

Off the hook!!!

McKana. July 15, 2023.

Psalm 121(kjv)

7. The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Proverbs 4:23-25(KJV)

24 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

As I have endured the ceaseless attack of the enemy for years, there were dark forces trying to stop me from going with my life, to stop me doing the work, trying to put snares on my way, working hard to dry my income, stealing my time through distractions and by driving me sleepless, interfering with my relationship with the Lord, doing evil to upset and anger me working against the grace of redemptions by the Lord.

How was the enemy doing that? By plucking a seemingly small thorn in my working hand and in my life. The small thorn which looked small actually was the evil work of the enemy, a painful devise of evil attack, torment and deception by using whatever means is available for it.

Loosing a good night sleep is not only detrimental to health, lose of concentration, lose of focus, efficiency through tampering with the mind but above all it is a systematic plan of the enemy to interfere/stop the visions, dreams and revelations from the Lord and an evil work against the intimacy we have and the flow of communication with the Lord.

Off the hook!!!

(Dream-Vision of July 12, 2023. 2:15AM)

Left hand.

The hand

I went to bed at ~1:30AM. Almost for 45minuts, I couldn't sleep. In a while I find myself by the side of a tall table lamp. There is a thorn stuck in my left hand between the thumb and the index finger. I see the tip of the thorn, the whole length can be five millimeters. It is on the left hand but the same position the mark of the beast is introduced.

I am trying to pluck it out by my right hand holding it with the nail of the thumb and the index finger. I see my sister watching me. Because I was holding it good, she didn't offer help. I pinched and plucked it out. The flesh of my skin is inverted out together with what is coming out. I looked at what it is. It is metallic three pronged hook with the outer end flattened and thick. It is not a thorn, it is a strong metallic devise in the shape of a hook with three sharp ends(see the sactch). Now, in my hand, I see the size is larg, as large as four centimeters. Even if the hook is plucked out, due to the three ends of the sharp hook, it has torn my flesh pulling it out. I am holding it in my hand and my sister is watching with some one at her side. I hear our elder sister saying "What are you doing with my brother" out of the concern from what is going on.

The mark of the beast is on the right hand.

The device on the left arm is very strange.

In the first place, how did it get there?

Evidently, the hook is the anchor. Is the thick flattened out tip a device which is introduced to the arm as a "Mark?" I don't know but it is something related and evil.

The deceptive enemy comes in an evil deceptive way.

Things which look small and simple have a hidden evil agenda.

Some evil elements which has been working against me, with or without knowing it is removed from my life.

One way or the other, it is plucked out.

The message which come to mind is "Off the hook!!!"

Off the hook means:-

-No longer in difficulty or trouble.

The plot of the enemy is foiled.

The true meaning is delivered from evil.

Redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Hallelujah!!!

Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles. Proverbs 21:23(KJV)
