Introduction

Dear Prophetic Friends,

These last four weeks have been something else. I have had days in this period that I thought I would not see the day for me to do another newsletter. God had told me that I was needed and I was beginning to think that my work was done and maybe I was not needed anymore. I will be sharing more on my health in my health update below.

But for today, this is the best I have felt in at least a month. I have been wanting to put out a health update to let you know I was OK but I have not had the energy to do it. I prayed I could do a health update today and God is not only answering that prayer but He is giving me the energy to do a full newsletter. Plus My eyes are better today than they have been in a month. I still need to see an eye doctor but I praise the Lord for better vision today.

This newsletter is very important, It has important news stories that you will not see on normal news networks and I have some encouraging news about heaven that you don't want to miss.

I have concluded that when you realize you are only a heart beat away from your home in eternity, your thoughts may wander more in the direction of where you will spend eternity.

Is this the last one?

The Last one??? What last one??? I am talking about the last 7 year cycle before the beginning of the last seven years leading up to the Battle of Armageddon.

These seven year cycles are called Shemitah Cycles. Do you remember, seven years ago when we saw the conclusion of the last Shemitah Cycle? Wow the hype of the coming rapture was so huge that I even thought we would see the rapture by early 2016.

I remember when Mark Biltz said that if the rapture didnt happen in September of 2015, we would have to wait another seven years. I did not want to wait another seven years. But here we are seven years later.

Now think back, Was the world on the edge of WW3?? No. Was the world facing global famine? No. Was we seeing a global pandemic? No. Was we seeing a global energy crisis or the possibility of a real economic collapse? Again No.

But if you ask all these questions for this ending of this Shemitah Cycle ending September 27th, this year, the answer is Yes, all the way down the list.

I was watching Mark Biltz on the Jim Bakker show a few weeks ago and he was saying all the same things he said seven years ago. I believe this time he is right, except, I do not believe we can know the very day it all happens.

If Mark Biltz is right this time as I sort of do believe, then this ending of this seven years will be followed by the last seven years called Daniels 70th week. Or also called the seven years of tribulation and the wrath of God.

Read this a couple of times so it sinks in, In less than 30 days we could see the beginning of the Great Tribulation.

If this is true, then most Christians will also believe we will see the rapture of the Church. I see things slightly different now, I still see the main rapture happening in the middle of the 7 years, When the main rapture happens the Bible says that Jesus is coming for a bride without spot or wrinkle, this is the rub, the lukewarm church is not currently ready to be the Bride of Christ.

Don't get mad at me, We only need to walk daily with Jesus and serve Him daily, and obey Him and confess our sins to Him Daily. Study the Lord's prayer. It was a daily prayer and gives us daily instruction on following Jesus as one of His disciples. Please check it out, most Christians miss what He said, that if you don't forgive anyone who sins against you, God will not forgive your sins, Again check it out,

Can we know the Day or the Hour?

Below is a letter on this topic that I recently sent to a friend.

Hi Friend

I agree that the transformation will happen by the end of this sabbatical cycle. ending Sept 27th. This event starts on Sept 25th.

But because the Bible says no man knows the day or the hour, I believe the big day will be sooner.

I may be wrong but I will continue to look for a sooner day until there are no more sooner days to look at.

Didn't Jesus say that only the father knows the day? If this is true and it is, then Jesus does not even know the day, only the father.

Mark Biltz is a Jewish Rabbi and other prophetic teachers are saying a day during the feast of trumpets will include the rapture, war and economic collapse.

If Jesus does not know the day but Mark Biltz and others do, does this mean they are smarter than Jesus?

If you read Psalms 81:2 it says blow the trumpet at the time of the new moon, It does not say on the day, it says at the time, this could be a day before or after, then read the next verse it carries on this same instruction, saying blow the trumpet at the time, not exact day of the full moon calling the full moon a solemn feast day.

Now bear with me. If the beginning of 6th seal is triggered by a ww3 event, and they set the day to fire missiles at the USA, what would be a top choice day for WW3 to begin in September?

The Destruction of Mystery Babylon is focused on hitting NY city. When was the last attempt by our enemies to take out NY city? It was 9-11

9-10-22 is the full moon, give an extra day and you have 9-11-22 which is Sunday resurrection day

This is only a watch day, I am not setting a day like feast of trumpets, if it was on a Jewish festival day wouldn't Jesus know? I don't know either

Jesus was the first fruits of the resurrection, we are the second batch of first fruits. Sunday makes more sense to me

Also remember Pearl Harbor, we were attacked on a Sunday while we were asleep

Also the 9-11 attack was planned for that day, our enemies are also planning on a certain day on their calendar, I don't think they are watching God's calendar

My Health Update

About four weeks ago I had a serious health emergency. It started with water retention in my lower legs, in a week it had moved all the way up my legs. I tried finding a natural solution to no avail. When I shared this with my Physician she went ballistic and told me to get to the emergency room ASAP.

When I arrived there, the emergency Doctor told my my physician had made the right call. I did not know my blood pressure had crept up really high. This was causing heart disease, my heart was much bigger than normal and was not able to circulate the water out of my legs. Unchecked I was a candidate for a heart attack and congestive heart failure.

The good news is that it was only stage one and should be treatable, I still need to set an appointment with a Cardiologist this week. I was in the hospital for six days so they were able to clear the water from my legs.

These last couple of weeks home I have been very drained of energy. Except for today. God has been good giving me the energy to put out this newsletter. I also found out from the many blood tests that My prostate cancer prospects are very bad and I also need to set an appointment with an oncologist. ASAP

As bad as it sounds I am not in any panic, I will make my appointment with needed doctors but I have already made my appointment for the place God has prepared for me in Heaven. God has assured me many times that He is not going to take me early but will heal me to have a part in the last days revival. I am a winner no matter the out come.

I do ask that you continue to keep me in your prayers for my total healing,

Financial Needs

Things are currently more challenging, My God is still able and I only Ask that you pray that all my needs will be met by my Gods riches in Glory. I have no doubt that my God still owns the cattle on a thousand hills.

I regret my health and lack of energy has prevented me from doing more to reach out and thank those who give to my ministry. Please accept my thanks here and remember God totally keeps track of your gifts to the work of the Lord.

War Analysis Update

I could write a large chapter on this, but much I have already said and warned about in my last several Newsletters. I believe WW3 is imminent, Read the stories below. I am not alone. Major figures are saying the same thing. Personally I am surprised this event has not already happened.

I have made this point in recent newsletter, I believe both Global and North American leaders are taunting both Russia and China to start WW3. The USA is Mystery Babylon and the Bible says it will be destroyed in one hour. I don't see All of the USA destroyed, only key cities and infrastructure.

Ass I have already said in other newsletters, This could be accomplished in one hour with just a missile attack by the submarines by our enemies. The number of submarines held by Russia, China, North Korea and Iran are three times as many as the American submarine fleet.

I see the possibility of WW3 being imminent and I don't believe it will be held off past 2022. I know we don't want to think this as possible. Please don't just take my word, Spend time in prayer and ask God if he has a warning for you and your family.

Henry Kissinger: US 'at Edge of War' With Russia, China

16:19 GMT 13.08.2022

- Former US Secretary of State Henry Kissinger believes that Washington is teetering on the brink of war with Moscow and Beijing on the matters that the United States co-created.

"We are at the edge of war with Russia and China on issues which we partly created, without any concept of how this is going to end or what it is supposed to lead to," Kissinger told the Wall Street Journal.

The veteran foreign policy scholar said that the United States can only avoid accelerating tensions and "create options."

As for Ukraine, Kissinger thought that in the past it was best fit to act as a buffer between Russia and the West, "something like Finland." However, Russia's military operation in Ukraine changed his view, making him believe that "one way or the other, formally or not, Ukraine has to be treated in the aftermath of this as a member of NATO." The former secretary of state also argued that Russia would retain Crimea and parts of Donbass as a result of a plausible settlement with Kiev.

During the World Economic Forum in May, Kissinger called for a diplomatic settlement in Ukraine to restore the status quo ante bellum, i.e. the situation as it was before Russia launched its special operation on February 24.

Henry Kissinger, Father of US-China Détente, Warns Biden Against 'Endless Confrontations' With PRC

20 July, 16:33 GMT

Last month, Kissinger, the man who helped reestablish US-China ties in the 1970s, warned President Joe Biden against "endless confrontations" with Beijing.

"Biden and previous administrations have been too much influenced by the domestic aspects of the view of China," Kissinger told Bloomberg News Editor-in-Chief John Micklethwait. "It is, of course, important to prevent Chinese or any other country's hegemony."

The 99-year-old diplomat said that geopolitics today requires "Nixonian flexibility" to help ease tensions between Washington and Beijing.

Pope Francis: 'World War III has been declared.'

Gerard O'Connell June 14, 2022

“World War III has been declared,” Pope Francis said in a wide-ranging conversation with the editors of European Jesuit publications on May 19, referring to Russia’s attack against Ukraine. The conversation was published by the Italian Jesuit publication La Civiltà Cattolica and the secular newspaper La Stampa on June 14 and is sure to spark discussion.

“The world is at war,” he said. “For me, today, World War III has been declared. This is something that should give us pause for thought. What is happening to humanity that we have had three world wars in a century?”

Francis spoke about the complex background to the war in Ukraine and the interests involved, including those of arms manufacturers. He denounced “the brutality and ferocity” of the Russian troops and praised the heroism and courage of the Ukrainians. At the same time, he said, “we do not see the whole drama behind the war, which was perhaps somehow either provoked or not prevented.”

“For me, today, World War III has been declared. This is something that should give us pause for thought. What is happening to humanity that we have had three world wars in a century?”

2 US warships sail near Taiwan; China threatens military on ‘high alert’

AUGUST 29, 2022 RYAN MORGAN

The U.S. Navy sailed two warships through the Taiwan Strait over the weekend, marking the first U.S. transit of the waterway since House Speaker Nancy Pelosi visited the island earlier this month. China responded by placing its military on “high alert.”

ALERT: China's Navy is growing toward high seas supremacy while US Navy is shrinking its fleet

On Sunday, the Japan-based U.S. 7th Fleet announced the Ticonderoga-class guided-missile cruisers USS Antietam (CG 54) and USS Chancellorsville (CG 62) sailed through the waterway separating Taiwan from mainland China. The Navy characterized the transit as a routine operation in sea regions where “freedoms of navigation and overflight apply in accordance with international law.”

“These ships transited through a corridor in the Strait that is beyond the territorial sea of any coastal State,” the U.S. 7th Fleet said. “The ship’s transit through the Taiwan Strait demonstrates the United States’ commitment to a free and open Indo-Pacific. The United States military flies, sails, and operates anywhere international law allows.”

Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Lijian Zhao characterized the latest U.S. freedom of navigation operation as “provocation aimed at ‘freedom of trespassing.’”

Zhao said the latest U.S. move in the Taiwan Strait “constitutes deliberate sabotage of regional peace and stability.”

“China once again urges the US side to stop fudging, hollowing out and distorting the one-China principle, observe basic norms in international relations including respecting other countries’ sovereignty and territorial integrity and non-interference in their internal affairs, earnestly abide by the one-China principle and stipulations of the three China-US joint communiqués,” Zhao said. “And stop being a trouble maker for peace and stability in the Taiwan Strait.”

Senior Colonel Shi Yi, spokesperson for the Chinese People’s Liberation Army (PLA) Eastern Theater Command said the U.S. side “hyped” the latest Taiwan Strait transit. In response to the U.S. transit, he said the Chinese side “conducted security tracking and monitoring of the U.S. warships’ passage in the whole course, and had all movements of the two U.S. warships under control.”

“The troops of the PLA Eastern Theatre Command always stay on high alert and get ready to thwart any provocation,” the PLA official added.

The U.S. Navy routinely conducts transits through the Taiwan Strait in what it refers to as freedom of navigation operations (FONOPs).

Though Taiwan governs itself as a de facto independent nation, China considers the island a part of its territory.

Since 1979, the U.S. has recognized the People’s Republic of China (PRC) as the sole legal government of China through the “One-China” principle. The U.S. also maintains a position of strategic ambiguity over whether it will intervene on Taiwan’s behalf if mainland China invades.

This latest transit comes just weeks after Pelosi visited Taiwan on Aug. 2, sparking outrage in China.

Multiple Chinese officials called Pelosi’s visit to Taiwan a violation of Chinese sovereignty. China further responded to Pelosi’s Taiwan visit by holding military live-fire drills all around the island for several days.

Biden giving primetime address calling MAGA ‘extreme threat to democracy’

President Joe Biden speaks to Department of Defense personnel at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C., Feb. 10,

President Joe Biden will give a prime-time speech on Thursday attacking supporters of former President Donald Trump as an “extreme threat to democracy.” The president has become increasingly verbally aggressive toward his political opponents in recent weeks, even going so far as to accuse MAGA Republicans – referring to the Trump slogan “Make America Great Again” – of encouraging “semi-fascism.”

Your Window Of Opportunity To Get Prepared Before The Catastrophic Events Of 2023 Is Rapidly Closing

August 31, 2022 by Michael

I don't know how I could say it any more clearly. At this moment, the vast majority of the population is completely and utterly unprepared for what is ahead of us. Every day, there are more signs in the news that global events are starting to spiral out of control, but instead of using this summer to get prepared much of the population is partying instead. This greatly frustrates me, because I have been working extremely hard to try to sound the alarm. People should be using the window of opportunity that we have this summer to take action, because the months ahead of us will be filled with famine, war, pestilence, natural disasters and severe economic troubles. Summer officially ends in late September, and I believe that global events will accelerate greatly throughout the remainder of 2022 and into the early stages of 2023.

Most people always think that they have more time to prepare.

But as the people of Mississippi's largest city recently found out, the opportunity to get prepared can end very abruptly...

Mississippi's largest city has run out of water indefinitely, leaving 180,000 locals unable to drink from their taps, flush toilets, or shower.

The ailing OB Curtis water plant in Jackson was taken offline after it was overwhelmed by recent flooding, which destroyed backup systems put in place to relieve the elderly plant's main treatment machinery.

Now, the capital city that is home to 150,000 people and 30,000 surrounding communities are pressed to conserve their rations as officials begin to distribute cases of water bottles in a 'massively complicated logistical task.'

We are being told that it could take up to four months to completely repair the water plant. So what will all those people do as they wait? It is being reported that one prominent restaurant in Jackson is now being forced to spend 800 dollars a day on bottled water...

Restaurants in Mississippi's largest city are being driven into the ground by a water shortage that's forcing them to spend up to $800-a-day on bottled water.

Nick Wallace, a chef at Nissan Cafe at the Two Museums complex in Jackson: 'I am spending $800 a day on cokes and waters and getting no help from Jackson.'

Meanwhile, another Jackson restaurant called Walker's Dine-in has been forced to shell out $300-a-day on water.

This is yet another example that shows why having a plan for water should be absolutely central to your prepping plan.

Someday soon the water may stop coming out of your taps. If that happens, what will you do? And when a major disaster suddenly strikes, disease can often spread like wildfire.

Right now, approximately a third of Pakistan is covered by water, and doctors find themselves completely overwhelmed by the number of people that are suddenly ill...

Officials in Pakistan raised concern Wednesday over the spread of waterborne diseases among thousands of flood victims, as waters from powerful monsoon rains began to recede in many parts of the country.

Some doctors said initially they were seeing mostly patients traumatized by the flooding, but are now treating people suffering from diarrhea, skin infections and other waterborne ailments in the country's flood-hit areas. Many pregnant women living in flood-affected areas were also exposed to risks.

And all of the flooding has instantly created extremely serious food shortages in much of the country...

*Vegetable and fruit prices have soared in markets across Pakistan as devastating rains ruin crops and disrupt supplies, an early sign of how the worst floods in decades are creating food shortages at a time of financial crisis.

Pakistan's 220 million people are already facing rampant inflation, with consumer prices up 24.9 per cent year-on-year in July. The economy is in turmoil, with fast-depleting foreign reserves and a record depreciation of the rupee against the U.S. dollar.

In the eastern city of Lahore, close to the border with India and far from the worst floods in Sindh, prices of some vegetables have tripled.

Tonight, there will be countless men, women and children in Pakistan that will go to bed hungry. How would you and your family fare if a similar disaster suddenly struck where you live? Most Americans don't realize that food supplies are also getting tighter here in the United States.

The food that isn't being grown in 2022 will not be on our store shelves in 2023. In fact, we are being warned that we could be facing a very serious shortage of tomatoes in the months ahead...

*California's farmers grow nearly all of America's processing tomatoes, but this year is shaping up to be another poor harvest season. This means products like ketchup, salsa, and pasta sauce could soon be in short supply in stores across the county.

Drought, inflation, and supply chain issues are to blame for this possible shortage, according to California Tomato Growers Association President Mike Montna.

But Joe Biden says that everything is going to be just fine. You believe him, don't you? Before I end this article, I want to talk about energy. I have always urged my readers to do whatever they could to become more independent from the power grid. We are in the early stages of the worst global energy crisis in any of our lifetimes, and energy bills are soaring into the stratosphere all over the planet.

For example, just consider what is happening in Ireland...

Over the past week, shocked Europeans – mostly in the UK and Ireland – have been posting viral photos of shockingly high energy bills amid the ongoing (and worsening) energy crisis. Several of the posts were from small business owners who getting absolutely crushed right now, and won't be able to remain operational much longer.

*One such owner is Geraldine Dolan, who owns the Poppyfields cafe in Athlone, Ireland – and was charged nearly €10,000 (US$10,021) for just over two months of energy usage. As the Irish Times reports, “The cost of electricity to the Poppyfields cafe for 73 days from early June until the end of August came in at €9,024.70 an increase of 250 per cent in just 12 months. There doesn't include the €812.22 in VAT, which brought her total bill to €9,836.92.”

Sadly, this is just the beginning. As energy supplies get even tighter, energy bills are only going to go higher.

In Germany, some manufacturers have already chosen to halt production because of absurdly high energy bills...

*As the FT reports, German manufacturers are halting production in response to the surge in energy prices, a trend the government has described as “alarming”. German economy minister Robert Habeck said industry had worked hard to reduce its gas consumption in recent months, partly by switching to alternative fuels like oil, making its processes more efficient and reducing output. But he amusingly clarified, some companies had also “stopped production altogether” – a development he said was “alarming”.

“It's not good news,” he said, “because it can mean that the industries in question aren't just being restructured but are experiencing a rupture – a structural rupture, one that is happening under enormous pressure.”

This is not just a temporary problem. As I explained a few days ago, the prime minister of Belgium says that Europeans will be dealing with this energy crisis for the next five to ten years. Ouch.

Here in the United States, residents of California are being warned that there could actually be widespread blackouts this week right in the middle of a historic heatwave...

Much of Southern California remains under an excessive heat warning, with the state's grid operator warning that the high temperatures could lead to blackouts.

The state is facing a prolonged late-summer heat wave, with temperatures expected to reach as high as 115 degrees Fahrenheit in some parts, the National Weather Service (NWS) said.

This is yet another example that shows why you should not totally rely on our aging power grids.

In a desperate attempt to conserve energy, California residents are being asked to set their thermostats at 78 degrees or higher...

“If weather or grid conditions worsen, the ISO may issue a series of emergency notifications to access additional resources and prepare market participants and the public for potential energy shortages and the need to conserve,” CAISO officials warned Tuesday night. “The power grid operator expects to call on Californians for voluntary energy conservation via Flex Alerts over the long weekend.”

This could include asking residents to set thermostats to 78 degrees or higher, avoid large appliance use and EV charging, and turn off unnecessary lights between 4 p.m. and 9 p.m, when the grid is the most stressed.

Whatever you can do to become more independent of the system is good, because the system is failing. And all of the examples that I have shared in this article are relatively minor compared to the cataclysmic disasters that we will eventually see. So please, get prepared while you still can.

This summer will soon be over, and 2023 will be here before you know it.

Words from the Prophets

The Captivity

AUG 24, 2022 AT 9:07 PM
U B READY

8/24/2022

Jer. 50:2-3

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

My son, why do people doubt My Word? I have given My people, My Word as a guide – as a playbook to overcome the trials of this world. I have told My people what is coming. I have given examples of other kingdoms and what they did to bring about the judgments. I have sent My servants to warn and give instruction on how to stop My hand. Yet, throughout all time after the fall, man's heart is rebellious and hard. The people are stiff-necked, never to believe the truth. Death, destruction and CAPTIVITY are what I allow to bring My people back to Me, for it is all they know.

My son, I do not want any judgments to come, but that is the only way My people will wake up and repent. The sin of this nation – Mystery Babylon – has exceeded all nations of the world throughout all time. My judgments will be swift and final. Many things will occur at the same time, and My people will be caught unaware.

Only My Remnant have heard the warnings, just as it was in times of old. The Remnant followed My warnings from My prophets and lived. So it will be now – My Remnant will not be caught unaware. They will be filled mightily by My Spirit and lead the captives free!

My son, so much destruction is coming. Warn My body – if they will listen – that the demons of hell are loosed to destroy this world. War, famine, CAPTIVITY are what awaits this sin-ridden nation that refuses to repent. It will all stop with a flash, Then ALL THAT CAN BE SHAKEN, WILL SHAKE!! (The Lord showed me the flash of the asteroid hitting the earth – see past word/vision video “Great Ball of Fire” from 6/28/22).

Prepare, you watchmen! Warn My body! The time to repent is now! This word is for My Remnant, My body, My people. Tell the world to prepare, for the time of judgment is here.

Amen.

BIG ROCKS

John Shorey Comments, This is a very important word. This is all about our blind side. Is there something going on in your heart and life that you just don't see? Please have an open heart to receive this word. If you are not willing to be open and honest with yourself, You probably have an issue with pride. Pride could be your blindside , it was true for satan and it took him down.

U B READY, 08/30/2022

Isaiah 29:18-19, 18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

My son, as My children strive to serve Me, and as they make their way toward the finish, I WILL PLACE BIG ROCKS in their path.

Many, because they are deaf, will not hear what My Spirit is saying to them. Others who are blind to the deceptions in this world will stumble and fall over the BIG ROCKS.

These ROCKS I PLACE in your path have names such as PRIDE, ARROGANCE, ENVY, JEALOUSY, and the CARES of this world. I HAVE PLACED them so you cannot go around them WITHOUT REPENTANCE.

My son, ALL My Children must BREAK the BIG ROCKS in each and every life. Some of My children are strong, and when faced with the ROCKS, BLOW THEM UP with faith and My Word. Others, when the ROCKS are revealed, try to GO AROUND, only to come back to where they STARTED. While others will try to SPEAK to the ROCKS, only to FAIL for lack of faith.

BIG ROCKS are but LESSONS NEEDED to be able to STAND IN THIS LAST DAY.

My son, BIG ROCKS are also going to FALL FROM THE HEAVENS. Some will land in water, causing GREAT WAVES to crash onto the shores. Others will fall on land, causing much DEATH and DESTRUCTION.

Many say that is a lie — that I AM a God of Love, not of death and destruction. I say, I AM LOVE — but I AM also a JUST JUDGE, and justice must fall on unrepentant man.

So I say unto you, REPENT NOW! REPENT NOW! REPENT NOW! Turn from your evil ways and follow Me. I will give you rest and forgive your sins.

My son, I have given My children the ARMOR NEEDED TO STAND during the coming days. DO NOT RUN and HIDE YOURSELVES AWAY — thinking nothing will happen to you.

The SAFE ZONES ARE AREAS that will not be affected AS BADLY as other areas. They are NOT areas to run to and hide! The world is LOST, and just as My disciples went out into the world PREACHING THE GOSPEL, so will My true body DO THE SAME.

I have said nowhere in My Word to GO AND COWER from the world! I said, GO FORTH AND PREACH THE GOSPEL — EVEN UNTO DEATH!

My son, BIG ROCKS are going to fall on many roads, and MANY of those who call themselves My Bride WILL FALL.

PRAY THE BIG ROCKS CRUSH YOU, FOR I AM SENDING THEM TO MAKE YOU READY! I have said to BE READY, and this is what will help you BE READY.

COUNT IT ALL JOY when you are confronted by BIG ROCKS.

Read My Word, stay in My Word, and LEARN HOW TO BLOW THE BIG ROCKS UP! I love you, My children, and I know you will soon be DEMOLITION EXPERTS!

I AM COMING SOON, much sooner than even My elect think!

Amen.

Erins Mansion Dream home

Comments by John Shorey

I have read and studied the dreams and Ministry of Erin for at least three years, I look for red flags when reading prophetic dreams and prophecies. I consulted with a prophecy teacher friend and we both came to the same conclusion, that Erins ministry is the real deal.

I have shared this dream about mansions and heaven with some friends and some say it sounds too good to be true. I have at least a dozen books from people who have had near death experiences. When you eliminate the scams there is a similar picture painted about heaven.

In the last two months I have had two Christian friends tell me major misconceptions about heaven.. One thought heaven would be boring as we would be just floating on a cloud playing worship with a harp forever.

The other said we will not remember any friends or family and we will spend all of our time, forever worshipping at the throne. If this was true, why would we need a home in heaven?

I have come to know Erin and her husband personally and I am 100% convinced Jesus is totally involved in this ministry.

Some will say that not every thing she is shown is in the Bible. But I think of the verse, Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has it entered out thoughts the things that God has prepared for those who love our God. This is a slight paraphrase.

If more would see heaven as Erin and I do, I believe more would obey God as much as possible so as to not miss out on what God has prepared for us.

Closing comments,,If people think heaven will be boring, could this be why so many sinners have told me , “I would rather go to hell and party with my friend? I have read books on hell as well and it is no party, Most there will be in a dark vault by themselves along with demons who will torment them forever. Forgive me for being gross, but one story told of demonds clawing and biting all the flesh off your bones and when it was finished, you would be restored and it would start all over again.

When you finish reading my comments on hell and Erins description of heaven, Think about this. The devil does not want you to know how bad hell is and he does not want you to know how awesome heaven is. Therefore the devil did not have any part of encouraging you about how awesome heaven is. Even Jesus Said, “A house divided against itself will not stand”

Communion

- Dear Father,
- Thank You for another day and for not giving up on me. I love You, Lord. Forgive me for my trespasses this week. Please forgive those who have trespassed against me too. Lord, this has been difficult as all areas of my life are under attack.
- Jesus: “Erin, come up.”
- I was 25 years old again today as I saw Jesus in the distance and ran to Him. He stood up off of the large rock He was sitting on in order to hug me.

- Jesus: “Erin, I am so glad you came. I have missed you.”
- Me: “Oh, Lord, I am so sorry that I have not been here. This is where I have needed to be the most.”
- Jesus: “Erin, never forget your first love.”
- He reached for my hand as smiled and laughed. He walked me to one of the trees with fruit, wherein there are several of these trees in Heaven at various places. At first I thought that there was only one tree, but right outside the City where the Saints arrive is the River of Life along with rows of these trees. There are regular trees with fruit too wherein these all replenish an instant after a fruit is picked.
- Jesus: “Erin, you are thinking.” I was laughing and so was He.
- Me: “Yes. I was just curious about the location of these trees. I notice they are by the River of Life and the off-shoots of the river.”
- Jesus: “Well, it would stand to reason that the Tree of Life would always be close to the River of Life. Both work together.”
- Me: “I notice that it is so beautiful here. I never noticed the large boulder you rest on before.”
- There were indentations like seating was carved in them. If I could relate it to a stone on Earth, it was like a granite slab called ‘Bianco Antico’. It was white with veins of silver bronze and some platinum garnets.
- Me: “Lord, this rock seems alive the closer I look and is really beautiful”.
- He handed me a piece of fruit and I took a bite. It tasted like watermelon and peach with apricot. Wow, it tasted amazing and I had a biggest grin. He was watching me with delight as He knew I would be fascinated with this.
- Jesus: “This is good, right?”
- Me: “Lord, how do You create all of this? How do You always know me? You introduce me to things up here that I did not even notice were an amplified version of all things good on Earth such as the grapes, the soil and the fruit?”

- Jesus: “The difference is that before the fall of Earth the Garden on Earth was beautiful, abundant and perfect. Remember to study the things from the beginning before death. This spot on the Earth was formed by God.
- “However, when the sin occurred and Adam and Eve were cast out, they lost their access to the small portion of Heaven on Earth. They lost their ability to eat from the Tree of Life and bathe in the River of Life.
- “Slowly, after this, the Earth began to decay. The clock, or sundial, began the reversal of abundant life. With each tick of the clock and each second, there was more death, decay and sickness.
- “Here in Heaven, this is nothing like Earth. I am only showing you things that have relationship to things on Earth. Earth is a small shadow of Heaven, and a poor one at that. You know this.
- “Your life on Earth is becoming more difficult because you have seen more and more here. Your dreams and visions that I have granted you have ruined you for the Earth. You have been avoiding Me and finishing this dream.”
- Me: “Lord, I have? This is my favorite part of the dreams. My time with You in Heaven is my most joyous time. Why would I do this?”
- Jesus: “It is simple. You long to be here. There are no words to accurately describe what you have seen. However, you still have a burden to share and relay this to your friends so they too are encouraged. You have been assigned to journalism and this was never your plan”
- He laughed. I laughed with Him as really I do not like writing at all.
- Me: “I really need classes in basic grammar and punctuation.”
- Jesus: “You are exactly the right selection, Erin. If just grammar and punctuation are later corrected, then the content still remains unchanged, understand? If you begin to think about those things, you will miss the very essence of Me. Continue. If I wanted a scholar, I would call one to service, okay? Now, you have been attacked during this time, correct?”
- Me: “Yes. July has been a brutal month. I believed that it was a gentle reminder to get back to my first love.”
- I laughed, bowed and curtsied to Him. He laughed.

- Jesus: “Erin, do you understand the complete patterns of the dreams, the stories, the sequences and why I would do all of this now?”
- Me: “I believe the timing is because we are just moments from something that will change mankind. I believe You are coming soon.”
- Jesus: “I have spoken to others not near you, but in different circles, cultures and countries. There are patterns. The timing is based on a time coming where your focus needs to be Me and here. There have been things in place from the beginning. This is all in your Field Guide, the Word of Truth.
- “Remember, Israel is the gauge and the sundial. You have been given the information in advance. Some information is as clear as crystal. Other information is hidden and waiting to be revealed. However, all the information is there. The dreams are a mystery, but there are some things that you have skipped.”
- Me: “Lord, I was thinking of one the other day that coordinated with Ephraim. I saw the parking lot that was formed over the spot of the Temple. You showed me that, at one point, this was a potter’s field or dump site. I then heard the land was purchased.
- “The other thing I saw in a dream was some measurements from the City of Jerusalem. Though I am no surveyor, there is something to this, but I don’t understand it. There were things in the night sky that I didn’t understand. What about the shipwreck and the significance of the number there?”
- Jesus: “Are you now asking for help? You have been asking for Me to reveal the three, yet only one came and left. What were you looking for?”
- Me: “Lord, as You know, I am no scholar. Please use what we have been given to reveal things to us. Better yet, You can just tell me and then we can know.”
- Jesus: “Erin, there is a reason for ‘a village’. Many people have skills that can help. You must learn to work together. What is there is good, but there is still more. You must recognize help when it comes.
- “Wisdom also comes with experience. Too often, villagers want tickled ears daily instead. Sometimes, there are treasures buried in the field. There is a lot of information you have been given in these visits. What would you like?”

- Me: “Well, if I have a problem with plumbing, I call a plumber. If I have a pest, I call on an exterminator. If I can’t figure electrical on a plan, then I phone an electrician.”
- Jesus: “Finally, good, Erin. So you would like some help with surveying and perhaps Jewish history, archeology and sites? Perhaps astronomy as well?”
- Me: “Is there a way You can send help if You won’t reveal it directly?”
- Jesus: “Erin, there is a reason I do this. It is for your benefit as well as others. This is good confirmation. Through scholars, you can gain revelation, but revelation, as you know, all comes from the Holy Spirit. It takes the glory of God to conceal a matter and the honor of kings to search it out. All you need to do is ask.”
- Me: “Lord, I am asking now for help. Please, Lord, if You are truly coming soon, then open the flood gates and pour out the knowledge that we seek so that we may understand and be encouraged.”
- He waved for me to take another bite of the fruit. I began to laugh. I did and the fruit was wonderful.
- Jesus: “Now, we established that you would like more help. You are going to go back and look for treasure buried in your field. You are going to ask Me when you need help, right?” I nod ‘yes’. “Very good, Erin. Then what else am I missing here?”
- He was clearly waiting for me to ask.
- Me: “You were showing me Heaven.”
- Jesus: “Yes, your place.” He began to laugh.
- Me: “I love You so much, Lord. You are so amazing. I am so honored that You would love me so much. You should have been angry with me last time and burned me right up. Instead, You chase me.” I began to cry.
- Jesus: “Many people do not realize that My Word is based on love; the love for hearts. God looks at the heart. The story of your life is written on your heart and it is a love letter to Me as sure as you stand here today. Do not forget about the heart.
- Make no mistake, the Earth could have been destroyed at any given moment, just like Sodom and Gomorrah, but this has not happened yet. People that do not follow

Me, and even some who do, believe I am a punisher; a scary, cruel Savior just waiting in the shadows for one false move or sin, then you are erased.”

- I was laughing and shaking my head.
- Me: “Lord, I once thought You were like this.”
- Jesus: “Yes. If this were My character, you would have been gone a long time ago.” We both laughed as He was right. “The enemy is the counterfeit who teaches that good is bad and bad is good, understand? Do not be fooled. However, many will based on their lack of understanding of My love. Do you understand why you are here?”
- Me: “No, Lord, not fully. I look around, I see You and then You welcome me even when You should be rebuking me. You do not give up on me when I believe others would. I am used to conditional love. I first learned about unconditional love from the Bible.
- “The Holy Spirit would, and does, illuminate the love letter of Scripture so that I will receive it. With You staying with me and revealing the Scriptures in ‘almost live’ application, it is as if You have given me an advanced holographic experience of You completely.
- “I have all the experiences of a fantastic movie, but this is real to me. My body responds and even my pacemaker responds in registered beats. I wish that there was, or is, a way my friends could experience You like I do, Lord. It is a miracle. I am hooked on You and the living Bible like my sons enjoy video games.”
- Jesus: Laughing. “Erin, Heaven is so much more advanced than Earth. You cannot even speak of Heavenly technology as it is beyond remote controls, cellular towers and hubs. There is no need for a satellite.
- “Technically speaking, the ‘satellite center’ is the Throne of God. All currents come from it via the River of Life. The currents feed all you see here. There is no need for batteries as nothing ever dies. Last time, I took your hand and we were at the pool. Come here.”
- I walk over to Him. He grabs my hand and squeezes it gently. In a twinkling of an eye, I am standing on a beautiful cobble path with chiseled jasper stones. There are channels of water flowing on the walls surrounding the path.

- There are incredible ivy plants with blooming fragrant flowers pouring off of these walls. I stand in front of a beautiful modern mansion cut into the side of this mountain. I look back and I see the Valley below us.
- Jesus: “Erin, look where we just were.”
- He points to a distant ridge so far away that, with human eyes, I could not see that far. The path meanders back and forth in switchbacks up this mountain. Midway up, I see a garden with a pond. I begin to cry.
- Me: “Lord, I have seen this in my dreams. This is my mountain Home.”
- Jesus: “Yes, very good. The workers are almost finished. Come.”
- He takes me to the top of the path. There are a series of bowls that pour water into the channels on either side of the path. The sound is amazing and I am in tears. He walks me up some chiseled stone stairs. They were like gold and white limestone, yet with the appearance of concrete, but deeper.
- Before me is the most amazing Home, a Home way too wonderful for me. I am crying as I write. The front yard has beautiful grass and is groomed so perfectly that it would be unmatched on Earth.
- I have worked on mansions in several areas of the country and I have seen incredible homes designed by the top residential architects in the world, but I have never seen anything like this.
- The windows are facing the valley. They look like they are cut from the finest crystal goblets, like Riedel or Baccarat. Here I am, talking windows in Heaven! I see the base of the Home, or foundation, and it is made from a solid rock. I see beams that on Earth would be steel, but, here in Heaven, they are burnished bronze. My jaw dropped.
- Jesus: “Erin, do you like what you see?” He knew I did.
- Me: “Lord, what do You mean by the workers are almost finished? Could You not wave Your hand and have this complete in an instant?”
- Jesus: “Of course, but what does this do for the workers? There are people that have requested to serve on the completion of your Home in the mountain. They love to serve. If I were to have you here today, told you that I need you to work with a team on a mansion with no budget and that the only restriction would be to capture the essence of the person or client who is to occupy it, would you not do this?”

- Me: “Oh, how fun. Yes, I would love to. I saw some shops in the City with all kinds of things...”
- He was laughing at my excitement.
- Jesus: “Erin, the workers on your Home are those who have been given the files from the ‘records office’. There have been angels assigned to each of you who record all that you like from the beginning. The records are formulated and then a unique design team is assembled consisting of architects, designers, landscapers, framers, masons, carpenters and seamstresses.
- “Oh yes, let’s not forget the artists. This team is assembled by Me. Every time you worked on a project that you loved, every time you saw something that made you smile and every dream on Earth that wasn’t realized; all came into this great design.
- “Erin, this is just your mountain Home. So, from what you see so far, what do you think about the faith in earthly technology?”
- Me: “This doesn’t compare. It is impossible. It is too wonderful for me. Can I see more?”
- Jesus: “You need to have some surprises when you get here.”
- He was kidding with me. He walked me along some chiseled, large, cut, flat rocks that came out of a shallow pond. We walked from step to step. There were beautiful little shimmering fish that jumped out of the water to praise Jesus as we walked. It was fascinating. We came to a spot where there were two massive water walls going into the pond. The sound was so beautiful.
- Jesus: “Now, Erin, look up.”
- Above me were some glass windows. Jesus waved His hands and the glass seemed to disappear. He grabbed my hand and we were instantly on the second floor of this mansion, MY mansion!! I still find it hard to believe and call it this.
- We were now standing in ‘my’ living room. There was a bridge that went from one space in the House to another part of the House which crossed over the water walls below. I vaguely remembered seeing a home like this on Earth once and it was incredible.

- Me: “Lord...” I could barely speak. I was holding my breath and tears were streaming. “This is like a home I saw once, but You waved Your hands and the glass disappeared. This is similar to a ‘nana wall’ on Earth, but easily a hundred generations ahead of it in the future.”
- Jesus: Smiling. “Yes, I know. Do you know why I put them on this side specifically?”
- Me: “No.”
- Jesus: “You have loved the sound of water since you were a toddler. This is so you can hear it upon the entrance to your Home and while you are inside too.”
- I was crying. How did He know this? I looked around the space and I held my breath. The furniture was just like Kreiss, but custom. I saw before me a sectional that looked just like the ‘Kreiss Azul Collection’. Wow, this is so expensive.
- Me: “Lord, I see things here that I have specified for clients. Was I coveting, Lord?”
- Jesus: “No. You no longer covet, especially the last five years since your first experience of Heaven. When you remarked how pretty something is, you never went further in your thoughts because it was no longer worth the cost. You traded the pursuit of these things for the pursuit of Me and Heaven. Because of this, I rewarded you. Now, go sit in this.”
- Me: I began to cry. “Lord, it is like sitting in a cloud. This is finer than ‘Kriess’, and even finer than ‘Scalamandre’. The fabric is fine silk chenille and white. How can I own white furniture?”
- I am laughing and crying at the same time. I looked at the detail in the seams; such finery. I felt that this was way too wonderful for me. The floor was made from extremely large planks of wood from a very old and tall tree, or trees. These were hand scraped and fit so perfectly, beyond ‘Owen’ and beyond handmade from the Amish. The wood had so much depth. Incredible!
- Me: “Lord, the floor is incredible. What is the story on this?”
- Jesus: “This floor is very unique and very special. The design team in Heaven knew you would appreciate it. I call these pieces of wood, ‘Pages from My Life on Earth'. As you recall, I am a carpenter.” I had actually forgotten. “This flooring is requested by many saints here. You will enjoy this.”

- “There is memory wood here. There are pieces of wood made from trees since the inception of the Garden on Earth, but in Heavenly terms. So, over here is a plank from the Ark. Over here is a cedar plank from the First Temple. Over here is a piece of olive from Gethsemane. Here is a plank from the House of David.
- “These were destroyed on Earth and much burned, but the good memories were salvaged. There are things here that you will discover over time, but look how beautiful it is.”
- Me: “Lord, how is there enough wood to put in everyone’s Homes here?”
- Jesus: Smiling. “Erin, on Earth, there were whole forests destroyed over time. Do the math. Surely there will be plenty in Heaven.”
- Me: “Lord, I love this floor. What is the wood species?”
- Jesus: “Well, let’s see; we have acacia, olive, myrtle, cedar and oak. All of these are mentioned in the Bible. This is just one of the fun items that you will enjoy here. Look, Erin.”
- I turned and, right before me, was a wall of windows to the back yard. He waved His hands and the windows retracted into the walls. The glass was seamless and impossible on Earth.
- The backyard was perfectly groomed. The patio was made of white rock, like limestone and marble, but had no veins and no high polish. It was natural and consisted of very large pavers, like eight feet by twelve feet bricks. This would be virtually impossible on Earth without complex machinery.
- Jesus: “Erin, your thoughts?”
- Me: “Lord, the floor of this patio would be impossible to replicate on Earth. What quarry made this? Oops, sorry, Lord, we are in Heaven and God is the Creator. This is just beyond my understanding. How will this be possible that I will be walking on something this amazing for eternity?”
- Jesus: Laughing. “Erin, these are really small things in Heaven that have an earthly concept that you can understand. There is much more. It doesn’t just stop here.”

- Me: “Lord, here I see You in everything. Even serving others is joyful. I didn’t slave to work here, yet You have given me a beautiful place, far beyond my idea of what I would deserve. I am so blessed. How can I be this blessed? I will have no choice but to desire praising You constantly here. Since worship is so incredible here, I know that I will constantly praise You.”
- He smiles and shows me the rest of the area in the back. The grounds are very large. I am not sure how many acres the grounds are, but very large.
- Coming outside, there is a very long channeled pool about eight feet wide and thirty feet long. Inside, the walls are lined in, what looks like, a cut sapphire. There are fountains springing up in a line all the way down. Every five feet there are about six or seven fountains. Each fountain springs light green ‘emerald’ water that shimmers.
- There are curved jasper and marble lounging chairs in the pool where you can sit half immersed in the water. There is beautiful patio furniture seemingly of masculine black iron. This had thick cushions of dark gold on it that match the rugged, yet still pristine, exterior of the Home.
- I look to the side. There, I began to turn around in 180 degrees. The Home wraps around the courtyard. I look to my right and I see an opening where there is the most comfortable bed.
- Me: “Lord, is there sleep in Heaven? Why would we need sleep?”
- Jesus: Smiling. “Is Heaven not a place of rest and relaxation? Where are you thinking you will spend all of your resting time; eating rejuvenating fruit and bathing in the River of Life? Is rest not good on Earth? Would it not be even better here?”
- Me: “I guess? I assumed that, since there is no darkness, we would need no sleep.”
- Jesus: “I understand, but there is more to this. I know this seems odd, but remember the most restful sleep you ever had?”
- Me: “I can barely remember that. I am not sure I have ever really experienced that. I know that, when I sleep without pain, it is hard to wake up.”
- Jesus: “Think of Heaven as a place where you lack nothing. On Earth, Erin, there is lack and you lack sleep right? You do not sleep in peace. Here, you rest in peace and joy after a satisfying day of service. You then wake, fully rested, glad to wake up and in complete praise, for the Lord is good. When you first have rest here, it will not be an easy concept to understand, but it is also a form of worship.”

- Me: “I guess I could see people arguing this, but, to me, it makes perfect sense. Lord, I would love to sleep in perfect peace like a baby. I would love to sleep and have no pain upon rising. How glorious, really. The bedroom is so beautiful and I can sleep with open walls. I can hear the sound of the fountains!”
- Jesus: “Now come this way.”
- In the distance, I could see the side of the mountain. There is a large pool with a waterfall coming out of the side of the mountain. The pool is completely illuminated. Surrounding the pool is a large bunch of aspens seemingly forming an arch. The leaves are moving in the breeze and music is coming from them. It is quite breathtaking.
- Jesus turns me around and there I see an area where fountains are squirting out from the ground and making large arches about twelve feet high and seven feet wide. Each fountain is illuminated.
- Beyond that is the pool and house. Over to my left is a large cabana with a retractable ceiling and a very large chair, almost like a bed. There are pillows everywhere. There are incredible pulley fans; large curved leaves that are attached to the sides of the walls that fan back and forth. I smiled and laughed. I had specified something like this, but not as elaborate, with a client years ago. The fans are made by a company called ‘Fanimation’.
- Me: “Lord, I cannot believe how amazing this is. How do I deserve a home that, in earthly terms, is priceless?” He smiled at me as I said this with such joy in His face.
- Jesus: “Erin it is because you are priceless to Me. Someday, very soon, you will see your friend’s Mansions; one they have requested that you design, so they are waiting to have their Home completed until you all arrive.”
- I was crying. I could not believe someone would wait for me to be here first.
- Jesus: “Erin, look over here.”
- I saw the Home next to mine. It was a beautiful ‘Mediterranean style’ sitting by the lake. It was incredible. I had worked on a 14,000 sq. ft. home on the river in Portland that is ‘Mediterranean’, but certainly nothing like this. This was absolutely incredible.

- Me: “Which friend is this?”
- Jesus: “You will know soon enough. Oh, and do not worry about the friends who are waiting for you. They have another Home. There is no negative waiting or unfinished mansions leaving the client ‘out in the cold’. No such thing as construction delays.”
- He was laughing. I laughed so hard because this is the nature of the home building business. No delays are simply unheard of on Earth.
- Jesus: “Are you happy and encouraged?”
- Me: “Lord, it was a small concept before and something in my dreams. I thought it was, perhaps, a product of my over amplified imagination. However, this, Lord, this is not even close to what I imagined. I am so blessed.”
- Jesus: “Erin, you need to know that your pain and suffering here and your perseverance has a reward. You never owned a home on Earth. Do you know how many dreams for others you have helped facilitate on Earth? How many wealthy people have trusted you with their dreams?”
- “Yet, while doing all of this, you stood on the outside, knowing this was not likely for you on Earth? Do you think for a moment that I did not want to come right to you and show you the plans I have for you and to show you My love for you?”
- Me: Crying. “Lord, I didn’t require this. I never even could imagine this. I would still love You even if I had a small home here. This is so elaborate.”
- Jesus: “I have never forgotten you; not even once. I love showing this to you. I knew you would love this place. Here, you can have rest. Here, there is no mortgage to meet. Here, your debts have been paid. Here, you have no pain. Here, you have no punisher. You are safe with me in Heaven.
- “Did I not tell you that you would have a nest near My Altar? I have longed to be able to fully show you what I have here for you. My favor will not be removed. Remember your place and where you reside, okay? Come.”
- He takes my hand. Immediately, we are at a very high place in Heaven. I see down over the property. It is huge and stunning. I see other properties with many amazing features. I am just in awe and shock. It is like Earth, but only all the good and wonderful things there that are incredible, then these are all perfected here.

- Off in the east, I saw the beautiful City of Gold. I could see the Throne. The glory of the Throne reflected a 'Reidel' type crystal light at everyone's windows, flowing a beautiful spectrum of light into each Home.
- Me: "The technology here is really incredible. It is so advanced. You are right about the Throne where God sits being even brighter than the sun. All life springs forth from God. Jesus, You are the creator of all things new. You love us so much."
- As I look across the landscape, I see mountains, valleys, lakes, rivers, tropical areas and snow-capped mountains. Stunned, I look at something, but perhaps it is a mirage? If not a mirage, I believe that I am seeing a golf course! However, it is the most elaborate golf course I have ever seen. It looked so fun. I looked some more and I also see baseball and soccer fields."
- Jesus: He is laughing. "So, you were thinking that Heaven doesn't have fishing, recreation and sports? Really?"
- He then points to a large lake. On the lake were massive catamarans with sails. Each of these on Earth would be worth at least a million dollars. There appeared to be some sort of giant race happening. Wow, I could tell this was fun for everyone!
- Me: "I guess we are so engrained with the teaching that leisure activities, such as these, are decadent and not part of Heaven. I was told by a person that supposedly traveled here that all children have to do for fun is spin in the air and play something like soccer.
- "Honestly, from what they wrote, nothing seemed like that much fun in Heaven. I guess I expected to come and do nothing but worship and serve and that this was it and that was that."
- Jesus: "Erin, think about what Heaven is and not what Heaven is not. There is not one person who is not now residing here that can claim they know Heaven. Look how many times you have been here. Can you claim to be an expert?"
- Me: "No."
- Jesus: "What lines up more with the character of God; that you come here and find joy in slavery or that you find joy and praise God in all things here? So, you wanted to be a professional athlete at one point. Would it not be fun to finally have that hole in one?"

- “Can you not enjoy dance or music here? Can you not enjoy going to watch an orchestra or even a soccer game? Who told you that there was lack here? Oh yes, the one who was cast out and perhaps just a ‘little’ bitter about that.” He laughed. “Now, do you believe the punisher or the Lover of your soul on this; the One who delights in My daughter’s complete joy over the place I have prepared for her?”
- I was crying. I reached over and hugged Him.
- Me: “Lord, I know You are coming soon. My Mansion is perfect now and that furniture I saw is current to ‘now’ time. We are coming Home very soon, right?”
- Jesus: “Erin, I am finishing your Mansion. If I have prepared a place for you, why would I put dated items in something you will not dwell in for some years to come? Again, think about this. When you prayed over the dying man in 2003, what did the Holy Spirit say to the man who was hours from going Home?”
- Me: I began to cry. “You spoke, through me, the following, ‘The finishing touches are almost complete. The angels are hanging your porch swing right now.’”
- Jesus: “Then what happened?”
- Me: “Apparently, he had prayed to You for this since he was a little boy. He, and everyone in the room, knew You were speaking, not me.”
- Jesus: “When did the man go Home?”
- Me: “I believe he was gone that very day. However, I am not ready yet.” I laughed.
- Jesus: “I gave you this as a gauge to be on alert because you never know when the final touches are being made. You never know, if you go to sleep tonight, if tomorrow is the day you wake up in My arms.”
- Me: “Thank You for this blessing, Lord.”
- Jesus: “I love you, Erin. I delight in you ‘Sparrows’ and I watch over them.”
- Erin: “Oh, thank You, Lord.”
- Jesus: “Now, be encouraged, be strong and have faith. I have prepared a place for you.” Dream over...Erin

Such a Debt, who can Pay?

I am continuing to run this story, as this is a great witnessing story to use to lead someone to Jesus Christ. I believe this could be the study you will want to share with your unsaved friends and this story and the scriptures can let them know how much God loves them and wants to forgive them.

While attending Bible College years ago I enjoyed reading stories I could use to share the Gospel and I would put them into a note book for later use. I found this story about Czar Nicolas the leader of Russia. It was such a good story of forgiveness that I have never forgot it.

So I asked my barber if he had ever heard of Czar Nicolas? He said no so I proceeded to share this story.

Czar Nicolas the king of Russia would from time to time travel to outposts in Russia disguised as someone else so he could see for himself what was going on in his country.

As he was making his tour late one night in this one particular outpost he was walking down the halls of this town hall kind of building and he noticed that the lights were still on in the office of the town treasurer.

Let me go back and explain what was going on in this office. The treasurer for this out post was misusing funds, He was losing money gambling and thinking his luck would turn back he kept digging a bigger hole that would eventually bury him. Then one day it was the day of reckoning. He received a notice that in a couple of days the bank examiners were coming to check the books and do an audit.

He knew he was in big trouble so on this same night that the Czar would be walking the halls of his office, he was up late counting money and figuring out how much trouble he was in. When he finished adding up the debt that he owed, he knew he was in to deep and there was no way out. His solution was he would take his life. He had his pistol on the table and when he finished adding up the debt he owed he wrote these words at the bottom of the balance sheet. “Such a debt, who can pay?”

He was overwhelmed with fatigue so he laid his head down on the desk and fell fast to sleep. While he was sleeping, this is when the Czar of Russia spotted the light on so late in the office of the Treasurer. The Czar saw the door was unlocked and he walked in. He sees the man sleeping, he sees the gun lying by his hand and he looks at the record book and realized this man had been stealing from his kingdom, a crime that would mean the death penalty and disgrace. Then at the bottom of the balance sheet the Czar spotted these words. “Such a debt, who can pay?” This is when the Czar picked up a pen and under the words, “Such a debt, who can pay?” the Czar signed his name and walked out the door.

Just before morning the treasurer woke up and realizing how long he had been asleep, he reached for his pistol to take his life and just before ending his life he looked down at the bottom of the balance sheet and saw the signature of Czar Nicolas. Finding this hard to believe he looked into his files for a document with the Czar’s signature and sure enough the Czar had been there that night and paid his debt. The next day men from the Treasury of Russia arrived with bags containing the missing money and his debt was paid in full.

The Bible says that we will all stand before God and be judged from what has been written about us in the record books of our lives. We all have been assigned guardian angels to watch over us and record every word, thought, good deeds and bad.

Just like that man in charge of the cash of his town in the story above, God has access of the record books of your life. We owe a debt that is “Such a debt, who can pay?” If you will call out to Jesus the one who died to pay for your debts. If you will ask Jesus to forgive your sins, Jesus will take his eraser and wipe out the sins that have been recorded in the record book of your life. Then at the bottom of the blank pages of your record book, Jesus will sign His name with these words. “Paid in full by Jesus Christ.”

Below I have written out important scriptures for leading someone to Jesus and I have included the sinners prayer as a guideline for leading someone to Jesus.

Share God’s Plan of Salvation

1. Admit you are a sinner and repent.

(Romans 3:10 NIV), “As it is written: There is no one righteous, not even one.”

(Romans 3:23 NIV), “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

(Luke 5:32 NIV), “I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance

2. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(John 3:16 NIV), “For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

3. Confess or declare that Jesus is the Lord of your life.

(Romans 10:9 NIV), “That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shall be saved.

The Sinner’s Prayer

If you would like God to forgive all your sins and make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, then stop here and say this prayer to God. (Prayer is simply talking to God.)

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus Christ died on the cross for me. Please forgive me of all my sins. Jesus, please come into my heart and wash my sins away. Please be the Lord of my life and help me to live for you every day. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

The Bible says when a sinner repents and makes Jesus his Lord, the angels in heaven rejoice. A word of warning is advised at this point. As we read in the story of the ten virgins, not all who call themselves Christians will make it to heaven. Knowing about Jesus and the plan of salvation is no guarantee of making it to heaven. When we arrive in heaven, the greatest surprise will be seeing people we did not think would make it. And just as surprising will be the absence of those we thought would be there. The Bible says Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and wants to come in and live with us. The important thing to realize is God wants our hearts, not just our minds. Head knowledge about salvation does not save us, but sincerely allowing God to forgive and wash our sins away will allow God to give you a new heart. When your heart is changed, people will notice you have been changed and made into a new person in Christ. This is called being “Born Again.”
