I am having to type from finger memory, I almost cannot read except by using glasses and magnifying glasses

Two months ago I blew the engine in my truck and the cost of repair is more then the truck is worth. I have tried to live without wheels and it has not worked out, so 10 days ago I bit the bullet and bought a car and it seemed like a good deal

Now the more challenging news, about two weeks ago I started seeing swelling in my legs, I started taking over the counter products for water retention but no help, a couple of days ago it was getting worse so I called my Medical practitioner and She went ballistic. Saying this is very serious, possibly related to kidney or heart failure. She wanted me to get to the emergency room that night and she is upset I still am not there.

I have been without a cell phone but I will not go to the hospital without a way of communication so I will be getting my car and a cell phone today, and by evening I will be admitting myself in the emergency room of the hospital.

I am praying it will turn out to not be as serious as it appears and I will be released soon. Please agree with me on this .

War Analysis Update

Brace Yourself, The Date Has Been Set, Final Provocation of War with China,

I wish I could share all that is on my heart concerning a coming war that will begin against America and our interests.

I have shared about the puppet masters pulling the strings of global leaders and especially American leaders

The Globalist want to see America taken out of the way. It will only take to destruction of key cities in the USA to effectively destroy America. Much of America will be untouched but it will be ripe for invasion and the rule of the anti-christ, ,

Out=r leaders are poking the bear and the dragon in the eyes. I personally believe a date may already be set. It is just a matter of getting all the weapons in place to hit all at the same time, I know we don't want to think of the destruction of ?America, but the Bible says that Myastery Babylon will be destroyed in one hour The coming together of what I have just said is fully covered in the news I have included below. This is not time to ignore what is in our face.

US Carrier Battle Group Steams Toward Taiwan as Pelosi Invites More Lawmakers on Island Visit

A US aircraft carrier and its retinue of warships departed from Singapore on Tuesday, steaming northward toward Taiwan. US House Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) is slated to visit the island next month despite protests by Beijing, which regards Taiwan as a Chinese province in rebellion. Now, she's inviting more lawmakers along.

The Nimitz-class aircraft carrier USS Ronald Reagan and one of its escorts, the Ticonderoga-class guided-missile cruiser USS Antietam, left Singapore's Changi Naval Base on Tuesday following a four-day stay in the city-state, the Seventh US Fleet announced. The visit came at the end of a tour of the region that included the biennial Valiant Shield exercise in the Philippine Sea and the South China Sea and a stop in the Vietnamese port city of Danang.

A news release did not say the full size of the battle group, but noted it included Reagan and Antietam as well as another "Tico" cruiser - the USS Chancellorsville - and "ships, crew and staff" from Carrier Strike Group 5 and Destroyer Squadron 15, which includes eight Arleigh Burke-class destroyers. Including the USS Reagan's 10 aircraft squadrons, the flotilla is clearly a formidable task force.

It also did not state the battle group's destination, but satellite data from the South China Sea Probing Initiative (SCSPI), a Beijing-based think tank that monitors activity in the waterway, spotted Antietam and Reagan near Malaysia's Riau archipelago in the South China Sea later on Tuesday.

Notably, the think tank highlighted no other US warships in the area, possibly signaling that Reagan left most of her task force behind for the port calls.

Reagan is the US' only forward-deployed carrier, based in Yokosuka, Japan, instead of at a naval base in the United States.

Pelosi Invites More on Provocative Taiwan Trip

The tour comes amid renewed plans by Pelosi, the third-most powerful US politician after US President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris, to visit Taiwan. Her plans for an April trip were canceled after she contracted COVID-19, but she recently announced her intent to go once more, and reports say the trip could come in early August.

The People's Republic of China (PRC), which regards Taiwan as a Chinese province in rebellion and sees US support for the government in Taiwan as a violation of Chinese sovereignty and interference in Chinese internal affairs, has strongly protested the planned trip. It would be the highest-profile visit by a US politician since 1997 and would come after a series of visits in the last year by other high-ranking US politicians and figures, including former Secretary of State and former CIA director Mike Pompeo and former Pentagon chief Mark Esper.

Pelosi's fellow Democrats, including Biden, and senior Pentagon leaders have all tried to dissuade her from the provocative trip, which many leading Republicans - typically adversarial to Pelosi's politics - have rallied behind.

“Many Republicans want to see her go as a show of strength, while many Democrats are concerned about the risks of unnecessary provocation —, particularly in light of high inflation, an unstable oil marketplace” and Russia's special operation in Ukraine, a House Democrat anonymously told NBC on Tuesday.

Now, the senior Democratic lawmaker is trying to bring more of her colleagues with her.

Pelosi on Wednesday reportedly extended invitations to Rep. Gregory Meeks (D-NY), the chair of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, and to Rep. Michael McCaul (R-TX), the committee's ranking member. However, McCaul has already passed on the offer, although he expressed his support for the visit.

Zhao Lijian, a spokesperson for the Chinese Foreign Ministry, warned on Wednesday that Pelosi's visit "challenges China's red line, it will be met with resolute countermeasures."

"The US must assume full responsibility for any serious consequence arising thereof," Zhao added.

Many have speculated whether China would try to close the airspace over or around Taiwan - and questioned whether it could. Taipei is extremely defensive about PRC incursions in the vast expanse of the sea surrounding the island which it claims control over, although its claims have no basis in international law.

One China

The government on Taiwan is all that remains of the Republic of China, the government that ruled all of China between the abdication of the last Chinese emperor in 1912 and the victory of communist forces in the civil war in 1949. The Red Army established control over the entire mainland and founded the PRC in Beijing, but was unable to cross the Taiwan Strait.

Beijing has since proposed that Taiwan peacefully reunite with China under a "one country, two systems" model like that used to reincorporate Hong Kong and Macau, two former colonies of European powers returned to Chinese control in the 1990s, which allowed much of their capitalist economic system to persist under the PRC's socialist government. While some in Taiwan believe the RoC is the true legitimate government of China and will reconquer the mainland one day, others, like President Tsai Ing-wen's faction, see Taiwan as an independent country. However, Beijing has made clear that a declaration of independence will mean war.

The US switched its recognition of the legitimate Chinese government from Taipei to Beijing in 1979 as part of a carefully negotiated agreement but has continued to retain informal relations with Taipei, including funneling them weapons sufficient to deter a Chinese attack. Beijing has denounced the US' Taiwan Relations Act governing that relationship, saying it “seriously breaches widely recognized international laws and basic norms in international relations and runs counter to the one-China principle and the stipulations in the three China-US joint communiqués.”

China shows off ‘carrier killer’ nuclear missiles ahead of Pelosi’s Taiwan visit

Chinese DF-17 "carrier killer" missiles in a military parade. (

As China continues to make threats and demands for House Speaker Nancy Pelosi to refrain from visiting Taiwan, Chinese missile forces upped the ante by posting photos of their nuclear Dongfeng DF-17 “Carrier Killer” missiles on Monday.

The Chinese People’s Liberation Army (PLA) Rocket Forces shared a photo of rows of DF-17 ballistic missiles in a military parade.

The photo was shared by “Dongfeng Express,” the humorous name for one of the PLA Rocket Force’s secondary but still official account. Dongfeng is the Chinese name for its ballistic missiles and thus “Dongfeng Express” is the joke name of China’s ballistic missile forces.

“You can always believe in the People’s Liberation Army PLA,” the Dongfeng Express account wrote. “You believe in me, the motherland believes in me!”

The Chinese state-run media outlet Global Times has referred to the DF-17 as an “aircraft carrier killer.” The “carrier killer” moniker has also been used to describe the Dongfeng DF-21 and DF-26 ballistic missiles.

According to the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) missile defense project, the DF-17 is a hypersonic missile capable of going between five and ten times the speed of sound (3836 to 7672 miles per hour). The DF-17's high speed is meant to help it counter an enemy target's defenses by leaving it "with little time to react."

The DF-17 can carry either conventional or nuclear warheads.

The PLA's missile forces showed off the DF-17 amid anticipation that Pelosi's ongoing tour of Asia will include a visit to Taiwan.

While Taiwan governs itself as a de facto independent nation, China considers the island a part of its territory. China has already said a potential Pelosi Taiwan visit is a violation of Chinese sovereignty.

The Chinese missile forces are showing off their "carrier killer" amid reports that the U.S. military is bolstering its presence in the Indo-Pacific region ahead of Pelosi's visit.

Last week, the aircraft carrier USS Ronald Reagan (CVN-76) departed the Changi Naval base in Singapore and entered the South China Sea, putting it closer to China and Taiwan. On Saturday, the USS Ronald Reagan transited the San Bernardino Strait, in the middle of the Philippine Archipelago.

In addition to posting the photo of the "carrier killer" DF-17 missiles, the PLA's Eastern Theater Command also shared a video on Monday of its forces conducting amphibious landings and live fire drills.

On Friday, a Chinese military account on the Chinese social media app Weibo also posted the statement, "Preparing for war!"

Hu Xijin, a commentator and former editor-in-chief of the Chinese state-run Global Times, also called for shooting down Pelosi's plane.

China sends 13 warships, record 68 warplanes inside Taiwan's defense zone

The Chinese People's Liberation Army (PLA) deployed 13 warships and a record 68 military aircraft on Friday into the Taiwan Strait and the zone of airspace Taiwan's military defensively monitors.

Taiwan's Ministry of National Defense tweeted, "PLA dispatched 68 aircraft and 13 vessels until 17:00 (UTC+8) for the activities around Taiwan Strait, part of which had crossed the median line and jeopardized the status quo of the strait."

"[Taiwan's Armed Forces] responded to such a situation accordingly with surveillance systems, CAP aircraft, naval vessels, and missile systems," the Taiwanese defense ministry added. "We condemn such action that disturbed our surrounding airspace and waters and continue to ensure our democracy and freedom free from threats."

Taiwan considers all of the Taiwan Strait to fall within its air defense identification zone (ADIZ), an area of international airspace that Taiwan monitors.

Taiwan's defense ministry said 49 of the Chinese PLA's 68 aircraft crossed over the east side of the median line of the Taiwan strait, which serves as the approximate midway point across the waterway. Those 49 Chinese military aircraft included 47 J-10, J-11, J-16 and Su-30 fighter jets, a Y-8 electronic warfare variant and a Y-8 anti-submarine warfare variant aircraft.

The massive deployment of Chinese warships and aircraft around Taiwan comes after House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's visit to the island earlier this week.

While Taiwan governs itself as an independent nation, China considers the island a part of its territory and condemned Pelosi's visit as a violation of Chinese sovereignty.

China has flown its military aircraft into the Taiwanese ADIZ on a nearly daily basis for years.

The Chinese military's aerial activity in the Taiwan Strait on Friday represents the largest reported incursion into the Taiwanese ADIZ in a single day.

The PLA's previous largest single-day incursion into the Taiwanese ADIZ took place on Oct. 4, 2021 and involved 52 warplanes. The previous record-setting incursion was part of China's reaction after President Joe Biden's administration vowed to deepen ties with Taiwan.

"We will stand with friends and allies to advance our shared prosperity, security, and values in the Indo-Pacific region — and that includes deepening our ties with democratic Taiwan," U.S. State Department spokesperson Ned Price said at the time.

As Pelosi arrived in Taiwan on Tuesday, China announced plans to hold live-fire drills at locations all around the island. Taiwan's defense ministry said the drills make it "self-evidently apparent that they seek a cross-strait resolution by force instead of peaceful means."

The PLA's massive aerial and naval deployments on Friday come a day after PLA missile forces carried out missile launch drills around Taiwan. The PLA forces launched at least 11 ballistic missiles near Taiwan and at least five ballistic missiles fell within the waters of Japan's exclusive economic zone (EEZ).

STUNNING! Massive Escalation of Ukraine War

WORLD HAL TURNER 27 JULY 2022 HITS: 9006

Today an elected official from Donetsk, announced the latest plan for Ukraine and it marks the single most stunning change since Russia began its Special Military Operation (SMO).

Denis Pushilin is a politician from the Donetsk region who has served as Head of the Donetsk People's Republic (DPR) since 2018.

He had previously served as Chairman of the People's Council, and became the acting Head of State following the assassination of incumbent Alexander Zakharchenko amidst the conflict in the east Ukraine region. He successfully ran for election to a full term in the 2018 elections.

That being said, when Pushilin speaks, he speaks with authority; he's "in-the-loop" as it was his administration that asked for -- and got -- protection from Russia through the ongoing SMO.

This morning, Pushilin made the following announcement:

"Today it's time to liberate again Russian cities founded by Russian people: Kiev, Chernihiv, Poltava, Odessa, Dnepropetrovsk, Kharkov, Zaporozhye, Lutsk"

This announcement is likely the single most dramatic change since the Russian Army crossed into Ukraine back on February 24. The escalation of warfare necessary to accomplish this, now seems to fully explain why so many more trainloads of Russia troops and armor poured into the theater of war all last week, nearly TRIPLING the amount of Russian firepower available (but not yet deployed) inside Ukraine.

The war is about to escalate in ways no one thought possible.

JULY 27, 2022 RYAN MORGAN

U.S. and Japanese military units obliterated a target warship last week for the second time during the 2022 Rim of the Pacific (RIMPAC 22) multi-national military exercise near Hawaii. The exercise demonstrates warfighting tactics that the U.S. and its allies could use in a potential conflict with China.

U.S. and Japanese air, land and sea units targeted and destroyed a decommissioned Austin-class amphibious transport dock ship, the ex-USS Denver (LPD 9), off the north coast of Kauai on Friday, the U.S. 3rd Fleet first announced late Tuesday. The multi-pronged attack on a decommissioned warship is known as a sinking exercise or SINKEX.

The sinking drill is the second time RIMPAC participants have practiced destroying a full-scale warship since the start of RIMPAC 22. On July 12, air and sea units from the U.S., Australia, Canada and Malaysia sank a decommissioned Oliver Hazard Perry-class guided-missile frigate, the ex-USS Rodney M. Davis (FFG-60).

The sinking exercise gives various units an opportunity to gain proficiency in their tactics, targeting and live firing on an accurate representation of a surface target at sea.

From land, Japanese Ground Self-Defense Force and U.S. Army troops shot Type 12 surface-to-ship missiles and practice rockets at the ex-USS Denver.

From the air, U.S. Navy F/A-18F Super Hornets attacked the decommissioned warship with long-range anti-ship missiles while U.S. Marine Corps F/A-18C/D

Hornets fired an air-launched cruise missile, air-to-surface anti-radiation missiles, an air-to-ground anti-radiation missile, and joint direct attack munitions. U.S. Army AH-64 Apache helicopters also shot air-to-ground Hellfire missiles, rockets, and 30mm guns at the ship.

“It was a bittersweet moment for me, having served aboard USS Denver during my career,” said, U.S. Marine Corps Brig. Gen. Joseph R. Clearfield, who serves as the Fleet Marine Force Commanding General overseeing all Marine Corps Forces assigned to RIMPAC. “But what a way for her to go out.”

From the sea, the U.S. Navy guided-missile destroyer USS Chaffee (DDG 90) shot its Mark 45 5-inch gun at the decommissioned warship.

“This sink-at-the-sea exercise demonstrates current operational capabilities and tactical skills, and provides a valuable opportunity to coordinate and collaborate between Japanese Type 12 Surface-to-Ship Missiles (SSM) and the U.S. Army High Mobility Artillery Rocket System (HIMARS) to conduct a live fire and comprehensive exercise,” said Japanese Ground Self-Defense Force (JGSDF) Maj. Gen. Shigeo Kaida. “Alliances with partner nations are a key element to secure our regional stability and enhance our capabilities of deterrence and response in the Indo-Pacific region.”

A Japanese Ground Self-Defense Force Type 12 Surface to Ship Missile System fires as part of a sinking exercise (SINKEX) during Rim of the Pacific (RIMPAC) 2022. (U.S. Navy photo by courtesy asset).

The U.S., which organizes the biennial RIMPAC exercises, allowed China to attend the 2014 iteration of the maritime war game. China’s People’s Liberation Army Navy (PLAN) sent four surface ships for RIMPAC 2014. China’s PLAN again participated in RIMPAC 2016, this time sending five surface ships. China was initially invited to again attend RIMPAC 2018, but was later disinvited by the U.S. due to its continued militarization of the South China Sea.

After being disinvited from RIMPAC 2018, China's Defense Ministry called China's isolation from RIMPAC "unconstructive" and Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi said "We hope that the U.S. will change such a negative mindset," Voice of America reported. The PLAN also sent a surveillance ship near Hawaii to monitor the 2018 exercise, USNI News reported at the time.

Tensions between China and the U.S. have continued to grow since 2018 and China has accused the U.S. of isolating China and returning to a "Cold War mentality" by forming military partnerships throughout the Indo-Pacific Region with China's neighbors.

USS Ronald Reagan Strike Group Enters South China Sea for Pelosi's Taiwan Visit

WORLD. HAL TURNER 28 JULY 2022 HITS: 4233

China and the United States are building up their military strength around the Taiwan Strait as tensions rise over US House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's possible visit to the island.

The American aircraft carrier USS Ronald Reagan and its strike group, including a guided missile destroyer and a guided missile cruiser, set out from Singapore on Monday heading northeast towards the South China Sea, according to ship-tracking information provided by Beijing-based think tank the South China Sea Strategic Probing Initiative.

The carrier strike group includes the Navy's only forward-deployed aircraft carrier USS Ronald Reagan (CVN 76), the embarked Carrier Air Wing (CVW)

5, and embarked staffs of Task Force 70 and Destroyer Squadron (DESRON) 15, as well as the Ticonderoga-class guided-missile cruiser USS Antietam (CG 54) and the Arleigh Burke-class guided-missile destroyer USS Higgins (DDG 76).

While in the South China Sea, the strike group is conducting maritime security operations, which include flight operations with fixed and rotary-wing aircraft, maritime strike exercises, and coordinated tactical training between surface and air units. Carrier operations in the South China Sea are part of the U.S. Navy's routine operations in the Indo-Pacific.

China's People's Liberation Army (PLA) will not sit idly by if Pelosi visits Taiwan island, the Chinese defense ministry warns; indicating the PLA 'fully prepared' for all scenarios

"Chinese analysts said the strong warnings from the Chinese military meant that the Chinese People's Liberation Army (PLA) is well prepared for all the possible challenges if Pelosi visits the island, and they advised the PLA Rocket Force to conduct drills with new missiles targeting any possible US aircraft carriers and other large military vessels that may be involved in Pelosi's visit."

A Chinese ministry of defense spokesman has warned that the People's Liberation Army would "take strong measures" if the speaker "insisted on going ahead".

US officials have told media outlets that if her visit goes ahead, the U.S. military will increase its movement of forces and assets in the Indo-Pacific region. They said U.S. fighter jets, ships, surveillance assets and other military systems were likely to be used to provide overlapping rings of protection for her flight to Taiwan and when she arrives on the island.

So not only will the Speaker of the House enter China air space without China permission, to land in China (Taiwan) without permission, her flight will be protected by US fighter jets!

Reports describe a scenario that China could send aircraft to "escort" her plane and prevent it from landing if she visits Taiwan, possibly on a US military aircraft, and a US official said the scenario is a legitimate concern.

Hu Xijin, a commentator for the Global Times newspaper, the official mouthpiece for the China Communist Party, said that he expected to see PLA's aircraft flying together with Pelosi's plane into the airspace of Taiwan island. That would set a great precedent for the PLA to patrol above the island, which would be far more meaningful than Pelosi's visit.

Sooner or later, the PLA's aircraft will enter the airspace above Taiwan in a legitimate and righteous move to manifest China's sovereignty over the island, he continued. "To do this, we need an opportunity which could prompt the international community to better understand the mainland's move is natural rather than a provocation. Pelosi's potential visit to the island will lead to major changes on the situation in the Taiwan Straits, and PLA's strong reaction is in line with the expectation of the international community and the visit will offer PLA a good reason to send aircraft over the island" Hu said.

"So, the ball has come to Pelosi and the Biden administration that is cooperating with her and the Democratic Progressive Party (DPP) on the island. We have to make full preparations this time for a showdown to them. If they dare to take a small step, we will take a major step to fiercely crack down the US and the DPP's arrogance and provocation," Hu said.

Xin Qiang, deputy director of the Center for American Studies at Fudan

University, told the Global Times that the US executive branch is very worried that this potential visit will cause a conflict to break out between China and the US.

"Pelosi doesn't care that she might make a big mess of US-China relations, because the executive branch and the military will be the ones forced to take the consequences and deal with the aftermath," he said.

Kim Jong Un says he's ready to fight US, 'annihilate' South Korea

North Korea's Kim Jong Un. (KCNA/Xinhua via Zuma Press/TNS)

On Wednesday, North Korean leader Kim Jong Un announced North Korea's military is prepared to fight the U.S. military and annihilate the "regime" of South Korean President Yoon Suk Yeol.

Kim spoke during a celebration of the 69th anniversary of the armistice that ended the fighting of the Korean War on July 27, 1953. After praising the North Korean military for handing the U.S. a "defeat" in the Korean War, Kim said North Korea must still confront the U.S.

"The arrogant nature of the U.S. imperialists has remained unchanged as ever," Kim said, according to the South Korean KCNA Watch which records and translates news and broadcasts from the North Korean state-run Korean Central News Agency (KCNA).

"We must confront the U.S. imperialists to the end on the strength of ideology and arms," Kim continued. "I reaffirm that the Democratic People's Republic of Korea is thoroughly prepared to cope with any kind of military clashes with the United States. If the United States continuously attempts to impair the image of our state and make a serious infringement of our security and fundamental interests, it will only compel itself to put up with greater uneasiness and crises."

Kim went on to threaten the politically conservative government of Yoon Suk Yeol, who took office on May 10.

“The government of our Republic would like to take this opportunity to send a serious warning to the south Korean conservative regime and its hawks that run amuck, indulged in abnormal excessive covetousness and confidence in strength, and stand in the van of implementing the U.S.’s hostile policy towards the [Democratic People’s Republic of Korea],” Kim said.

North Korea refers to itself as the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea (DPRK) and refers to South Korea with a lowercase “south” because it aspires to reunite the entire Korean Peninsula and considers the peninsula as one country that is momentarily divided.

“The new south Korean regime has designated our government and army as their ‘archenemy’ and, obsessed with useless fear that they must prepare themselves to confront their fellow countrymen, are raising the pitch of their malicious voices and resorting to all sorts of evil and inappropriate acts,” Kim continued. They are brazen-faced enough to advocate ‘peace based on strength’ and ‘security based on strength,’ and have put up a bold front, claiming that they would not hesitate in launching a ‘preemptive strike’ to neutralize the war deterrent of our state.”

Kim said the Yoon government should rethink any potential plans to strike North Korea.

“Such a dangerous attempt will be punished at once by a powerful force and Yoon Suk Yeol regime and its army will be annihilated,” Kim said. “The conservative regime of south Korea must admit before it’s too late that it has already gone too far from its beginning, and that it should think seriously upon the actions that may invite danger to itself.”

Last year, Yoon said he would request that the U.S. redeploy tactical nuclear weapons in South Korea if the U.S. determines there’s a credible threat from North Korea. In May, after taking office, he and President Joe Biden agreed to expand the scope of joint U.S. and South Korean military drills and “identify new or additional steps to reinforce deterrence in the face of DPRK destabilizing activities.”

Chinese Envoy Responds to Escalating Tensions with US Over Taiwan

WASHINGTON (Sputnik) - Chinese Ambassador in Washington Qin Gang has met with White House National Security Council officials and strongly rejected accusations that Beijing is escalating tensions, a spokesperson for the Chinese Embassy in the United States told Sputnik on Friday.

"On August 4, Ambassador Qin Gang sternly rejected the unreasonable accusations of the US side on Chinese military countermeasures when meeting with the officials of the White House National Security Council," the spokesperson said.

"Over 160 countries and international organizations, including ASEAN countries and other regional countries, have criticized Pelosi's visit [to Taiwan] and reiterated their commitment to the one-China principle. The US accusation that China is escalating the tensions is completely groundless and false. Facts have proved that the US is the troublemaker for peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait and the region."

How Nancy Pelosi's Taiwan Visit Helped China Score Major Geopolitical Victory

3 August, 12:32 GMT

Qin met with the White House National Security Council officials and underscored that Beijing's countermeasures around Taiwan are "necessary and legitimate" in order to deter separatist forces, a spokesperson for the Chinese Embassy in the United States told Sputnik on Friday.

"Ambassador Qin stressed the military countermeasures taken by the Chinese People's Liberation Army in the waters around the Taiwan Island are necessary and legitimate measures to deter 'Taiwan independence' separatist forces, and safeguard national sovereignty and territorial integrity," the spokesperson said. "With prior warnings made about them, the Chinese side matches its words with actions."

Qin stated that the responsibility for China-US tensions rests entirely with Washington, the embassy in the US told Sputnik.

"Ambassador Qin pointed out, despite China's repeated and serious warnings in advance, the U.S. has had House Speaker Nancy Pelosi visit Taiwan. This has seriously undermined peace and stability across the Taiwan Strait and China-U.S. relations," the embassy's spokesperson said. "The cause, consequences and merits of the incident are crystal clear. The U.S. side must bear full responsibility for the current situation."

It was also expressed by the Chinese Ambassador that the United States should respect its obligations and abide by its commitment to the one China policy, take actions to correct its mistakes and eliminate the consequences of the visit to Taiwan by US House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, a spokesperson of the Chinese Embassy in Washington told Sputnik on Friday.

"Ambassador Qin [Gang] said the United States should earnestly honor its commitment of abiding by the one China policy and not supporting 'Taiwan independence, and act immediately to rectify its mistakes and eliminate the grave impact of Pelosi's visit," the spokesperson said. "It should not take escalatory actions to further heighten the tension in the Taiwan strait and China-US relations."

Earlier on Friday, the White House summoned Qin to protest what it called were China's "escalating actions" near Taiwan, US media reported, citing National Security Council spokesperson John Kirby.

The warning came on the eve of a major escalation along Israel's 'southern front' border with Gaza. The Israeli military launched missile strikes targeting Palestinian Islamic Jihad on Friday after days of tensions at the border following the arrest of the militia's West Bank leader.

100,000 Hezbollah missiles stand at the ready to strike Israel in the event of any provocations against Lebanon and Hezbollah, Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps commander Hossein Salami has warned.

“In Lebanon, tens of thousands, even more than one hundred thousand missiles are ready to be fired to create a hell for the Zionists at the moment of making the divine predestination happen,” Salami said in a speech in Tehran on Thursday, using the term commonly used by Iranian officials to refer to Israel. In Shia Muslim faith, ‘divine predestination’ refers to events Allah knows will take place, but does not necessarily control.

Warning Tel Aviv that “Hezbollah youth have their fingers on triggers,” Salami stressed that the Lebanese militant group would bring Israel to its knees in the event of any crisis, and that its leader, Hassan Nasrallah, is “standing against the Zionists” with “determination.”

“It is enough for the Zionist regime to make a mistake, an operation in Holy Quds would be enough,” Salami said, referring to Jerusalem, where tensions between Israeli authorities and Palestinians remain razor thin and occasionally flare into violence.

The IRGC commander's firebrand comments come against the backdrop of a major escalation in Gaza, where the Israeli military launched 'Operation Breaking Dawn' targeting the Palestinian Islamic Jihad (PIJ) on Friday. The militant group confirmed Friday evening that its leader Taisir Jabari was killed in the strikes.

10 hours ago

The Israeli military said it launched Friday's "preemptive attack" "in response" to threats purportedly emanating from the Gaza-based militant group to the Jewish State's security. The IDF estimated that its strikes had killed "about 15" enemy combatants, and that the operation was not over yet. Health Ministry officials in Gaza have reported one person killed and 15 injured in the attacks.

PIJ responded by telling Israel to prepare for retaliation, and warning that "Tel Aviv will be among the targets."

Israel has activated its Iron Dome air defense system, with bomb shelters opened in the country's south, and Ben Gurion International Airport redirecting air traffic. Tel Aviv has reportedly warned Hamas to stay out of the conflict via communications through Egyptian and Qatari mediators.

The Israeli strikes followed days of escalating tensions over the arrest of Bassam al-Saadi, a senior Islamic Jihad member in the occupied West Bank, on Tuesday. They also come several months out from the upcoming 2022 Israeli legislative elections in November.

2 August, 09:17 GMT

The last major flare-up in the Palestinian-Israeli crisis occurred in May 2021, when the Israeli military launched an assault on the Gaza Strip and Hamas and PIJ fired thousands of rockets into southern Israel after tensions boiled over in East Jerusalem over a court ruling ordering the eviction of Palestinian families from their homes, and the Israeli police storming of the al-Aqsa Mosque compound, one of Islam's holiest sites. About a dozen Israelis and at least 230 Palestinians were killed in the May 2021 conflict, with over 3,000 Palestinians and about 100 Israelis receiving injuries.

Biden planning to 'protect' us from cash – beginning Dec. 13!

Exclusive: Joseph Farah warns of executive order that establishes 'Bitcoin's evil cousin'

By Joseph Farah

Some of America's smartest men, including Robert Kiyosaki, investment guru and author of the personal finance book "Rich Dad, Poor Dad," have some choice words for Executive Order 14067.

It would behoove you to listen to them.

Kiyosaki called President Joe Biden's signed executive order "the most treasonous act in U.S. history" and the creation of Central Bank Digital Currencies, or CBDC, as "communism in its purest form," encouraging Americans to "stay awake."

Advertisement - story continues below

He is joined by Jim Rickards, another economist, investor and former CIA official who is calling it a step toward the end of cash, the greenback, in circulation since the founding fathers. The new "digital tokens" can be "turned off" if the government doesn't like what you are doing. Rickards has four decades of experience on Wall Street.

Rickards criticized CBDC and labeled it as "Bitcoin's Evil Cousin." He also exposed the supposed singular event called C-Day, which according to him, will take place on Dec. 13, 2022, and will disrupt the traditional financial systems in the U.S.

TRENDING: What about Democrats who 'deny elections'?

He said when what he calls "C-Day" happens, paper money would be worthless and the U.S. dollar would crash. He further added that consumer spending and access to basic needs would also be restricted, and people holding too much money would be penalized.

Executive Order 14067, titled "Ensuring Responsible Development of Digital Assets," includes developing policy plans and the organization of federal regulators. "Any future dollar payment system should be designed in a way that is consistent with United States priorities ... and democratic values, including privacy protections, and that ensures the global financial system has appropriate transparency connectivity, and platform and architecture interoperability or transferability, as appropriate."

The International Monetary Fund said in a blog released last month that CBDCs can be a more effective solution compared to credit and debit cards, particularly in terms of energy efficiency.

"Depending on the specific details of how they are configured, CBDCs and some kinds of crypto assets can be more energy-efficient than much of the current payment landscape, including credit and debit cards," the blog read.

Notes Rickards, "Thanks to Section 4 of Biden's Executive Order 14067, calling for urgent research into developing the digital dollar, I believe the U.S. dollar, the standard of the world since 1792 ... will be REPLACED by a new currency, the digital dollar."

"I call the digital dollar 'Biden Bucks' because I want him to take full credit for what I consider to be crimes," says Rickards. "This is not like the money in your online bank account ... No, this is new and different. Every digital dollar will be a programmable token, like bitcoin or other cryptocurrencies. But there's a big difference ... Cryptocurrencies are decentralized digital currencies. Instead, if it plays out the way I see it ... Biden Bucks will have the full backing of the U.S. Federal Reserve. They will REPLACE the cash ('fiat') dollar we have now. And will soon be the sole, MANDATORY currency of the United States."

Kiyosaki agrees. But in this climate of fear Biden is creating – over the possibility of Donald Trump making a comeback – he has the Fed in his corner.

"When Biden Bucks are rolled out, many experts – myself included, believe they will begin an era of total government control and surveillance," Rickards stated. "This is not hyperbole. This would dramatically expand the power and influence of the federal government ... essentially acting as a new type of 'spyware.' With Biden Bucks, the government will be able to force you to comply with its agenda. Because if you don't, they could turn off your money. This won't be like freezing a bank account, it will be so much easier."

Just think what this will mean if Biden gets his way – or whoever is behind this plot.

You want to keep your internal combustion engine car? Your digital dollars suddenly won't pay for gas. You'll be forced to buy an electric vehicle.

Rickards calls it "the tip of the fascist iceberg."

"America would become a surveillance state like China or North Korea," he says.

Is this scare talk? No, it's just Executive Order 14067. Biden signed it March 09, 2022 – "By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America." Look it up!

John 12:26: If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

Isaiah 43:4: You are one who is precious in my eyes! You are glorious and I have loved you! I have given men in exchange for you, and peoples in exchange for your life!

Psalms 91:15-16: He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him. With a long life I will satisfy him And let him see My salvation."

This is a message/letter of God's gratitude to His faithful ones. I had trouble finding where in the bible God shows gratitude to man. If anyone would know please share. I have settled with honouring us. May we be encouraged even as we soldier on through this last mile. It has not been easy for me and I know to you as well, for we are all going through fiery trials that we may experience His GLORY. You are all in my prayers for GRACE multiplied to abound to us all so that we may not only finish, but finish triumphantly! This is the first part of a message the Lord gave and it will follow after this one and I feel we all need some encouragement.

THANK YOU daughter/son for being faithful in your journey and walk with Me. THANK YOU for not giving up even when you did not understand. THANK YOU for holding firmly in Me and never wavering. THANK YOU for answering My call over your life and coming to Me and knowing Me. THANK YOU for seeking Me with all your heart, even when you didn't see or know the end. THANK YOU for abiding in Me and seeking Me in My Word. THANK YOU for carrying your cross and following Me. When situations got tougher in your journey, you embraced it without complaining and declared it My will be done and not your will. THANK YOU for leading your family and others in My ways. THANK YOU for feeding the hungry and orphaned even when you had nothing and were in need yourself. THANK YOU for putting Me and My kingdom first. THANK YOU for laying down your life and letting My will be done, a decision that cost you almost everything, yet remaining faithful. THANK YOU for your heart of gratitude even when nothing was coming your way. THANK YOU for choosing Me and My ways over the world and your ways. THANK YOU for carrying My burden for a lost and dying world, and because of this, many have been rescued and have received My MERCY. THANK YOU for denying yourself the pleasures of this world, for you have now GAINED ME, MY FULLNESS in you. THANK YOU FOR YOUR FAITHFULNESS. Your reputation meant nothing to you in defending My word and giving My warnings. You have paid a high price and surrendered ALL for Me.

Words cannot express in your understanding how GRATEFUL I AM. You can only wait and see your REWARDS in heaven and a position that awaits you. You are now MY BRIDE, one that I look forward to wed on that day as we consummate our love. That you will forever be by My side and everything that is Mine, will be yours. Everything you have lost in this world, you have gained ten times more in Me and in heaven. Nothing has been in vain nor a waste.

Now the world needs you. All the lost, the confused, the ignorant, the foolish virgins, must now come to the same knowledge of TRUTH that you have labored diligently to attain. You will teach them my TRUTH that will set them free from their mental and spiritual bondage. You will shine My LIGHT in them and the blindness will fall off. They will finally see what was hidden from them. In My POWER and AUTHORITY you will proclaim My TRUTH; heal the sick and raise the dead. You will break strongholds and chains and set the prisoners free from darkness. Nothing will be impossible for you.

My Spirit will come strongly upon you and has been doing so in you to fully anoint you for the time and work ahead. This work is almost complete and My

SEAL of APPROVAL comes to you. As My judgments fall, My BRIDE will ARISE with power and authority. I will raise a standard against the flood of the enemy. He is already defeated and you are VICTORIOUS! I delight in you and far you have come and you will soon be exalted for My GLORY. You will defeat and rise above your flesh limitations once and for all. Your full DESIRE will only be for Me and nothing else, especially your flesh. You will rise with many gifts that My Spirit has been working in you and they will come to full manifestation. Your training will not only be on your assignment, but also in these gifts and much more. You will learn how to work together, in pairs and alone. You will be fully Mine with a new name and position in My Kingdom and you manifest the same in all its fullness. This name is part of Me because we shall be ONE. What I know, you will know and do. Your glory days are ahead, not far off.

Now the world goes DARK as My judgments now fall. All have been warned and those that remain in Me will see calamities, but they will not come near them. In Me they will have their being. As for the rest of the world, they will suffer for my gift of salvation; for My name, they will offer their own lives. Many will perish and many will take the mark of their doom to eternity. Others will finally know what time it is and take refuge in the mountains. Their life will be one of fleeing and hiding from the authorities day and night. They will know no rest until I come for them. This is what must now be for they have chosen their way over Mine. In their strength and effort will they protect themselves and their loved ones. Their only hope is to come together with others of the same mind to get through each day.

This is not My will and desire, for I desire they come to Me now while I am still calling. To REPENT of their ways and walk in My ways, a gift freely given, for I PAID it ALL. Their UNBELIEF will cost them everything and it pains Me to see how the enemy has deceived them. He has set them up for mass and total destruction and they are blindly being led over the cliff. Their only hope at this point is My MERCY. Continue to pray for My MERCY to snatch many from the pits of hell. Rebellion is a great evil that will lead many to their death. So now, shall it be.

As for you, FOCUS on what lies ahead and the work cut out for you. Soon you will be called and trained for it. I rejoice in you and the souls you will bring to My kingdom. You are cherished and loved. ABIDE in Me as I ABIDE in you, to bring you to the FULLNESS of Who I AM and your call. HUMILITY has been your greatest asset and has qualified you to carry My GLORY. Now watch as I EXALT you beyond your wildest dreams or imagination that will silence all who know you, who have seen you as nobody. For I use the foolish things to shame the wise, the weak to shame the strong and the poor to shame the rich. I raise from nothing to everything and many will be silenced. Gird up My children; soon you will arise in ALL MY GLORY!

The Great Reset

DIANA PULLIAM

BTHENETWORK.COM

For the last several months, the Lord's been speaking to me about particular words/dreams He's given which have already been shared. He's now giving much more revelation and interpretation, bringing them together to show a general overview of what's ahead. Please pray over this message before proceeding.

I recently participated in a couple podcasts, discussing what season we are in, and how to know. As mentioned during such, even if we don't know the day or the hour, Jesus made plain we're to know the season. He called the religious leaders of His day "hypocrites" because they could look at the sky and predict the weather, but were unable to discern the signs of the times (Matt 16:3). Please re-read that last part, as He was saying something huge.

Before proceeding, I need to point out; This post is addressed to the Remnant of God – the very Bride of Jesus Christ. Although we are going into very sobering times, what the Lord's pointing towards should thrill and encourage each and every one of us! Again, I ask you to pray, and bear with me as you read to the end. This post is longer than normal because there's a few things which must be covered first, as they have been lost and forgotten.

The Word of God says in Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge..." and that applies to the Israelites of the Old Testament, as well as the spiritual Israelites of the New Testament.

In Genesis 1:14, God says, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons (the word for seasons is translated from the word "moed"). Psalms 104:19 says, "He made the moon to mark the seasons..." Again, the word "seasons" is "moed," which means appointed times or appointed seasons. So God uses the lights in the heavens, the sun and moon, to mark God's appointed times or seasons.

As mentioned, Jesus ridiculed the religious leaders of His day, calling them hypocrites, because they could look at the sky to predict weather – but not discern the signs of the times!

In a post written in February 2021, titled 'Look Back on What You Were Shown,' the Lord reminded me of what I'd written back in 2014 regarding the 2014-15 blood moon tetrad series, and how it was like a billboard, God giving us a big heads up to what was coming up ahead, such as you see on a road trip. These blood moons on holy days were pointing towards a Moed. They were pointing towards a season set aside by God up ahead. Paul told us in Colossians 2:17 that the holy days (festivals/sabbaths) were a shadow of things to come – pointing towards something. That something was the time we are soon to enter.

A couple weeks later, towards the end of February, the Lord said, “The Last Week will soon begin,” and immediately took me to the 70th week of Daniel, which is the last 7year period in the 490 years decreed as punishment for the people of God. You can read about this beginning in Daniel 9:20. But only 483 years of the punishment was carried out by the time Jesus the Messiah was cut off, leaving that last 7year period for the time of the end – for our day.

The word tells us in Daniel 9:26-27, the “prince who is to come will confirm a covenant with many for one week (7 years). And in the middle of this week, he’ll bring an end to sacrifice and offering. Daniel 12:11 says that from the time he stops the sacrifices and sets up the abomination of desolation, there will be 1,290 days left!

Saints, that’s 3 ½ years left from the time he breaks the covenant mid-week! Right after it talks about there being 1,290 days left after the daily sacrifice is taken away, it says in verse 12, “Blessed is he who waits and comes to the 1,335 days. So the word’s saying those who wait and patiently endure up to the 45 day marker BEFORE the treaty’s broken are blessed! Saints, I believe this is telling us the time frame of the rapture of the wheat harvest, the innumerable multitude described in Rev. 7:9-14, those who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb. This event happens after the 3 ½ year judgment period – before the final 3 ½ year wrath period.

Before we leave the book of Daniel, it should be noted that there’s only 12 chapters. Beginning in chapter 7, continuing to the end of the book, God gives Daniel an overview of the wars, the rise and fall of kingdoms – all the way to the time of the end. In the last chapter, Daniel asks to be shown more, and asks, “What shall be the end of these things.” God tells him, to go his way, for the words are sealed up till the time of the end, and that none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand. So, if we ARE at the time of the end, and you and I are part of the WISE, we should be getting revelation about this book! We all need to seek further understanding in what the Lord wants to reveal in this hour.

As previously mentioned, this message is addressed to the Remnant Bride; the group first mentioned in Rev. 7:3-8. A description of this group is found in Revelation 14:1-4, "...The 144000 who were redeemed from the earth... These were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. The word first fruit implies there'll be more to follow. The innumerable multitude described later in chapter 7:9-14, appear before the throne – after the 144K.

Before going further, it needs to be said; Many of you believe you cannot be part of this 144000 first fruits group because you assume you're not an Israelite. As most of you know, the Israelites divided into two groups, the southern "House of Judah," which mostly consisted of Judah, Benjamin, and some of the tribe of Levi, and then the northern "House of Israel," which were the other 10 tribes with some Levites. When the northern 10 tribes were taken into captivity, they were never gathered back into the land of Israel, but scattered among the nations, and assembled amongst the peoples, and for the most part lost their identity.

The lost ten tribes don't know who they are, but God does. And just as the lineage of Jesus himself contained individuals who weren't physical bloodline Israelites; think of Ruth the Moabite, or Rahab the Canaanite in Jericho, Bathsheba the Hittite, etc., so do those within these tribes. But the point is, many reading this are most likely Israelites, having Israelite blood in your veins, and part of the 144,000 – because this message is addressed to YOU!

One thing we know for sure; the 144,000 first fruits is a very small group of Saints. But this group has a very critical role in the time just ahead involving that last week, the time we are on the cusp of entering right now!_

God asked me a question back in February, 2021, as I was completing the article 'Look Back on What You Were Shown' regarding the 2014-15 blood moon series, which encased a Shemitah year. Out of the blue He asked,

"When is the Jubilee?"

I was faithful to relay that question in the article last year, but continued pondering it in my heart – until the Lord gave the answer a few months ago.

Saints, here we are seven years later in another Shemitah year, which ends this September, 2022. The Jubilee year came at the end of every seven Shemitah cycles. Every 49 years, there was to be a 50th year of Jubilee added before the seven-year cycles began again.

The Jubilee was a great economic reset for God's people. You can read about it in Lev. 25:8-14. It was like a SUPER SHEMITAH, in that, everything was to reset that year – a Sabbath rest for the people of God, no sowing, all properties were to go back to the original owners. Each one of God’s people were to return to their possession – their inheritance. Slaves were set free. The Bible calls it a year of release. The people of God were to consecrate the 50th year by blowing the trumpet of Jubilee on the tenth day of the seventh month, on the day of Atonement, as they proclaim Liberty (freedom) throughout their land. Paul made two things clear in Col. 2:16-17:

- We are not to judge one another, or be in contention, over the festivals or sabbaths, whether we observe or don’t observe. (That is not the topic here).
- The holy days/festivals and sabbaths are a shadow of things to come.

In verse 17, the Greek word “mello” translated to come is a present active participle, meaning events yet future – something pending. Before addressing the spiritual implications of the Jubilee for the people of God, let’s briefly look at the festivals themselves for an example of how they picture God’s plan/blueprint of salvation. Please make note, for lack of space the descriptions are very general and from a New Testament perspective.

Passover: Pointed the Israelites towards the need for a savior – the perfect lamb of God to pay for sin once and for all. Jesus fulfilled.

Days of Unleavened Bread: Pictured the need to remove the leaven/ sin out of our lives. This can only be done through the work of the cross. Jesus fulfilled.

Feast of Firstfruits: The first fruits/wave sheaf offering begins the countdown to Pentecost. Jesus was crucified on Passover, and was in the grave 3 days and 3 nights. After His resurrection, He went and presented Himself as the first fruit wave sheaf offering before the Father on the first day of the week – the morrow after the Sabbath as directed (John 20:17) . That’s when the countdown to Pentecost begins. If they’d accepted Jesus as the offering “on their behalf” (Lev. 23:11), they’d know which “morrow after the Sabbath” to begin the 50-day countdown to Pentecost. Jesus fulfilled.

Pentecost: Originally recognized as the celebration of the gathering of the first fruits spring harvest. Jesus sent the Comforter as promised on this day. Pentecost commemorates the descent of the promised Holy Spirit on the Apostles and others gathered who were waiting as Jesus instructed. Jesus Fulfilled.

The Feast of Trumpets/Rosh Hashanah: Pictures the blowing of the trumpet at the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ. Pending fulfillment.

The Day of Atonement/Yom Kippur : Pictures the day all sins are placed upon the head of the devil and he's bound for a 1,000 years. Pending fulfillment.

Feast of Tabernacles/Booths: Seven-day festival, picturing the 1,000-year millennial reign of Jesus Christ over the earth. Pending fulfillment.

The Last Great Day: The day after tabernacles. Pictures the Great White Throne Judgment. Pending fulfillment.

God gave the Israelites His blueprint/plan of redemption for mankind through His holy festival days and various sabbaths. It's clear they are a shadow of things to come, with some still pending fulfillment. Absolutely everything points to Jesus Christ.

Saints, there's a reason God asked, "When Is the Jubilee?" I'm convinced it begins at the end of this Shemitah for the House of God. The Israelites ceased keeping Jubilee after the dispersion of the tribes, and for all intents and purposes lost track of when it's to be kept. But God has not lost track.

The last week, what we know as the 7-year tribulation period, will soon begin. I believe the Jubilee year precedes it. A huge eye opener was when the Lord kept showing me how the term "Economic Reset" was constantly being thrown around by the powers of darkness. He showed it to be the devil's version/imitation of God's Jubilee.

The devil's "Jubilee" is also an economic reset, but entails everything being taken from the people; taking full control of every aspect of their life. He believes he's the rightful owner of all God's creation and will attempt to transfer all to himself. His reset will include money, land, food, animals, humans etc. The "Jubilee" of the devil and that of God are 180 degrees opposite of one another. The goal of the wicked one's reset will be to destroy, and enslave what's left. But the Jubilee of God begins with His people sounding a trumpet and proclaiming LIBERTY (Lev. 25:10). "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty..." (2 Cor. 3:17).

This reset will happen prior to, or at the beginning of, the last 7-year period in order to prepare/equip His Remnant Bride for what comes next!

The darkness will grow extremely dark, coming in like a flood; and our God will raise up a standard against it. It will be a time just ahead when persecution against the Saints begins to mushroom. This will act as a catalyst to finish Her purification – burning up any remaining impurities and dross. His Temple will then be ready to be filled with Him.

The Remnant Bride will come to the place where she lifts up her voice in One Accord, asking her Father to look on their threats and grant to her that with all boldness she may speak His word, by stretching out His hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the NAME OF JESUS! And just as happened in Acts 4:31, they were then filled with the Spirit and went out to speak the word of God with all BOLDNESS!

This is when the LORD fills His Temple with His GLORY! The Jubilee of God entails the restoration and transfer of ALL things belonging to His Remnant being given back. We are talking about the power and authority Jesus originally gave His people, which was usurped by the enemies of God while the Church slept.

This Firstfruits Remnant Bride will receive a transformed body. This will be the time of Isaiah, 60:102, “Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you.” The Remnant Bride must have transformed bodies to do what she’ll be called upon to do.

The Lord’s shown even her memory will be restored! The knowledge and understanding of her identity in Jesus Christ will be given back, and she’ll go forth in His AUTHORITY and POWER!

During this Jubilee, she finally enters her rest, taking her seat in Christ Jesus at the right hand of the Father. This is just ahead, when God’s Firstfruits Remnant/Bride is sent forth.

This 144,000 Firstfruits group will be used by God to go forth as the judgments of God begin to fall. They will assist in lighting the fire in those previously lukewarm (foolish virgins), as God confirms His word with signs and wonders. Most of the foolish virgins will be included in the next harvest as they fall to their knees seeking the Lord their God, and be included in the “innumerable multitude” which appears before the throne of God mid-tribulation (Rev 7:9-14), their robes made white in the blood of the Lamb.

How long will the redeemed 144,000, first fruits group, be here after the tribulation begins? Will it be 40 days like our bridegroom? After He was transformed, He remained for 40 days instructing His followers concerning the Kingdom of God. Or, will the 144,000 be performing missions back and forth throughout the 3 ½ year tribulation, after which the innumerable multitude are raptured? The Lord's never spoken to me about that. All I know is, when the calamities begin – I'm here doing the works of Jesus. I've been shown that many times.

Saints, Jesus says it's the hypocrites who cannot discern the signs of the times. Our God gave the lights in the heavens for seasons and signs; He gave His Festivals/Holy days/ Sabbaths as shadows of things to come. He's spoken to us by His prophets throughout scripture to give the overview of all things up to our day and beyond.

And He's given His people the Jubilee, which points towards the restoration of all things. He provides everything needed to prepare and equip His Remnant Bride for what comes next – the greatest harvest to ever hit the planet!

All things point to His plan of redemption through Jesus Christ. What a wonderful God we serve!

Please pray over this message for understanding and interpretation, in how it may apply to you.

TO MY BRIDE PART 2: YOUR CUP OF SUFFERING WILL BE YOUR GLORY!

1 Peter 4:12-13

Dear friends, don't be surprised at the fiery trials you are going through, as if something strange were happening to you. Instead, be very glad—for these trials make you partners with Christ in his suffering, so that you will have the wonderful joy of seeing his glory when it is revealed to all the world.

2 Corinthians 4:16-17

That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are being renewed every day. For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever!

Romans 8:18

Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later.

I am drawing My own close to Me in a big way and I am continually doing a work in them. Those that have yielded to Me are experiencing My Spirit in a mighty way, for I have and must remove what is left of you and fill you with My FULLNESS. There is no other way to face and stand in what's coming. It must be in Me or nothing at all. Without me infilling you this way, you will be like those in the world, there would be no difference. My FULLNESS in you is the differentiating factor with those in the world. But to rise in all the chaos and darkness, it can only happen this way, and so, spend as much time as possible with me in the secret place. ABIDE here, for it is in this place I do all that I need to do in you. Outside of Me, you are alone and subject to the winds and torrents of the world, and you will be blown away.

SEPARATE from this world, and if you are Mine in TRUTH, this will not be a struggle for you, for you have known Me and My ways. My ways are PURE and yours need to be as well. To the FAITHFUL I am showing Myself faithful; to the PURE, I am showing Myself pure that their ways may be aligned to Mine; and to the BLAMELESS, I am showing Myself blameless, even keeping your body, soul and spirit blameless to the very end. This will and cannot happen automatically, you MUST ABIDE in Me and with Me in the secret place.

You are the instrument in My hand that I will use and I have kept you hidden for such a time as this that is now upon the world. What you did not understand will be made clear to you-who you are and your assignment specific to you, as we bring in the greatest harvest in the history of mankind. All your life has been a preparation for what is now here. You cannot see it or feel it, but believe it, for it is who you are. Allow Me to do this work in you, for you need it and those whom you will be ministering to will respond to it.

I am doing a NEW thing, do you not perceive it? Do you not feel it in the spirit and in your spirit? A shift has taken place and those that are prepared and ready will manifest in the new. Many are called and were called, but very few chosen for they are the ones that responded. Your journey has not been easy, but one of total surrender and sacrifice of your identity and future. You placed it all in My hands and trusted Me with it. Now watch what I have done with all that you gave Me. For what you thought was your cup of suffering (and indeed it was) is now going to be the very cup I pour back into you, worked out together for your good and for My GLORY, that will now rise upon you. Nothing was ever in vain, all the time you gave was not wasted. All your pain, tears, trials, rebukes from people and persecutions have moved you from glory to glory, to this point in time, to go and conquer, and no evil will prevail against you!

For this moment did you come into this world, predestined in Me for this very work that is now before you. Yes, darkness is all around you, but wait and see how my beautiful BRIDE will shine her LIGHT, radiating My GLORY to the ends of the earth. Evil will flee, and souls will come to your light and to all eternity. Press in just a little bit more, My GRACE is sufficient and My strength surrounds you. Therefore, do not grow weary, for you are about to rise into a mighty ARMY to bring My kingdom here on earth. Be still and know that I AM God.

My Sons and Daughters, continue to ABIDE, for this is where your victory has been won. Draw from Me ALL you will need to RISE above all the chaos coming and to carry many with you. Be faithful to the very end, I am with you and I will not let you go.

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books and do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in to deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. “Such a debt, who can pay?”

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. “Such a debt, who can pay?” This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, “Such a debt, who can pay?” the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar’s signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is “Such a debt, who can pay?” If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. “Paid in full by Jesus Christ.”

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God’s Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), “As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one.”

(Romans 3:23 NIV), “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

(Luke 5:32 NIV), “I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), “For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), “That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shall be saved.

The Sinner’s Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being "Born Again."
