 28:15-21

The Breastpiece

15 "Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions—the work of skilled hands. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen. 16 It is to be square—a span^[a] long and a span wide—and folded double. 17 Then mount four rows of precious stones on it. The first row shall be carnelian, chrysolite and beryl; 18 the second row shall be turquoise, lapis lazuli and emerald; 19 the third row shall be jacinth, agate and amethyst; 20 the fourth row shall be topaz, onyx and jasper.^[b] Mount them in gold filigree settings. 21 There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Luke 12:15

15 Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions."

Acts 4:36

36 Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means "son of encouragement"),

Acts 13:1-12

1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. 2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

3 So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off.

On Cyprus

4 The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus.

5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper.

6 They traveled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus,

7 who was an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith.

9 Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at Elymas and said,

10 “You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?

11 Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind for a time, not even able to see the light of the sun.” Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.
