

Propaganda Warning #2 - 'The Great Togetherness' Naomi C.

'The Great Togetherness' is my second post regarding propaganda. My first, was on 'Bright Future' Communist propaganda. Propaganda Warning - Naomi C. - 444 Prophecy News I am sharing these propaganda warnings because we will encounter much more thought control in the future. Propaganda into the future will not necessarily represent entirely new methods of thought manipulation but will likely be pulling levers/concepts already well established in minds today. If what I am sharing can help prepare, strengthen, and protect anyone, even just a little, then I consider it well worth my effort.

What is the 'Great Togetherness' and how does it relate to modern propaganda? In essence the great togetherness is like a large, receptive, societal garden bed, that is created, tilled, and nurtured to enable all other propaganda messages that will be planted in it to take root, grow, and flourish.

Jacques Ellul, in his book, Propaganda, stressed the 'primary importance placed on the feeling of togetherness' to make propaganda more 'effective both psychologically and sociologically'. He wrote: '...propaganda can act only where man's psychology is influenced by the crowd or mass to which he belongs.' Robert Lifton, in his book on brainwashing and thought reform in China, referred to the first stage of thought reform as 'the great togetherness':

'The first stage of thought reform (The great togetherness) offers a prelude of promise – the sense of effortlessly merging with a dedicated group which is basic to any utopian quest.'

Meanwhile, in terms of the orchestration of thought control in our present day, there's not a branded troll, princess, pig, minion, or doll, that isn't globally propagandising children in 'The Great Togetherness'. 'BETTER TOGETHER' is one of the most common printed slogans preached to children on a variety of products across the world.

The words 'Better Together' are often also associated with rainbow symbolism, and rainbow colours. The rainbow being a usurped religious symbol now used to represent one of the largest ideological/lifestyle movements of our time (also one of the largest globally promoted 'togetherness' movements of our time). The rainbow movement appears to have been used as the primary driving force for public acceptance toward an alternative 'moral'/immoral code, one inverting a traditional moral order in its wake. This movement elevates a wilful, proud, and autonomous human, one operating outside of the will of a transcendent God, and fully celebrating it. This new order has been aggressively marketed to all for decades via an orchestrated campaign of propaganda, a campaign that has sought 'allies' to further its cause, here, there, and everywhere.

While we are all exposed to 'togetherness' propaganda on many levels, children appear to be at the receiving end of much of it, not only from schools, but even earlier, via licenced characters in the marketplace. Perhaps we should not be surprised that some of these small licenced propagandizers, also repeatedly leave the calling card of the one who is apparently orchestrating their campaigns much further up the dark spiritual food chain. This appears to be done in the form of leaving printed pentagrams (the symbol of witchcraft and Satanism) on some of the very same products (everything from children's colouring books to tee shirts) that also appear to be propagandizing young minds that they are ‘Better together’, that they ‘Shine Bright together’ are ‘Brilliant Together’ and ‘Stronger Together’.

For example, a page in a Giant Activity book for children, available from Amazon is printed with the slogan ‘Together We Shine’. The same page is also printed with three stylized pentagrams. The Activity book is listed on Amazon (Australia). The symbols and slogan can be found through the following product link: [Barbie: Giant Activity Pad \(Mattel\) : Amazon.com.au: Books](https://www.amazon.com.au: Books) (last viewed 15th October 2023). For the curious, look at the fourth small image found under the section ‘Roll over image to zoom in’ on the Amazon (Au) listing.

I referred to the character in the link above in my first post (Warning: Symbols of sorcery on mass produced products for babies and children - Naomi C. - 444 Prophecy News) I have seen pentagrams printed on over seventy different products associated with this well-known character/doll. The messaging she (via Mattel) promotes to children reads like pure propaganda to me, with slogans such as ‘Better Together’ and ‘The Future is Bright’ to be found in various places, including on children’s clothing and colouring books. I do not believe the mass global printing of pentagrams, alongside historic propaganda messaging placed on products for children, via licenced characters for children, to be an unplanned, irrelevant coincidence.

The Devil, The Father of Lies, The Tempter, Satan, The Prince of Darkness, Milton’s ‘False Worm’, is now apparently well off the tree in Eden in his suit of slime at this end of things. Is he now dressed in the dry corporate attire fitting the role of CEO of GLOBAL PROPAGANDA? What is clear is that so many promoted messages today, not the least of which are the messages children are repetitively receiving from the marketplace, contain the scent and symbolism of The Ultimate Propagandist (and the scent and symbolism of those who serve and follow him, whether they do so consciously or not).

Outside the realm of propaganda, we truly are ‘Better Together’, but only in the context that was planned for us, well outside of the perversions of manipulative marketplace messages. “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” (Matthew 18:20) KJV ‘For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s building.’ (1 Corinthians 3:9) KJV

We should beware of any ‘togetherness’ messaging coming from the worldly political, media, and market spheres, especially when it comes with pentagram symbolism. We are better together only in the original, intended, and best sense, when God is our focus.

While the world is filled with many obvious conflicts and destructive divisions, some escalating by the day, we must also see the powerful alienating, and destructive strains of highly orchestrated ‘togetherness’ in play. Many preaching togetherness today, from licenced characters pushing rainbows, to virtue signalling corporations, ultimately influence large numbers of people to be together against the will of the living God through their promoted agendas. In doing so they also encourage others to be together against those who believe in God and his word.

The ultimate culmination of a growing ‘togetherness’ in our world, increasingly directed against Christian teachings and Christians themselves, can be found in the bible verse (Matthew 24:9).

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake.”

The verse above is part of the Olivet Discourse, where, in Matthew, Jesus answered the questions from his disciples while together on the Mount of Olives.

“Tell us when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?” the disciples of Jesus asked.

Critically, the first warning Jesus gave his disciples in Matthew 24, related specifically to deception.

“And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.” (Matt 24:4)

In this post today, I encourage you to beware the propaganda and deception of ‘The Great Togetherness’, used historically, and very much in use today.

Please pray for the children whose minds are being relentlessly influenced with ‘togetherness’ messages by some of their favourite commercial characters. Are young minds, and minds of all ages, being cultivated and prepared via ‘the great togetherness’ propaganda for more significant propaganda in the future? It certainly looks that way.
