“I have given you enough warning before It happens”

(Words given on May 17, 2023. 10:15AM)

In the morning, I was following the trends and the daily events of the volcano for a reason. I noticed, today May 17, 2023, there were three eruptions with moderate lava flows. Then, I heard the words which say “I have given you enough warning before it happens.” Giving the words the weight they deserve, I continued watching if there were more eruption. I understood and realized that, “The warnings given to us” are the eruption of Popocatepetl volcano in Mexico which is the final sign before the big earthquake hits the region, the west coast and California ie. the warnings “Before it happens”

As many are aware, we have been watching the plum of smoke and ash, the cracking and noise of this volcano for over two years. More than enough warnings were given in all aspects of the impending storm. This is the final warning. Now, No one can say warnings are not given.

In the last three weeks, Popocatepetl volcano woke up with explosive eruptions releasing intermittent lava flows almost every day. Once, two times, three time a day and even five times on May 15, 2023.

What follows is:-

- 1. An explosive eruption.
- 2. A big earthquake (around region of the volcano).
- 3. and the dreaded California quake.
